

DUMMY, MASTER OF CEREMONIES Richard Christian and Blue Band members struck the Beat Syracuse note at last night's pep rally sponsored by two senior hat societies, Mortar Board, women's, and Pami Nous, men's.

Students Meet Gielgud

'He's the Greatest' Drama Students Say

By BOBBI LEVINE

Four University students spent an evening with Sir John Gielgud, noted British actor and director, recently, and all four have one thing to say about him—"he's the greatest."

The students, Jon Barry Wilder, Derek Swire, Floyd Santoro and Sally Swing, theatre arts majors, attended a reception held for Gielgud following his appearance on campus last Saturday.

"We sat around him like kids at the feet of the old master," said Swire. "We discussed his four—where he had been and where he is going."

"We talked about Shakespeare," said Miss Swing. "He said he thought Shakespeare had so much knowledge of human life and anyone who altered the lines of his plays would be committing a sacrilege."

Miss Swing said Gielgud talked about "Hamlet" and said his interpretation of the role and that of Sir Laurence Olivier was entirely different. But he said the audiences accepted both interpretations because each showed a new idea.

"I asked him why he hadn't played Hamlet in 20 years since he loves the role so much," said Wilder. "He said he thinks he is too old for the role and couldn't sustain it."

"We talked about style in acting," Swire said. Gielgud said an actor has to have a style. He compared it to painters like Van Gogh and Monet. He said you could tell a Van Gogh painting from a Monet by the style.

"He asked us what we were doing in the way of theatre on campus," Santoro said. "We told him about Center Stage and "Druid Circle."

"We discussed the selectivity of art. He told us the artist will select his material so the audience will see only what he wants them to see."

"I found him wonderfully intelligent. He has a wonderfully intellectual approach to the theatre."

"I admire him tremendously," Miss Swing said. "He was so natural—not a bit high flown. He was interested in what we were doing."

Wilder said, "I think he is great as an actor, person and director. As an actor and director he's probably the greatest of our time. If anyone is going to be immortal in our time, he's going to be the one. The thing that impressed me the most about him is his love for the theatre and his enthusiasm for it."

3 Peas in a Pod

These three braved stormy State College weather to vie for prizes in CENTRE COUNTY FILM LAB'S big GIVEAWAY SALE. At latest report, each was holding his own... CRAZY prices to be offered on photo items thru SATURDAY... HURRY! HURRY!

The Centre County Film Lab 106 W. Beaver Ave. STATE COLLEGE, PA.

Syracuse Chapel Dean Will Speak

Dr. Charles C. Noble, dean of the Hendricks Memorial Chapel at Syracuse University, will be the guest speaker at the University Chapel service of worship at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

Dr. Noble will speak on "The Holy Sacrament of Life."

George E. Ceiga, University organist, will play as the prelude, "Ein Feste Burg Ist Unser Gott," by Pachelbel; as the offertory, "Erhalt Uns, Herr, Bei Deinem Wort," by Walther; and as the postlude, "Ein Feste Burg Ist Unser Gott," by J. S. Bach.

The University Chapel Choir, under the direction of Willa Taylor, will sing "O Lord of Hosts, All Heaven Possessing," by J. S. Bach as the choral introit, and "Te Deum," by Gustav Holst, as the anthem.

Dr. Noble is an ordained minister of the Methodist Church. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Williams College and his bachelor of divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary in New York City. He also holds honorary degrees from Springfield College and Williams College.

He has been with Syracuse University as the director and coordinator of religious affairs for the past 13 years.

Previous to joining the Syracuse staff he held pastorates in the Bronx, Brooklyn, Hartford, Conn., Glenn Falls, N.Y. and Syracuse, N.Y.

Street Appointed Finance Professor

Dr. Donald M. Street, for the past two years lecturer in banking at Columbia University, has been named visiting associate professor of finance for this semester.

