

THE WALLS CAME TUMBLING DOWN in Pollock Circle as bulldozers began making way this week for the new men's and women's residence halls to be built in the area.

Works of Realists Displayed in HUB

The art works of three young realists, all residents of Pennsylvania, are now on display in the Hetzel Union gallery.

The show, which will run until Dec. 13, is composed of paintings by Jesephine Paul of Johnstown, Barclay Rubicam of West Chester and Victor Stephen, assistant in publication art in the College of Agriculture.

Miss Paul studied under Hobson Pittman here at the University for 13 summers. She was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a bachelor of arts degree in art. She also has studied at Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Her paintings have been exhibited in the National Academy of Design, New York; the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia; the Virginia Biennial, Richmond; the Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C.; "Art USA: '58" in Madison Square Garden, and in other galleries throughout the nation. She is exhibiting oils in the HUB display.

Rubicam's work has been shown in many major art shows, including the Wilmington Society of Fine Arts; the Butler Museum, Youngstown, Ohio; the Toledo Museum; the Philadelphia Fine Arts Alliance Town Hall; the New York Metropolitan Museum; and the Hagley Museum, Wilmington, Del.

He is represented in the Permanent Collection of the Pennsylvania Academy and in a number of schools, public buildings and private collections. His paintings in this exhibit are oils, pastels and oils on gesso (a fine plaster of paris powder).

Stephen, in addition to his work with the College of Agriculture, is now a graduate student in art at the University. He graduated from Pratt Institute of Fine Arts and the Rhode Island School of Design. He also holds a bachelor of arts degree in applied arts from the University.

He has had one-man shows at Cornell University and at San Jose, Costa Rica. In addition he has exhibited at the Rochester Memorial Art Gallery, the Syracuse Museum of Fine Arts, the Munson Proctor Williams Institute and the Newport Art Association.

Before coming to the University in 1955, he was publications production manager at Cornell for seven years. While there he was given a one-year leave of absence to serve as visual aids consultant for the Point Four Program in Latin America. His contributions to this exhibit are all oil paintings.

Simmons Hall was named for Dr. Lucretia V. T. Simmons who served 36 years on the University faculty before retiring in 1939.

Phone Damage Draws Warning From Perkins

Associate Dean of Men Harold W. Perkins yesterday threatened serious punishment for students tampering with telephone equipment in residence halls.

Perkins said that "a number of incidents" have arisen causing the Bell Telephone Company to consider prosecution.

A student was placed on disciplinary probation this semester for tampering with a telephone in the West Halls area.

In a letter to Wilbur F. Diehl, manager of telephones, Bell officials said that in view of past incidents, students could be charged with either larceny of electric equipment or malicious injury to property.

Larceny of electric equipment is a felony punishable by a fine not exceeding $2000 or imprisonment not exceeding five years or both.

Malicious injury to property is a misdemeanor and carries a penalty of a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment not exceeding 12 months or both.

Harvard Prof to Speak To Chemical Society

Dr. Peter Yates, assistant professor of chemistry at Harvard University, will speak to the Central Pennsylvania section of the American Chemical Society on "Recent Work in the Field of Heterocyclic Chemistry," at 8 tonight in 119 Osmond.

Leadership Class Tonight

Dr. Harold J. O'Brien, associate professor of speech, will address the leadership training class at 6 tonight in 119 Osmond.

He will discuss "Parliamentary Law."

1957 Encampment: The Results

AM in Trustee Hands

By DENNY MALICK
Fourteenth of a Series
AM facilities for WDFM
—to be or not to be.

The entire question now rests in the hands of a Board of Trustees committee headed by Philadelphia Mayor Richardson Dilworth.

The AM issue has been studied, discussed and re-studied by student government and All-University Cabinet adopted a recommendation in May to give the facilities to WDFM.

In order to bring about definite action, the 1957 Student Encampment recommended that a detailed investigation be made. Richard Schilpp, then WDFM station manager, headed the study committee which reported in May.

Adding support to the AM drive, the 1958 graduating class voted its $10,000 gift for the facilities.

However, the senior gift hit a snag when President Eric A. Walker announced the gift actually had been nonexistent since 1948 due to a revision of fees.

