

Today's Forecast:
Sunny,
Cool

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

Political Party
Platforms
See Page 6

VOL. 59, No. 44

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 11, 1958

FIVE CENTS

—Collegian Photo by Bob Thompson

ONE OF THE CROWD . . . President Eric A. Walker, center, holds his breath during a Penn State fumble Saturday in Morgantown.

Fumbles Hold Gridders to Tie

By LOU PRATO
Sports Editor

If one comment could explain Penn State's 14-14 tie with rival West Virginia Saturday afternoon in Morgantown, it would probably be the one made by Lion guard Chuck Rulavage in the locker room following the game.

"Our coaches always emphasize that fumbles and penalties will hurt us," the towering defensive stalwart said, "and they sure did today!"

That they did—especially the fumbles.

In fact, the Lions handled the pigskin like a hot potato, fumbling seven times and recovering only one. Five of the bobbles occurred in West Virginia territory including two inside the Mountaineer's five yard line.

The fumbling was contagious, too, for none of the starting backs could escape the misery. Halfbacks Dave Kasperian and Fran Paolone fumbled twice apiece and quarterback Rich Lucas and Pat Botula bobbled once each.

Only Botula's fumble was recovered by the Lions and that was by Botula himself. Alternate unit halfback Jim Kerr was the victim of the other fumble—one which ultimately led to the tying touchdown by the Mounties.

The two fumbles by Kasperian, one by Paolone and Lucas' lone bobble halted potential Lion scoring drives. Kasperian's first miscue on the Mountie one-yard line after a 13-yard run stopped a 38-yard drive the first time the Nittanians had the ball. His next muff came in the third quarter—

(Continued on page nine)

Sunny Weather Predicted by Lion

The weather today will continue sunny and cold with a predicted high of 51. The low tonight will be 37; the high tomorrow, 48.

Tonight and tomorrow will be cloudy and cool with occasional rain. Thursday the weather will clear and it will be colder with variable winds.

English Graduate Exams To Be Given Nov. 22

English graduate examinations for the doctor of philosophy candidacy will be given from 9 a.m. to noon Nov. 22 in 205 Sparks.

Anyone interested in taking the examination should register in 247 Sparks as soon as possible.

Candidates Begin Campaign For Frosh, Sophomore Offices

University party candidates yesterday campaigned in Atherton, Nittany and Irvin halls and visited four or five fraternities last night.

According to clique chairman Howard Byers, one party plank, rather than advocate student government reorganization, will support the Cabinet committee on reorganization.

Byers said he would like to see freshman and independents use present facilities, such as Waring Hall, for recreation.

Byers said the faculty and administration supports the plank on offering free legal advice to students. Advice may be given either by faculty members or State College lawyers, he said.

The growing student body will necessitate

(Continued on page seven)

Campus party candidates for sophomore class offices began campaigning yesterday by visiting three fraternities at noon and four at dinner. Freshman class candidates will campaign in both the men's and women's residence halls since they are not allowed in fraternities due to the deferred rushing rule.

James Elliott, clique chairman for Campus party, outlined his party's plans for carrying out its platforms in an interview last night.

Elliott said that as far as carrying out plans for a general seating arrangement in place of class sections in the enlarged football stadium is completed next year, "every student will have a good seat" and he would like to eliminate the

(Continued on page seven)

Reds Want to Shove West Out of Berlin

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev yesterday demanded an end to four-power occupation of Berlin.

He hinted the Soviet Union is ready to free itself of treaty obligations to the West on freedom of transport between isolated West Berlin and West Germany.

The Soviet leader told a Polish-Soviet friendship meeting at Lenin Stadium "the

Police Pool Efforts Against Crime Wave

Local, state and federal police are pooling their efforts to move in on an apparent crime wave in State College.

Nine completed and attempted burglaries in the borough since Thursday, including an attempt on the People's National Bank, have prompted the drive by State College police, Rockview State Police and A. F. Helleberg, local agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Helleberg was called into the investigation wave when it was discovered that the bank was robbed Friday night.

Victims of the burglaries were The Music Room, Metzgers, Hartman Electric, Bill McMullen's Floral Shop and Alvo Electronics. Also it is believed that burglaries were attempted at Bill's Barber Shop, Gus's Restaurant and Christy's Restaurant.

"No concrete clues" have been found, according to police. Investigation was continued yesterday by the three law enforcement agencies.

This week's robbery spree came two weeks after a series of burglaries at fraternity houses over the first big weekend of the fall semester. Items missing ranged from jewelry to coats and money. Total value of the items ranged from $24 to $350.