A native of Chicago, Ill., Street is a graduate of Princeton University and holds a doctor of philosophy degree from Columbia. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Street has been associated with the Guaranty Trust Co of New York, and is a member of the American Historical Association, Economic History Association and the Marine Historical Association.

Former Gov. James A. Beaver served 41 years as a trustee of Penn State.

Miss Dilts Will Speak At Eisenhower Chapel

Miss Genevieve Dilts, associate director of the University Christian Association, will speak at the Protestant service of worship at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel.

Her topic will be "Choose This Day Whom You Will Serve." The Meditation Chapel Choir, under the direction of James Beach will provide music for the service.

Jo Hayes, Pennsylvania state senator, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Wesley Foundation of St Paul's Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Senator Hayes will meet with the group in a Fireside Forum on the subject of "Where Do You Stand—Senator?"

Dr. William G. Mather, professor of Sociology, will speak on "the Organization Student" at the Lutheran Student Association tomorrow night. The group will meet at 6:30 p.m. in the Lutheran Student Center.

The United Student Fellowship will meet at 5 p.m. tomorrow for a "Technicolor Supper," at the Faith United Church of Christ, 300 E. College Avenue. Following the dinner the fellowship will discuss the topic, "Superstitions and Hexes."

The Presbyterian University Fellowship will meet for a Fireside Discussion at 6:20 p.m. tomorrow at the Presbyterian Student Center. After discussion there will be group singing.

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation will conduct Sabbath morning services at 10 a.m. today at the Hillel Foundation, 224 Locust Lane.

The Hillel Grad and Couples Club will meet for a Halloween party at 8:30 tonight at the Foundation.

The Newman Club will hold a mass at 9 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium. Masses will also be held at 8, 9:30, and 11 tomorrow morning in Our Lady of Victory Church.

Father Ream's discussion group

The Day Junior Went Away... Or Why Mother joined the Mah-Jong Group

Who will ever forget that time? The whole town turned out... well, maybe not the whole town... to see little Bobby Collegebound off to the University. There he was in his hand-stained bucks... pleatless khakis... and his varsity sweater. (Badminton 1, 2, 3, 4.) Sonja... ah, Sonja, his homeroom sweetheart, sobbed quietly. Sonja had heard stories about the co-eds. She was worried.

As the Toonerville local pulled in, another small cry was heard. It was Bobby's mother. Who will look after him? Who will warm his milk and care for his shirts? Then came the unforgettable reply. Bobby, head high, shoulders back, answered... "I will! I will wash my shirts." Ah, smart boy. He'll make the grade. Gone was the callow adolescence... for Bobby Collegebound had bought Van Heusen "Vantage" Shirts with his allowance. No longer need he be tied to Mother's apron.

His all cotton Van Heusen "Vantage" Shirts need not be ironed. Bobby Collegebound could wash his Van Heusen "Vantage" Shirts himself... and in a matter of hours they would be ready to wear. Day after day... far from home... Bobby would sparkle at college in his Van Heusen "Vantage" all cotton, wash and wear, no-iron shirts.

"Now," Sonja cried hysterically... "I've lost him forever. With all that free time in those handsome shirts, he'll be the target of every girl on campus. If only I had passed bookkeeping I could have gone, too."

As the train pulled away, Bobby's mother faced east and said... "Thank you, Van Heusen "Vantage," for being like a mother to my son!"

In white, choice of collar styles, $4.00 at better stores everywhere. Or write to: Phillips-Van Heusen Corporation, 417 Fifth Avenue, New York 16, N.Y.

Two History Professors Have Articles Printed

Two articles written by members of the history department will appear in the October issue of "Pennsylvania History."

The articles are "The Era of Good Feeling in Pennsylvania," by Dr. Philip S. Klein, professor of history and "The Lancaster: An Early Steam Plow," by Dr. Clark C. Spense, assistant professor of history.

Aero Club Meets Monday

The University Park Aero Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 10 Sparks.

Sold exclusively in State College at:

114 E. College Ave. Hur's Mens Shop