

A KOREAN ORPHAN GIRL, Song Uh Chung, is the new foster daughter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Sorority Adopts 7-Year-Old Korean

The local chapter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority has financially adopted Song Uh Chung, a seven-year-old Korean girl who was among the thousands left homeless by the invasion of North Korean Communists in 1950.

The adoption was made through Foster Parents' Plan, Inc. to which the Beta Mu Chapter, the local group, has promised to contribute $15 monthly toward the child's support for at least one year.

Of this amount the child receives $8 cash, while the remainder is used for periodic food and clothing, medical services and education.

To create a closer relationship between the foster parents and the child, correspondence will be translated both ways through the plan office. A personal history and photograph of the child have been sent to the sorority.

Uh Chung is living at the Ai Kwang Won Orphanage in Kojedo, South Korea, where she was found, "a mere bundle of bones wrapped in rags" on March 20, 1952. No one has ever visited or inquired about her.

The child is now in the second grade of primary school and is an outstanding pupil in her class. She won an honor prize last year and was elected head monitor of her class this year. Uh Chung is especially good in reading and composition and enjoys singing and dancing.

The advance of Communist troops across the 38th Parallel in June, 1950, threw all of Korea into chaos and left many such Korean children, as well as adults, homeless and starving. The Foster Parents' Plan is now rehabilitating 11,500 youngsters on a personal basis in South Korea, Greece, Italy, France, Belgium, Viet Nam and the displaced persons camps of West Germany.

Over the past 20 years more than 600,000 individuals and groups in the U.S. have helped needy children overseas through this plan.

Rimrott Gets Fellowship From Canadian Council

Dr. Frederick P. J. Rimrott, assistant professor of engineering mechanics, has been awarded a fellowship by the National Research Council of Canada.

Rimrott has been granted a year's leave of absence, effective February 1, to become a post-doctoral fellow at the Ecole Polytechnique, Montreal, Canada. He will do research work in the field of pressure vessels.

Prof to Fill Eng Post

Dr. Arthur H. Waynick, professor and head of the Department of Electrical Engineering and director of the Ionosphere Research Laboratory, has been elected a regional director of the Institute of Radio Engineers for 1959-60.

Voice Recital To Be Given By 2 Seniors

Wayne Zarr and William Reeves, seniors in the College of the Liberal Arts, will give a voice recital at 8 p.m. Friday in 117 Carnegie.

Zarr, a senior in arts and letters from Levittown, will perform Robert Schumann's song cycle "Dichterliebe" which is a series of 16 songs set to poems from the Lyric Intermezzi of Heinrich Heine.

Zarr, who is a tenor, has appeared in recent years in the Players' productions of "The Mikado" and "Rudigore." He also appeared in State College Choral Society's performance of the Vivaldi Gloria Mass.

Reeves, senior in arts from Blue Bell, will perform the Cantata No. 56 by Johann Bach, "Ich will den Kreuzstab gerne tragen." In addition to being a member of Chapel Choir, he has appeared in the Players' production of "Amahl and the Night Visitors."

Graeme Cowen, junior in music education from Summit, N.J., will accompany Zarr, and Barry Brinsmaid, assistant professor of music, will accompany Reeves. Admission is free.

3 Guests to Speak In Hillel Program

Three guest speakers will participate in a panel discussion, "The Goals of Religion and the Free Society: Where Are They Detrimental?" at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Hillel Foundation.

The panel discussants are: Dr. J. Mitchell Morse, assistant professor of English composition, the Reverend Richard W. Nutt, director of the Wesley Foundation, and Dr. Jessie Bernard, professor of sociology.

Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn will continue his lecture series on "Introduction to Judaism" at 7 p.m. tomorrow. Members of the Grad Club will be hosts at a coffee hour which will close the evening. The public is invited.

Nittany, WH Councils To Give HUB Dance

West Halls and Nittany Councils will sponsor a free semi-formal dance from 9 p.m. to midnight on Saturday in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

Couples only may attend the "Winter Fantasy." Music will be provided by the Campuseers.

Co-Edits

Initiates of Alpha Zeta are George T. Smith Jr., William K. Harding and Jorge Juliano.