Loot in this series of robberies has been limited to mostly merchandise. Although no complete tabulation of the loot has been compiled, the police report that the list will be well up into hundreds of dollars.

The main means of entry was by breaking window glasses in doors, by taking the doors off the hinges or by breaking the bolts from them.

The investigative agencies listed a "definite possibility" of a connection between all of the recent burglaries.

Pittsburgh Grid Tickets Go on Sale Tomorrow

Tickets for the Pitt-Penn State football game will go on sale at 8 a.m. tomorrow at the ticket booth in front of Beaver Field.

Ticket sales will be limited to six a customer. All tickets are $4.

Many good seats are still available for the Holy Cross football game, according to Business Manager Edward Czekaj. Holy Cross tickets may be obtained at the ticket office in Recreation Hall.

Students, Profs Escape Injury In 5 Accidents

Four University students and two professors escaped injury in five different traffic accidents over the weekend.

A car driven by Robert Model, junior in business administration from Malvern, N.Y., was involved in a collision with a car driven by J. J. Eberhart of Bellefonte at 1:05 a.m. Saturday. The mishap occurred on Pollock road near Schwab Auditorium. Damage to both cars was estimated at under $100.

At 4:30 p.m. Saturday a car driven by Ben Lucow, instructor of English, was involved in a collision with a car operated by James Neidigh of State College. The accident happened at the intersection of South Burrows Street and Beaver Avenue. Damage to both cars was estimated at $70.

An estimated damage of $600 was done to a car operated by Richard Bierly, junior in aeronautical engineering from Bellefonte, when it was involved in a collision with a car driven by

(Continued on page twelve)

No Student Tickets Left For 'As You Like It'

No student tickets remain for the Canadian Players' performance of "As You Like It" by William Shakespeare, scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Friday in Schwab Auditorium.

Ticket distribution for Friday's performance began at 1 p.m. yesterday, and tickets were gone before the Heitzel Union ticket desk closed at 5 p.m.

Tickets still remain for the matinee performance scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

The distribution of student tickets for the group's performance of George B. Shaw's "The Devil's Disciple," scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Saturday, will begin at 9 a.m. Thursday and continue through Saturday or until all student tickets have been distributed.

The sale of tickets to non-students for Friday's show and Saturday's matinee will begin at 9 a.m. today and continue until Friday.

Non-student tickets for Saturday evening's performance will go on sale Thursday at 9 a.m. and continue through Saturday. Tickets are $1.25.

There will be a reception following Saturday's performance at Tau Kappa Epsilon frater-time has evidently come for the powers which signed the Potsdam agreement to give up the remnants of the occupation regime in Berlin."

The United States, Britain and West Germany all turned a cold shoulder on the idea.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States yesterday bluntly rejected Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's call for an end to four-power occupation of Berlin.

(See Story on Page Two)

Khrushchev declared the Western powers "long ago abolished that legal basis on which their stay in Berlin rested" and on which rights of communications between West Germany and West Berlin depend.

West Berlin is an occupied enclave 110 miles deep in Communist East Germany. The Soviet blockade of Berlin's transportation lifelines in 1948-49 was beaten by an Allied airlift.

Denouncing the Western powers, which he claimed had fostered militarism in West Germany, he declared: "And on top of everything they enjoy the right of unhampered communication between West Berlin and West Germany by air, rail, highways and the waterways of the German Democratic Republic (East Germany), which they do not even wish to recognize."

He said the Soviet Union had every reason "to free ourselves of those obsolete treaty obligations bound up with the Potsdam agreement to which the Western powers are clinging."

Let the three Western powers, he declared, "form their own relations with the German Democratic Republic and come to an agreement with it if they are interested in certain questions concerning Berlin."

He declared the Soviet Union will go to East Germany's aid if it is attacked by the Western powers.

nity. Students who wish to attend may sign up at the HUB desk.

The Canadian Players opened their present tour with an appearance in Orillia, Ont., on Oct. 20, and toured Southern Canada.

Dennis Carey, who has directed at the Old Vic and Stratford-on-Avon, will direct the company's productions. Earlier this year he produced "Merchant of Venice" in the French language for the National Theatre of Belgium just prior to the opening of the World's Fair.

The acting company is the most representatively Canadian yet sent on tour by the Canadian Players. There are actors in it from Vancouver, Regina, Winnipeg, Toronto, Timmins and Montreal.

Starring for the Canadian Players are Dawn Greenhalgh and Ted Follows. Both have been with the group for three years, and were recently married.