

Booters Oppose Unbeaten Navy

By SANDY PADWE

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — "We're going to beat Navy tomorrow and we're going to win the rest of our games." This was acting Lion soccer Captain Herb Hertner lashing back at Penn State's soccer critics last night.

The fiery Nittany captain seemed to speak for the team as it prepared for the Navy game. The Lion soccermen have been under a heavy barrage of criticism lately for lack of hustle and have been accused of "quitting" because they lost the West Chester game three weeks ago.

Whether this is the case or not, the Lions are in a fighting mood. "We found ourselves," said the Lions' major offensive threat Bill Fiedler. "Before, we were just a bunch of individuals and we didn't play a team game. Now we are playing together and it's working wonders."

The big change in the Lion attitude, according to Coach Kenny Hosterman, was the appointment of Hertner as acting captain for the rest of the season.

The Lions were left without a captain when their All-American halfback Howie Maierhofer broke his ankle in early September. Fiedler said that without a director on the field the team seemed "lost."

Hosterman appointed Hertner captain because of his spirit and leadership. "Herby is a real hustler who never gives up. He's a real inspiration to the boys on the team," said Hosterman. "I made him captain hoping that his spirit would rub off on the other boys."

Thus far it seems to be working, according to Hosterman. In the last few practices, he said, the booters have been playing good sound soccer and the passing has improved 100% and so has the overall team play.

The addition of Harry Lambroussis to the Lion lineup has also helped. He adds more scoring punch to the forward wall as Exhibiting strong defensive play throughout the entire game, Pi Kappa Phi stopped Phi Kappa Tau 6-0. Bruce McKay scored the lone goal for Pi Kappa Phi on a ten yard aerial from Rich Sacane. The extra point attempt was blocked.

On a come from behind effort, Jordan Two downed Jordan One 3-1 in first downs to break a 6-6 scoring deadlock. Early in the first half Lucky Greenwald hurled a 50 yard shot into the arms of Jim Berry who raced for the TD, giving Jordan One an early advantage.

was proved at Maryland last week when he scored the lone Lion goal.

Navy will give the Nittanias a real chance to demonstrate how well the "new look" really works. The Midshipmen have always been one of the toughest teams on the Penn State schedule. Last year they played the Lions to 2-2 standstill.

The Middies lost a few key men through graduation, but nevertheless are strong as its 0-0 tie with Maryland proves. (The Lions lost to Maryland last week, 4-1).

Ties and bad luck plagued our fearless forecasters last week as they compiled the worst record of the season in their grid picks. Here are a few predictions that will definitely be true about this week's games:

- Duke will win over Ga. Tech—if it gets more points by the end of the game.
- Colorado and Oklahoma will each have 11 men on the field at the kickoff.
- Pitt will have 30 minutes of football left to play at the beginning of the second half. So will Syracuse.

(Continued from page six) the other half. Bob Hart will be at full and little Allen Brewster will quarterback the starting unit.

Bruce will get his first look at guard Lynn "Slugg" Drake against outside competition in this game. Drake, whose press clippings include All-State selections for two successive years, was on the injured list for the West Virginia win.

Two reserve halfbacks — Harry Finkleston who scored an 80-yard TD on an intercepted pass and speedster Tony "Mad Anthony" Wayne—are on the injured list and were the only members of the first two units who did not make the trip today.

Practice Session Today For Rugby Candidates

Colin Wgin will conduct a practice session for an intramural Rugby team this morning on Nittany Field near the Nittany area dormitories. Anyone interested in participating in the sport is requested to be at the practice.

A CAMPUS-TO-CAREER CASE HISTORY

"I have 43,000 reasons why I'm sold on my job"

Emil R. San Soucie got his A.B. degree from Harvard in 1954. He joined the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania in early 1955. Today, three short years later, he's in charge of 35 employees in a West Philadelphia business office serving 43,000 customers.

"It's an interesting job," says Emil. "I guess that's because people are interesting. Every day, I talk with customers — and no two are alike. They all have different problems and service needs. That makes every working day different and stimulating for me."

"There's also a great sales opportunity. Homes and businesses need the convenience and efficiency that up-to-date telephone facilities offer. It's a strong story, and we tell it often and enthusiastically.

"Outside the office, I'm active in local civic affairs. And I'm always a bit awed — and pleased — by the respect people show for the telephone company and for a young fellow in my position."

"I don't know where a man like me with management ambitions has a better opportunity."

Many young men are finding interesting and rewarding careers in the Bell Telephone Companies. There are opportunities for you, too. Talk with the Bell interviewer when he comes to your campus. Read the Bell Telephone booklet on file in your Placement Office.

Emil San Soucie sits in on a telephone sales contact by one of his Service Representatives to help her improve her sales technique.

Emil stimulates team competition in his office to increase interest in sales. Here he discusses quotas with his unit supervisors.
