

Jacks, Hoak, Kerr, Pae Star in 32-0 Victory

(Continued from page one)

must be to Greene's credit that most of his aeriels hit the bulls-eye only to be dropped by the intended receivers.

Just to show how impeccable the Lion defense was, Holy Cross managed to reach Penn State territory only once during the game. That was in the third period, following the Lion's third score. The Crusaders drove from their own 30-yard line to the Lion 35 before the march bogged down.

Meanwhile, the kill-crazed Lions ran all over the Crusader defense. The ground-gaining forces, which had ranked fourth in the nation before the game, rushed for 274 yars and the Richie Lucas-Al Jacks air arms hit on eight of 14 aeriels for 112 yards.

Sophomore Dick Hoak, who seems to be getting better each game, was the leading ground gainer with 54 yards on eight carries.

But it was the performance of Jacks which really gratified the 18,000 partisan fans who sat in on the affair. Not that Jacks' demonstration was that outstanding. But the fact is, he began to resemble the Al Jacks of last year—the one who was picked by the Los Angeles Rams in the pro grid lottery last winter.

In eight previous games this year, Jacks had completed only 29 per cent of his 46 pass attempts—far below the 51 per cent completion average that rated him among the best in the nation last fall.

But against Holy Cross, Jacks completed four of six aeriels for 57 yards, including a 2-yard pitch to sophomore Don Jonas for the Lions' only conversion of the af-

—Collegian photo by George French

WALKIN THE CHALK—Sophomore back Don Jonas (17) fails to stay inside the chalk line after taking a pass from Lion quarterback Al Jacks in the second quarter. Crusader John Allen (16) just got a hand on Jonas to push him out of bounds.

the game—when asked to single out the Penn state stars: "If I did that, I'd have to name the whole team."

There was the running of Andy Moconyi, Pat Botula, Dave Kasperian, Don Jonas and Dick Pae; the line play of Chuck Ruslavage, Bill Popp, Steve Garban, Maury Schleicher, Andy Stynchula, Bill Wehmer and a couple of sophomore ends—Henry Opperman and Dave Alexander; and the footwork of Pae on punts and Opperman on kickoffs.

As for the scoring, Kerr tallied the first six points on a 1-yard dive in the initial period after a 37-yard march. Jonas' PAT was wide to the left. Moconyi's plunge in the second quarter gave the Lions a 12-0 lead, but Hoak's pass to Schleicher for the extra points was out of the end zone.

The Lucas-to-Kerr 38-yard aerial brought the Nittanies their third score. But again the try for the extra points failed—this time on a run by Kerr. Jacks' TD and his pass to Jonas raised the score to 26-0 one play before the end of the third period.

The last Lion touchdown was the most spectacular—a 58-yard punt return by Jonas. A clipping penalty was called on the Lions at the 7, but the officials ruled that it occurred after Jonas' TD. A pass from Bob Scrabis to Jonas failed for the PAT.

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS Penn State Rushing

Player	Times Carried	Net Yds.
Hoak	8	54
Moconyi	13	50
Kerr	5	33
Botula	7	30
Kasperian	9	26
Jonas	4	16
Jacks	2	5
Paolone	3	19
Lucas	3	12
Pae	3	11
Sabczak	5	11
Funair	3	21

Army Beats Booters In Last Minutes, 3-2

By SANDY PADWE

Army's Johnny Forrester scored a goal with three minutes remaining in the last quarter to give Army a hard-earned victory over the Penn State soccer team Saturday morning at Beaver Field, 3-2.

The game was played in a steady rain which made the field muddy and slippery, but the bad weather didn't dampen the spirits of either squad as they gave some 200 loyal fans a game they will long remember.

The game was a thriller from start to finish with Army playing its usual "do-or-die" game and Penn State countering with its smooth-working type game.

Army drew first blood on a "die" play when Lee Farmelo scored at 10:15 of the first period. Farmelo took a long pass which got past Lion fullback Julius Besoushko and beat the onrushing Larry Fegley who was guarding the Lion cage. Just as Farmelo kicked the ball he and Fegley collided and Farmelo hit the ground hard and broke his collarbone.

