

Journ Students Organize; Elect Smith First President

William Smith, junior in journalism from Clarks Summit, was elected president of a newly-formed association of journalism students at an organizational meeting Sunday in the Hetzel Union lounge.

Other officers are: vice president, Roberta Levine, junior in journalism from Connellsville; secretary, Sherry Kennel, junior in journalism from Lancaster; and treasurer, Dexter Hutchins, freshman in journalism from Pittsburgh.

The idea for such a group, which will strive to integrate and co-ordinate activities of journalism students during the four years of college, was conceived at the beginning of this semester by members of the three professional fraternities in the school of journalism and by members of the staff.

Patricia O'Neil and Bryna Nelson of Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism fraternity; Lou Prato, Dennis Malick and Robert Franklin of Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalism fraternity; and Dawson Ryder and Joseph Cheddar of Alpha Delta Sigma, men's professional advertising fraternity, took part in the preliminary planning. They were advised by John D. Vairo, instructor in journalism.

About 65 to 70 students and faculty members attended the meeting Sunday. Membership in the group will be automatic for all journalism students.

The Sportseer—

Who's the best QB in the pros today?

"That's hard to answer," Sherman, the Giant missionary, said. "I think they're all good or they wouldn't be in the league."

But Sherman's counterpart did have an answer.

"I'd have to say Norm Van Brocklin," Morton said. "He's the most dangerous. His team may be 14 to 20 points behind and yet he'll come back and kill you with his pin-point passing. A good quarterback, like Van Brocklin, will throw those soft easy lobs and not bullet passes. The lobs, which are caught over the shoulder, usually, are the best because they're hard to intercept."

What about Milt Plum, the ex-Penn State star now guiding the fabulous Cleveland Browns?

"I wouldn't turn him away," Sherman said. He's real good. He didn't lose those two games to the Giants and Lions. The whole team did, including Jimmy Brown, whom I rank as one of the best pro backs in history."

Was there anyone else this fall who caught their eye on a scouting mission?

"Ron Luciano of Syracuse," Sherman said. "He's a real fine tackle and should go early in the draft."

"Dave Intrabartolo of Villanova and John Guzick of Pitt," Morton said. "That Intrabartolo is a hard runner. He'll probably make the pros. Guzick is great. He can pull good, lead a play very well and is a fine middle linebacker. Right now, I think he could probably make the pros. But of course, that's a step up in class. And whether he can do everything well in pro ball as in college, remains to be seen. But he is very good."

Jail Sentences--

The total amount of money taken in the series of 23 thefts was set at more than $2000.

In another case involving a student, Campbell issued a suspended sentence to Theodore Schilling for leaving the scene of an auto accident.

The suspension was given on the condition that he be put on probation for one year and that he pay accident and court costs. He was also ordered to return his license to his father.

THINKLISH

English: MAN WHO SQUANDERS HIS LUCKIES

Thinklish translation: When this gent gives someone the shirt off his back, he throws in free laundry service. In passing around the cigarettes, he knows no peer—it's "Want a Lucky, pal? Keep the carton!" The man's really a walking testimonial to the honest taste of fine tobacco (he buys 247 packs of Luckies a day). Thing is, he gives 246 away—which makes him a bit of a tastrell!
