Goes 32 Yards on 1st Play

Norman's Pass Interception Sparks Phi Epsilon Pi's Win

By DAVE HLADICK
Phi Epsilon Pi, Men-O-War, Hamilton Warriors, Sabre Jets and Nittany 23 scored shutouts as play resumed on the IM grid-iron after a two day lapse.

In other fraternity action Kappa Delta Rho squeaked by a well-balanced Omega Psi Phi squad 2-1, and Alpha Chi Sigma downed Theta Kappa Phi in first downs 3-2.

The Sabre Jets sparked the independent play with a 13-0 trouncing of Pop's Panthers. Elsewhere it was Nittany 23 whipping the Birddogs 7-0, and Hamilton Warriors defeating the Hamilton A's, 10-0.

Thompson III edged the Knights 4-2, while Phi Epsilon Pi rolled over Phi Sigma Kappa 7-0. Men-O-War needed only 6 points to shut out Dorm 43, and the Cool Ghouls were awarded a forfeit over the Bikes.

Neil Norman, Phi Epsilon Pi's left end, intercepted a pass on the first play of the game and ran 32 yards for the only touchdown. Jim Eichberg converted the point after. Eichberg played a superb defensive game, intercepting several passes, which thwarted Phi Sigma Kappa's drives.

John Sholtis was especially outstanding for the losers, knocking down four long aerials on his own goal line.

The passing combination of Dan Fipperini to Drew Williamson clicked twice for the Sabre Jets. Both passes were less than five yards and Fipperini added the only extra point.

Pete Gueney, Men-O-War's quarterback, intercepted a pass on the Dorm 43 seven yard line and ran it over for the game's only score. Gueney was notably outstanding throughout the contest with his short passes and fine defensive work at the safety position.

Dixie Kovacs caught a 15-yard pass from Al Casseri with 30 seconds remaining in the game to give Alpha Chi Sigma its deciding first down.

Nittany 23's Bill Jenkins intercepted a Birddog pass on the 20-yard line, and two plays later Mike Raiser collaborated with Mike Barone for a 18 yard touchdown aerial. Raiser added the conversion to culminate the only scoring of the game.

Chuck Schneider sparked the Hamilton Warriors' only touchdown drive, scampering the final ten yards for the score. Larry Clausen added the extra point to give his team a 7-0 halftime lead. Clausen later kicked a 15-yard field goal for the Warrior's final tally. Bill Shoop stifled the Hamilton A's offensive, intercepting two passes deep in his own territory.

AP Sees Syracuse Upsetting Panthers

By WILL GRIMSLEY, Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1958 college football season is a wild gal—flighty, fickle and drunk on upsets. Now that she's tasted the heady wine of surprise, what reason is there to believe she'll change?

We took some fliers last week Pitt, South Carolina, Rice but not enough for 33-17 and .660

More upsets forthcoming: Syracuse 21, Pitt 14; Pittsburgh, after its titanic tie with Army, suffers a letdown, also looks to Notre Dame.

Navy 19, Notre Dame 15: Joe Triacchini back in top throwing form; Irish still reeling from two defeats.

Northwestern 13, Ohio State 7: Those irrepressible sophomores continue to surprise.

Stanford 14, Southern California 13: The Indians' excellent material just begins to jell.

Louisiana State 27, Mississippi 14: Billy Cannon tries to prove the Tigers really are No. 1.

Texas 14, Southern Methodist 12: Teams don't bounce back from bad lickings, except in the Southwest Conference.

Iowa 20, Michigan 7: The Hawkeyes end the long jinx of never having won at Michigan; Wolverines shaken by campus gambling probe.

Colorado 15, Oklahoma 13: The men from the mile-high climate have waited a long time for this one.

FRIDAY
Miami (Fla.) 14, Vanderbilt 7; Tulane 20, Texas Tech 7; New Mexico 7, Denver 0.

SATURDAY
EAST—Penn State 21, Furman 8; Cornell 24, Columbia 6; Penn 8; Cornell 24, Columbia 6; Penn 21, Harvard 19; Princeton 27, Brown 14; Dartmouth 14, Yale 7; Holy Cross 14, Dayton 8.

