

Lion Harrier Win Expected by Werner

"On the basis of performance to date, we should beat Michigan State on Saturday," Nittany cross-country Coach Chick Werner said yesterday.

"Fran Dittrich (the Spartan coach) has a very good squad this year, but I think ours is just a little bit better," Werner said.

The Spartans opened the 1958 season with a second place effort in the Michigan AAU meet with 48 points, well behind Western Michigan with 28 points. For the opener, they were without the services of their two top veterans—Capt. Forddy Kennedy and Bob Lake.

In contrast, the Lions are undefeated with dual meet victories over Navy, Cornell and Pittsburgh.

This situation, however, does not point toward an easy victory. Last year, the Spartans dropped a 27-36 verdict in the Michigan AAU meet, but came on to beat the Lions, 24-31, and finish a close second to Notre Dame for the NCAA title.

The Spartans, however, will miss the two-time IC4-A champion Henry Kennedy and Ron Wheeler—fifth against the Lions in 1956 and 1957—has been far off his form of the two past years, finishing well back in the pack in the last two meets.

Werner lists several reasons for his optimism toward the upcoming meet.

First and foremost, Werner has been impressed by the fine running of Capt. Fred Kerr, Ed Moran and Dick Engelbrink this fall.

Last year, Moran finished 9.5 seconds behind Forddy Kennedy, with Kerr crossing the line one second later. Engelbrink—recovering from a bout with the Asiatic flu—finished 12th. This year, Dick Engelbrink ... a sleeping beauty?

Werner believes that it is a toss-up between Kennedy, Moran and Kerr.

Werner issued another forewarning to the Spartans saying, "One of these days, Engelbrink is going to wake up and find himself beating the best our opposition has to offer—he could pull a big surprise against Michigan State."

PKS, Hi-Fliers, Skidrowers, DU Go Undefeated to Playoffs

By JIM KARL
Phi Kappa Sigma, Delta Upsilon, the Hi-Fliers, and Skidrowers all turned in victories last night to complete perfect records in intramural play. Each team has four wins and no losses and will advance to next week's playoffs.

Phi Kappa Sigma met tough opposition in Theta Chi, barely squeaking through to a 7-6 win. John Right's PAT was the margin of victory. Early in the game Theta Chi scored on a 10-yard pass from Glen Weishaar to Jack Mallino.

Phi Kappa Sigma came back with Gip Bonar passing to Al Lammey for 30 yards and a TD. Theta Chi had the consolation of being the only team to score on Phi Kappa Sigma in four games.

The toe of Si Dubinsky carried Delta Upsilon to a 15-0 Herda shutout over Sigma Phi Epsilon. Dubinsky racked up 7 points on two field goals (25 and 30 yards) and a PAT. Tom Edwards snagged a 40-yard aerial from Ben Amato for the other 6 points.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon scored once in each half while holding Delta Sigma Phi in check as it won handily, 14-0. Jim Stopper winged passes to Pete Moran and Bob Elder for the scores. Elder converted after both TD's.

Glenn Buzza hauled down a 20-yard pass and scampered 40 yards for the only score of the game as the Skidrowers stopped the Fighting Fifth, 6-0.

An intermittent rain didn't stop

Hamilton VII as Skip Brown unleashed heaves of 50 and 40 yards to Mike West to ease past Jordan II, 14-12. Otto Funky and Jim Bresiekar ran over the deciding points after touchdown. Jordan II scored on passes from Dave Maize to Jerry Manetti and Dave Antenucci.

Thompson V and the Hi-Fliers played to a 7-7 tie. However, the Hi-Fliers added another victory to their perfect record by way of first downs, 6-1. Dave Bergstien of Thompson V pulled in a 15-yard TD pass from Scott Overdorf early in the first quarter and Fritz Collins converted.

The Hi-Fliers came storming back when Bob Herda intercepted a pass and steamed 20 yards for the TD. Joe Ondrey split the uprights to tie the game.

Soccer Coach Calls Maryland Top Remaining Opponent

Both are lettermen and have seen plenty of action for the Terrapins.

The other co-captain—Dick Coates—heads the Terp halfback corps. Coates is one of the best defensive men on the Terrapin squad according to Royal. Richie Romine and John Fulton are the other two halfbacks.

The Maryland defensive trio is made up of Bobby Vosswinkel and Algirdas Bacanskas at the fullback slots and Freddy Lehman in the nets.

Even though the Terrapins have five sophs in the starting lineup, they are considered the toughest opponent the Lions will face the rest of the season.

"Maryland is going to be tough because they want to beat us so bad," said Lion coach Ken Hosterman. "The fact that one more loss will knock us right out of contention for the national title should give them some added incentive."

Maryland's sophs have proved themselves this year. They played a big part in the Terp win over North Carolina and goalie Lehman turned in a sparkling performance in Maryland's tie game with Navy last week.

Would you call this fair play?

Hardly—yet you face the same kind of unfairness with some of your taxes

The referee in this picture is doing something no official in his right mind would do. He's tackling the ball-carrier, and thus giving an unfair advantage to the opposing team. In a similar way, federal laws give certain people an unfair tax advantage over you and most Americans. Here's how:

About 23 cents out of every dollar you pay for electricity goes for taxes. But under present tax laws, several million families and businesses escape paying most of the taxes in their electric bills that you pay in yours. They are people whose electricity comes from federal government electric systems.

And what's more, the taxes they escape have to be made up by other people—including you!

Most Americans think everyone should pay his own fair share of taxes. Don't you agree?

Murtaugh Selected 'Manager of Year'

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK (AP)—As if there were any doubts about it, the voters in The Associated Press poll have made the selection official. Danny Murtaugh is Major League Manager of the Year.

The man who piloted the Pittsburgh Pirates to second place in the National League race after they generally had been picked to finish seventh or eighth was a landslide choice of the sportswriters and sportscasters taking part in the balloting.

He received 149 votes. Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants, in second place, was first choice of six voters; Fred Haney of the National League Champion Milwaukee Braves and Casey Stengel of the World Champion New York Yankees each received five nominations.

Murtaugh has the added distinction of being the first manager to be chosen on a ballot which encompassed the managers in both leagues. Previously The Associated Press poll selected a manager for each league.

What the 41-year-old former second baseman, who had been a coach with Pittsburgh for almost two years, did with his mixture of callow youth and grizzled veterans verged on a baseball miracle.

The team gradually jelled as the season progressed. Murtaugh stuck pretty close to one lineup.

The main stamp of the club was the team effort. The youngsters were unawed by the reputations of their opponents, and in their 22 games with the champion Braves they earned an even split.

Murtaugh could be classed as the "do as I say, not as I did" type of manager. He was no great shakes as a player himself. In 707 games with Philadelphia, Boston and Pittsburgh his batting average was an anemic .254.

Murtaugh, strictly in character, takes no particular credit for the amazing climb of the Pirates. Advised of his designation as manager of the year he said at his Woodland, Pa., home:

"Actually, a manager doesn't have too much to do with where his team finishes. The players do, and this honor should have gone to them.

"A majority of the players reached their expected potential this past season and that is why we finished as high as we did. I think a lot of the rival clubs will worry about us next year."
