

Penalties Hurt Lion Offensive

Kasperian Sparks Touchdown Drive

But back to the penalties. Seven infractions were called against the Lions—five of which were for "illegal procedure" and one each for "illegal shift" and clipping. And "ironically" all of the infractions seemed to come at critical situations or on plays that the Lions had accumulated large gains in yardage.

One of the most demoralizing penalties came late in the fourth period on the completion of a 39-yard aerial from Al Jacks to Don Jonas Jonas made an almost incredible catch of the pass, grabbing the ball a moment before hitting the ground, back-first.

But where the Lions seemed vulnerable to the penalties, the Orange were immune. They weren't charged with a single

Chuck Zimmerman and the running of Tom Stephens, before the Lions scored. And it was the "old man" Kasperian who accounted for the tally. Kasperian, who has been hampered this season with a multitude of injuries, looked like his old self as he personally led a 34-yard Penn State drive. The 28-year-old halfback gained 18 of the final 20 yards, slashing over from six yards out for the TD. A pass from Lucas to Bozick for the PAT failed.

Syracuse's first score climaxed a 79-yard drive which was highlighted by perfect passes by Zimmerman—one for 35 yards and the other for 29. Zimmerman sneaked over from the 1 for the TD but a run by Stephens failed to bring the conversion.

The Orange's other score came in the third quarter on a 42 yard march. A Zimmerman to Stephens aerial from the 13-yard line brought the TD and the same two hooked up on a screen pass for the extra points.

Engle praised Lucas, Kasperian, Paolone, Maury Schleicher, Chuck Ruslavage and Stynchula for their work in the game. "Lucas and Kasperian looked real fine," the Lion mentor said, "and Paolone did a great job except for his fumble. But of course, that can happen to anybody."

"Schleicher is getting better every week and Stynchula and Ruslavage played their normal game."

infraction until a 15-yard personal foul call was made against Al Benecick with one minute left in the game.

"Maybe we deserved the penalties we got," backfield coach Joe Paterno said after the game, "although I don't think we did. But you can't tell me that a team like Syracuse didn't deserve any penalties until the end of the game. And why they didn't call that out-of-bounds block on (Dave) Kasperian, I'll never know."

Paterno was referring to the vicious out-of-bounds block which hurled Kasperian into the rolled-up tarpaulin some five yards from the sideline marker. The block didn't escape the eyes of the 27,000 partisan fans who witnessed the rain-soaked game—but "somehow" the officials missed it.

Lacrosse Club to Meet

The Penn State Lacrosse Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Phi Kappa Sigma.

Engle Calls VanLengen 'Outstanding'

The outbursts began to die away in the Penn State locker room Saturday afternoon when the reporter asked Rip Engle the innocent question, "Who were the outstanding players in the game today, Rip?"

In a reversal of mood, Engle quietly began thumbing through his football program. He stopped on one of the pages and answered the question: "No 16. He played an outstanding part in the win—Bob VanLengen."

The puzzled reporter asked "What did he do?"

Engle quietly replied, "He was the referee. In fact, he was the worst referee I've seen in my 29 years of coaching." Referee Robert W. VanLengen is a graduate of the Syracuse Law School and a practicing attorney in Syracuse.

VanLengen called "illegal procedure" and "illegal shift" against the Lions six times during the game.

According to Coach Joe Paterno the same referee could see nothing wrong with Syracuse's defense yelling out signals that interfered with the Lion's offensive signals. (The preceding week, Syracuse had been penalized for this particular infraction which Referee VanLengen could not see.")

The rule that covers the de-

Films of the Syracuse game will be shown at 7:30 p.m. tonight in 119 Osmond According to head manager Ed Hintz, "They clearly show officiating 'errors'."

bate states: "No player of the team on defense shall use words or signals which obviously disconcert opponents when they are preparing to put the ball into play." End of argument.

Orange coach Ben Schwartzwalder finally got his win on Beaver Field—and he made the most of it. After the game, he stood along the sideline until Engle had walked over to him to extend the customary congratulations. Then he quickly turned his back and bounced off the field.

His only comment was: "We shouldn't have had that roughing penalty (Syracuse's only penalty of the game with a minute to play). That was stupid."

John Bozick, who dropped a second quarter TD pass, explains: "I thought they had Richie (Lucas) down when I saw the ball coming. I was all by myself, but didn't think I was in the end zone. So I took a couple of steps backward, which was bad. My hands were slippery and I dropped it."

JACK WIMMER SAYS:

If you get your car in early for winterizing, we can check hoses, thermometers, heater, etc., at NO EXTRA COST.

This will prevent expensive loss of antifreeze during the winter.