The class gifts had previously come from a breakage deposit paid as part of the semester fees. But in 1948, the fees were revised and the breakage deposit eliminated, Walker said. Since then the trustees have been approving the senior gifts and providing money for them out of trustee funds.

Cabinet now is endeavoring to find some way to continue the senior gifts, but the AM station is completely in the hands of the trustees.

President Eric A. Walker, in a conference with All-University President Jay Feldstein and Senior Class President Charles Welsh, said the class gifts could continue, but it is up to the students.

Feldstein and Welsh have asked for suggestions from students on how to raise money for the gifts.

Three major suggestions being considered are additional fees, a fund-raising campaign, a pledge system whereby seniors pledge a certain amount before graduating and then pay off the pledge over a set number of years.

Faculty's Comeback Wins Biz Bowl, 8-7

By JOHN BLACK

In a spectacle second only to the Rose Bowl game, the BusAd faculty scored a thrilling 8-7 victory over the BusAd student council yesterday with a 50-yard touchdown pass on the last play of the game, in the 101st annual renewal of the "Biz Bowl."

The thousands who jammed the spacious IM stadium to witness the traditional battle were brought to their feet when Professor Anthony "Otto" Mastre, quarterback and captain of the victorious faculty nine calmly faded back and tossed a 50-yard strike to Lenny Scheck, a student, who, leery of his own team's chances, defected to the heavily favored professors' squad.

Thus the faculty roared back from the brink of a 7-2 defeat to register the one-point triumph just as the clock ticked off the final second.

The BusAd Student Council drew first blood when they scored on a punt return as Jerry Carlson passed to Jim Meister for the TD. "It's these new rules—passing on a kick return," said Reed "Bulldog" Phalan, stalwart faculty lineman, consoling his cohorts. But the professors showed their comeback spirit a few minutes later when their hard charging line, led by Robert "Just call me Rosy" Kopko, dumped Mickey Perlmutter in his own end zone for a 2-point safety.

After that it settled down to a nip and tuck battle with Lawrence "Dixie" Fouraker, John "Hopalong" Wellingham, Larry "Crazylegs" Strickland, Joseph "Jet" Abele and Marvin "Glue-fingers" Rozen playing a fine defensive game stalling every offensive threat by the students.

It has been rumored that Jerry Goldberg, LaVerne Myers and Vince Marino, from the losing student squad, are going to petition the college administration to initiate a new course next year—BusAd 599, "Football Management and Gridiron Law."

January Grads in Eng To Take Training Exam

An engineer-in-training examination for seniors graduating in January will be held in the Extension Conference Center from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Dec. 6.

Applications can be secured in 103 Mechanical Engineering. They must be filed by Nov. 24 with the state registration board for professional engineers in Harrisburg.

5 Advanced Air Cadets Cited as 'Distinguished'

Five Advanced Air Force ROTC cadets have been designated distinguished cadets, based on their records of scholarship and leadership.

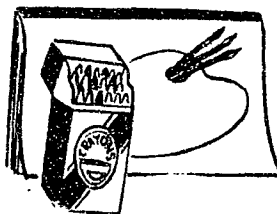

They are Cadet Col. Robert McNeil and Cadet Majors Jack Javens, Robert Lorenzetti, Terrence O'Rourke and Marlyn Rabenold.

The Campus Police Didn't Mind, Either

There once were two co-eds in Atherton
Who shot from the dorm on the run
But the hostess didn't worry
She knew why the big hurry
They were late for Green's lecture No. 1.

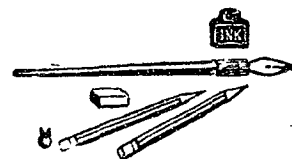

CHRISTMAS CARD PROBLEM!

Why not design and make your own cards?

also—exquisite papers and envelopes by Strathmore

Let us supply—
art papers
coloring media
envelopes

KEELER'S
The University Bookstore

BEAT THE CROWD! SHOP NOW for your

CHRISTMAS CARDS

We have a complete collection of the newest Hallmark Christmas Cards and Gift Wraps. Come in today and select yours.

McLanahan

134 S. Allen St.
State College