MIDWEST—Oklahoma State 14, Air Force 7; Kansas State 20, Kansas 18; Illinois 18, Purdue 15;

Michigan State 21, Wisconsin 14; Minnesota 13, Indiana 8.

SOUTHWEST—Texas A&M 15, Arkansas 0; Houston 12, Tulsa 7; Hardin-Simmons 13, Texas Western 14; Wyoming 14, Utah 6; Washington State 19, UCLA 14; Arizona 12, West Texas State 0; TCU 21, Baylor 8.

Engle Counts on Hoak, Kasperian to Fill LH Gap

Gilmore, a senior, had been making a sterling comeback this year following a disasterous junior season. He had led the Nittanies in average-per-gain rushing as a sophomore two years ago (6.0 yards per trip on 58 carries), and was expected to lead the Lion attack for the next two campaigns. But that cartilage injury kept him on the sidelines most of the 1957 season.

However, the former Reading High School standout seemed to have regained his old form this fall. He started out on Engle's alternate unit behind firebrand Dave Kasperian, but took over Kasperian's slot following the Army tilt and has been one of the main sparkplugs since.

Gilmore tops the Lions in both the net rushing and average yards-per-rush departments, gaining 288 yards in 52 trips for a 5.5 average. He also had scored two touchdowns.

Gilmore's best showing this season was against Marquette, when he ran rampant for 142 yards—almost four times as much yardage as the whole Marquette team gained that day. For his performance Gilmore was named The Daily Collegian's "Player of the Week."

Kasperian, who also has been hampered by injuries this year, will move into that first team left half slot, and sophomore Dick Hoak will climb to the alternate unit. Actually, Hoak could be classified as a "starter" since he had been used by Engle as a replacement for Gilmore on defense.

In addition, Engle has switched sophomore scatback Dick Pae from the right half to left half. Pae had been bouncing around between the third and fifth team right half position, but now takes over as third team left half.

Despite the loss of Gilmore, Engle's spirits did get a lift when he learned that fullback Pat Botula will be ready for Saturday's game with Furman. Botula, who was the Lions' top rusher in their first two games, (with 194 yards) has been absent since the second quarter of the Penn game, when he dislocated his left elbow. He dressed for last week's game with Syracuse but did not play.

"Botula had his first contact work Monday night and looked pretty good," Engle said. "I know his return will help us."

Lions Ranked Sixth in Lambert Vote

Penn State was ranked sixth in this week's balloting for the Lambert Trophy. Army managed to cling to the number one position despite its 14-14 tie with Pittsburgh. The Panthers were ranked second and Syracuse was in third place. Navy and Holy Cross were ahead of the Lions, in 4th and 5th place, respectively.

Talented Kicker--Mauthe

Pete Mauthe, Penn State's only player representative in the Football Hall of Fame, booted eight field goals in the 1912 season.

Klukosky's 230 Paces Bowling In Indie Leagues

Sparked by the scoring spree of Lou Klukosky, the All Stars swept to a 4-0 victory over the Spares in independent intramural bowling action.

Klukosky turned in the high individual score of the evening by posting a 230, while the All-Stars tallied the high-game total of 909 to lead independent leagues A and B.

Dick Austin, bowling for Lachache Club, and Bill Soltis of the 23 Club, tied for high individual series honors at 581.

Other contests in League "A" showed the Terrors downing the Poconos 3-1, the Harts defeating the McKee Aces 3-1, Glenn Road 4&1 battling to a 2-2 tie with the Watts Warriors, the Thompsons deadlocked with the Holy Rollers at 2-2, and the Zeros gunning down the Splinters 3-1.

Emery Experiences Worst Day Against Temple

Cal Emery, Penn State's ace pitcher, experienced the worst day of his two-year college baseball career in his 5-2 loss to Temple. The big southpaw, who lost only once in 11 starts two years ago and who began last year's campaign with seven straight wins, was nicked for eight hits, three of them triples, walked five, and served three wild pitches as he gave up four earned runs—more than he yielded in the 45 previous innings.
