

No Tickets Remain For 'Devil's Disciple' To Hold Rushing Open Houses

No tickets remain for the Canadian Players' presentation of "The Devil's Disciple" scheduled for 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

Tickets for Saturday's show went even faster than those for tonight's show—distribution which began shortly before 9 a.m. yesterday ended at 9:30 a.m. when the last ticket was given out.

400-Pint Goal Missed by 41 In Blood Drive

The Red Cross Bloodmobile missed its 400-pint goal by 41 pints of blood.

Although 385 pints were donated, 26 were rejected because of medical reasons.

Seventy-nine of the 129 scheduled to give blood did so, and 106 "walk-ins" brought the second day total to 185.

A total of 200 pints was donated the first day.

Loren D. Tukey, coordinator of the drive, reported 104 first-time donors the first day and 100 the second.

The men's service fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega, and women's national service fraternity, Gamma Sigma Sigma, co-sponsored the drive.

Kenneth Houck, James A. Knipe and Kenneth Hall were chairmen of the drive.

Canteen service was provided by Kappa Delta and Delta Delta Delta sororities.

Botany Society Elects Livingston to VP Post

Dr. J. E. Livingston, head of the Department of Botany and Plant Pathology, has been elected vice president of the Northeastern Division of the American Phytopathological Society.

Livingston, Dr. Harry Fink and Dr. John Boyle of the department and Jerry Haas, graduate student, attended the society meetings last week.

Tickets are still available, however, for the matinee performance of "As You Like It" scheduled for 2:30 p.m. tomorrow. Non-student tickets cost $1.25 and student tickets may be obtained by presenting matriculation cards at the Hetzel Union desk.

Students may also sign up at the HUB desk for the reception to be held at Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity following tomorrow night's performance.

Tonight's performance of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" will begin at 8:30 p.m. in Schwab Auditorium.

The Canadian Players' presentation of Shaw's "Devil's Disciple" will be, as far as can be ascertained, the first time a professional company has toured North America with the play since 1901.

It is considered one of Shaw's best plays, and he himself was very fond of it. It is the story of the American Revolution, set in the New England states in 1777. A profligate son, Richard Dudgeon—who refers to himself as the devil's disciple—is mistaken for a clergyman, arrested by the British troops and sentenced to be hanged.

A major part of the story centers around the association between the real minister's wife, Judith, and the devil's disciple.

In the play Shaw uses all his satirical wit to tear apart the hypocrisy which existed in those days. He calls his play a melodrama but it has all the humor and satire which makes his works so popular. Around the principle figures he has placed a number of excellent characterizations which enable him to poke fun at all the things he found so amusing in life.

The second in a series of four fraternity open houses will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at 17 fraternities off campus.

The first open houses were held Nov. 2 at the six fraternities on campus and were attended by 500 to 600 freshmen. Two of the fraternities reported that more than 200 freshmen visited their houses.

Because of the large number of freshmen interested in rushing, the Interfraternity Council rushing committee redivided the 48 remaining fraternities into three groups rather than the two planned originally.

Ronald Resh, rushing committee chairman, said the fraternities were divided into three groups according to their location in the fraternity sectors of the borough.

The first of the open houses for the off-campus houses will be held Sunday, the second group will hold their open houses Nov. 23 and the third group will hold theirs Dec. 14.

The rushing committee has also planned a general open house mixer for all fraternities to be held Dec. 17. A second general open house is planned for sometime after the Christmas vacation, Resh said.

Fraternities participating in the open house program this Sunday are Alpha Epsilon Pi, Kappa Delta Rho, Delta Tau Delta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Delta Chi, Phi Kappa Tau, Chi Phi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Phi Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha, Theta Kappa Phi, Sigma Pi, Phi Epsilon Pi, Alpha Gamma Rho, Alpha Tau Omega and Pi Kappa Phi.