New officers of the pledge class of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority are Susan Hill, president; Carolyn Falck, vice president; Jane Davis, secretary-treasurer, Joanne Moatz, chaplain.

New officers of the pledge class of Theta Phi Alpha sorority are: Louise Franco, president; Sara Dunmire, secretary-treasurer; Joanne Pangonis, parliamentarian.

BA Council to Discuss Boucke Traffic Problem

President James Meister will report the failure of an attempt to establish one-way traffic on the front staircase in Boucke Building and call for further discussion of the problem at the Business Administration Student Council meeting at 6.45 tonight in 205 Boucke.

The cardboard signs designating the staircase for down traffic were ripped down, according to Meister.

Michael Roeberg will report on the reception given the proposed academic honesty program by the college executive committee, composed of the dean and department heads. If the reaction is favorable, council will further discuss the program, which would eliminate proctoring during bluebooks and final exams.

Robert Drexler will report on the book-of-the-year proposal which he advanced at the last council meeting.

THE GIFT HORSE

I know how busy you are—studying, going to class, catching night crawlers—but let me interrupt your multifarious activities—studying, going to class, helping old grads find their dentures after Homecoming—to remind you that busy as you are—studying, going to class, searching for meat in the dormitory stew—time and tide wait for no man, and the Yuletide will soon be upon us. Busy or not, we must turn our thoughts to Christmas shopping. Let us, therefore, pause for a moment in our busy schedules—studying, going to class, rolling drunks—to examine a number of interesting gift suggestions.

We will start with the hardest gift problem of all: What do you give to the person who has everything? Well sir, there follows a list of a half dozen gifts which I will flatly guarantee the person who has everything does not have:

1. A dentist's chair.
2. A low hurdle.
3. A street map of Perth.
4. Fifty pounds of chicken fat.
5. A carton of filter-tip Marlboros.
6. A carton of non-filter Philip Morris.

"What?" you exclaim, your young eyebrows rising in wild incredulity. "The person who has everything does not have cartons of filter Marlboros and non-filter Philip Morris?" you shriek, your young lips curling mockingly. "What arrant nonsense!" you rasp, making a coarse gesture.

And I reply with an emphatic no! The person who has everything does not have filter Marlboros and non-filter Philip Morris—not for long anyhow—because if he has Marlboros and Philip Morris and if he is a person who likes a mild, mellow, fresh, flavorful cigarette—and who does not? eh? who does not?—why, then he doesn't have Marlboros and Philip Morris; he smokes them. He might possibly have a large collection of Marlboro and Philip Morris butts, but whole Marlboros and Philip Morris? No. An emphatic no!

Now we take up another thorny gift problem: What do you buy your girl if you are broke? Quite a challenge, you will agree, but there is an answer—an ingenious, exciting answer! Surprise your girl with a beautiful bronze head of herself!

Oh, I know you're not a sculptor, but that doesn't matter. All you have to do is endear yourself to your girl's roommate, so she will be willing to do you a favor. Then some night when your girl is fast asleep, have the roommate butter your girl's face—quietly, so as not to wake her—and then quietly pour plaster of Paris on top of the butter and then quietly wait till it hardens and quietly lift it off—the butter will keep it from sticking—and then bring you the mold, and you will pour bronze in it and make a beautiful bust to surprise your girl with!

Remember, it is important—very important—to endear yourself to the roommate, because if anything should go wrong, you don't want to be without a girl for the holiday season.

Your gift problem is no problem if you will give Marlboros to your filter smoking friends and Philip Morris to your non-filter smoking friends. Both come in soft pack or flip-top box; both are made by the sponsor of this column.

ALL GRADUATE STUDENTS are invited to attend
A WINTER'S BALL
DECEMBER 5
featuring the music of
THE CAMPUSEERS
9 to 12
HUB Ballroom
Refreshments • Semi-Formal
Sponsored by the Graduate Student Association

THE PENN STATE PLAYERS

"... a delightfully funny farce"
FINEMAN, Collegian

"The Reluctant Debutante"
at CENTER STAGE
THIS WEEKEND
Tickets on Sale at HUB