

Alexander Cops Split Decision In Brilliant Rally Over Lasko

By BILL BARBER

Showing great spirit and determination in a last round rally, Dave Alexander of Sigma Pi rose to the occasion to clinch a split decision over Alyn Lasko of Pi Kappa Psi in their heavyweight intramural boxing bout yesterday at Rec Hall.

Lasko, a semi-finalist in last year's pugilist contests, clearly took the first round on his rocking jabs to Alexander's head and body, forcing Alexander to backpeddle. But in the second round Alexander became the aggressor and had Lasko on the move with his flying jabs. In the last and deciding round, Alexander forced the fight and became the constant aggressor.

In a rough-punching, fast-moving bout, Ted Steinman of Zeta Beta Tau won out over Dave Kasperian of Sigma Chi in a 175-pound row. In the wild-swinging second round, Kasperian drew blood from a blow to Steinman's nose but Steinman failed to yield ground.

With leather flying almost constantly the entire first two rounds, Alvin Kuosman of Alpha Chi Rho took a decision over Bill Russ of Phi Kappa Sigma in a 165 pound thriller.

Dick Cenedella of Alpha Phi Delta scored the second TKO of the night when he knocked Gil Penrose out of the ring on a hard right to the side of the head late in the third round.

Ron Kolb of Delta Sigma Phi, an aggressive fighter all the way, swept to a unanimous decision over Eric Heidelberger of Sigma Pi in their 175-pound battle. Kolb took the upper hand right from the start, working on Heidelberg's face and body, forcing him into the ropes several times.

In a wild, free-swinging row, Fred Wolff of Sigma Nu snatched

ed a victory from Don Paxton of Beta Theta Pi in a heavy-weight clash. Paxton's wild-swinging parley in the first round forced Wolff to cover for practically the entire frame. But Paxton's heavy charge, which had won him the first round, began to tell by the third round and Wolff began to retaliate. Wolff clinched the last two

Other matches showed Mike Kocur decisioning Herb Deckert in the only independent bout; Gerald Ziegler, Alpha Chi Rho, decisioning Charles Radvan, Phi Kappa Sigma; Bill Booker, Omega Psi Phi, decisioning Alvin Clemens, Beta Theta Pi; Bill Smith, Delta Sigma Phi, decisioning Lou Trautmann, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Don't be a Down-in-the-Dumps Meal-Skipper

Everyone needs energy to keep alert in classes. You can't afford to be a meal-skipper at this time of the year. Finals are coming up soon and you're probably deep in the last round of bluebooks right now.

Stop into the Coffee Spot for a warm nourishing meal. May we suggest Italian spaghetti or LaSagne for a late lunch or early supper. For dinner, seafood, beef or veal... all served with your choice of vegetable, potatoes and Italian rolls and butter.

When you're downtown doing your Christmas shopping, why not stop into the Coffee Spot for lunch? You can choose a Hoagie, meatball sandwich, Coffee Spot Special (tenderloin steak with oil dressing on an Italian roll.)

If you're really hungry may we suggest a sandwich (steak or hamburger) with a salad and POTATOES, or as the French call them, pomme-de-terre (Apple-of-the-earth).

Stop into the Coffee Spot anytime of the day to enjoy the delicious baked-goods.

Remember the Coffee Spot Dining Room is ideal for banquets.