Fiedler

Army continued to put pressure on the Lion defense for the rest of the quarter but couldn't manage a score.

In the third period the Nittanies came to life as they bombarded the Army goal with shots. At 9:30, Billy Fiedler scored his first goal of the afternoon to tie the score.

Not to be outdone the Cadets came right back on a goal by Bev Powell at 13:20 to go ahead, 2-1. It was all Penn State the rest of the quarter but the Army defense proved it was as strong as reported by stopping the Lion offensive.

In the fourth quarter Fiedler tied the game again at the 8-minute mark. The goal was Fiedler's 12th of the season. Both teams battled for the lead until 16 minutes were gone when Penn State had a chance to break the deadlock with a penalty kick. However, Fiedler missed the penalty kick and the Lion hopes of winning were washed away. Just three minutes later Forrester scored his tie-breaking goal and the Cadets went on to win.

As was expected Army played a rough game. When asked about the rough brand of ball that the Cadets play, Army Coach Joe Palone said: "We play a rough aggressive game at the Point because I feel that my boys are going to be officers in the U.S. Army someday and they have to learn to be tough."

Army now has a 3-1-4 record while the Nittanies have a 4-4 record. The Lions close out their season this Saturday when they play Pitt.

IM Boxing Deadline

Intramural boxing entries must be submitted by 4:30 p.m. today at the IM office in Recreation Hall.

Five more entries are needed in each weight class of the independent division to make the tournament feasible, according to Director Dutch Sykes.

ONLY 9 DAYS UNTIL PITT

ternoon He also rushed for 15 yards and recorded his first touchdown of the season with a 1-yard sneak in the third period. Jacks quarterbacked the team on two touchdown drives—one for 59 yards in the second quarter and the other for 68 yards in the third.

Jacks, however, did not overshadow regular quarterback Richie Lucas—he only equalled him. Lucas was in on two other Nittany scores, passed for 54 yards on three completions in five attempts and ran thrice for 15 yards.

One of his passes was a 38-yard fling to halfback Jim Kerr in the early moments of the second half. Kerr completely fooled two Crusader defenders on the play, snagging the pass at least five yards behind the Holy Cross pair.

But it was Lucas' dazzling faking which really stood out. He had the Holy Cross defense so baffled that, time and time again, they tackled the faker as the real Lion ball carrier ripped through for sizable gains.

However, Jacks, Hoak, Lucas and Kerr weren't the only Penn State stars. As Holy Cross Coach Dr. Eddie Anderson quipped after

The Candy Cane

"Between the Movies"

Complete your Thanksgiving dinner with an assortment of hand-made candy and mints.

Try ivory chocolate. It's extra good!

Canon BRYAN GREEN

Being and Believing

You have heard Canon Green speak on Christianity for the past week. Now read his fundamentals of the Christian faith in his second book, Being and Believing, $2.50.

These pages set out quite simply and definitely facts which Christians ought to believe. He takes four topics: The Apostles' Creed, The Lord's Prayer, The Sermon on the Mount, and The Ten Commandments. Phrase by phrase they are analyzed and constructive insights are given.

His first book, The Practice of Evangelism, $3.75, deals with conversion and how it happens, mass meetings, and answers questions like, "Do conversations last?"

The Pennsylvania Book Shop

129 West Beaver Avenue, State College

Daily 9 to 9

Sat. 9 to 5:30 p.m.

Collegian Credit Staff Meeting

TONIGHT 7 p.m.

208 Willard

THE MCCOY CORNER:

WIN $10 Gift Certificate!

All you have to do is correctly guess the score of the Thanksgiving Pitt-Penn State contest. Also include the total passing yardage for both teams.

The person who guesses the score and comes the closest to the correct yardage will get a $10 gift certificate, good for any merchandise in the store. Just stop in and fill out a GRID card and drop it in the box at no obligation. Don't pass up this great opportunity, whether you're a grid expert or not you have a chance to pick up some fine merchandise.

Guess Lion-Panther Score

Danks & Co.
MEN'S SHOP

Two Entrances on West Beaver Avenue

They Always Have Nice Things at Danks