Fraternities scheduled to hold open houses Nov. 23 are Theta Delta Chi, Theta Xi, Alpha Chi Rho, Pi Kappa Psi, Beta Sigma Rho, Phi Sigma Delta, Tau Phi Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi, Theta Chi, Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Mu Delta, Sigma Tau Gamma and Alpha Chi Sigma.

Another group of 17 fraternities will hold open houses Dec. 14. They are Sigma Alpha Mu, Zeta Beta Tau, Omega Phi Psi, Alpha Rho Chi, Acacia, Delta Upsilon, Beaver House, Pi Sigma Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, Phi Kappa Sigma, Triangle, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Pi Lambda Phi, Alpha Phi Delta, Kappa Alpha Psi, Delta Theta Sigma and Alpha Kappa Lambda.

Sororities Aid Local Hospital

A Sunday afternoon volunteer program at the Centre County Hospital is being carried on by the coeds of Alpha Phi and Zeta Tau Alpha sororities.

For the past two weeks two coeds at a time from Alpha Phi have worked at the hospital; one as a receptionist and the other in charge of the gift shop. Alpha Phi plans to continue this work all year.

Zeta Tau Alpha will also supply two women each Sunday to take charge of the hostess cart which is taken to each patient's room. The cart contains soft drinks, magazines, cosmetics and gift shop items.

This volunteer program makes it possible for the State College and Bellefonte women who usually work at the hospital on Sunday afternoons to spend the time with their families.

For some time Delta Delta Delta sorority has been making stuffed animals for the hospital's nursery.

Engagements

Hammel-Huth

Dr. and Mrs. Otto Hammel of Glenshaw have announced the engagement of their daughter, Maria Elizabeth, to Mr. Hans J. Huth, son of Rev. and Mrs. Reinhard Huth of Frankfurt-Main, Germany.

Miss Hammel, a 1958 graduate of the University, majored in home economics and is now home service representative for the West Penn Power Co. in Greensburg.

Mr. Huth, senior in mechanical engineering from Johnstown, will be graduated from the University in January.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Around 1890 there were four cannons on campus, two steel used for artillery drill and two brass which were relics of the Mexican War.

IFC Appoints Julius Greek Week Chairman

Leonard Julius, junior in advertising from West Palm Beach, Fla., has been appointed 1959 Greek Week chairman by Interfraternity Council President Edward Hintz.

Greek Week will be held April 5 to 11. The appointment was made with the approval of the IFC executive committee. Julius served as IFC Workshops chairman.

The value of the Pennsylvania State University's physical plant and equipment is $59,000,000.

Green Asks—Will You Accept Christ

"Will you open the door to Christ when He knocks?" asked the Rev. Canon Bryan Green last night in his fourth lecture on "Basic Christianity."

When he knocks we are sometimes afraid to answer, Green said, because we feel that He is someone who will "depreciate the joy of living."

The opposite is true, he said, for Christ, as God, is a saviour, master and friend to help us meet the pains of life. He increases our joy of life because he understands our loneliness, Green said. He wants to save us from moral despair, Green said.

The door on which Christ knocks, Green said, is often that part of your personality from which you exclude Him. You have never had a real Christian experience until Christ has "come over the threshold into your personality," Green said.

"When does Christ knock?" Green asked. Many people think that He offers Himself only when there is misery or unhappiness. This, Green said, is "far from the truth."

When real love and a complete sense of belonging is present, it "lifts you to want Christ," he said, and wanting Him, He will come to you.

One reason why we do not open the door to Christ when he knocks, Canon Green said, is that we are too busy or too frightened to listen to His knock. We pretend that He is already present in our lives and, therefore, that we do not need to listen.

Another reason, Green said, is that the "door is bolted on the inside." We refuse to do the things that Christ would want us to do, Green said, and have locked the door to Him.

When you accept Christ and let him become the "senior partner" in your life, Canon Green said, it "marks the beginning of a true Christian experience."
