round, outpointing Joel Hockinson, Tau Phi Delta. Lucido forced the fight from the beginning and scored almost at will in the 135-pound fracas.

Continuing the Phi Psi string, hard-punching Dick Gross found his left jab and right cross to be the formula for breaking through the southpaw stance of Manfred Speer, Sigma Pi, and gained the decision in the 165-pound division.

Norm Neff picked up the other five points for Phi Psi when Sigma Chi's Johnson Oberly forfeited in the heavyweight category.

In the other 165-pound contest DU's Dubinsky hooked up with Bill Smith, Delta Sigma Phi, in a battle of the jabbers. Dubinsky's superior aim guided more hits to the target and he won a close decision.

Southpaw John Porter, Theta Xi, came from behind in the last round to win a split decision over Joe Riley. Porter scored primarily on quick counter-punches after Riley opened up with a left jab.

Al Kuosman scored the biggest upset of the evening as the inspired Alpha Chi Rho pugilist outfought Alpha Sigma Phi's Dick Hinkel, last year's 145-pound IM titleholder. Kuosman came out swinging with everything at the opening bell and Hinkel joined in the exchange of blows.

Alpha Chi Rho's other finalist, Gerald Ziegler, outslugged Richard Palaschak, Theta Kappa Phi, in a 145-pound contest. Ziegler piled up his advantage by rushing his opponent with aggressive flurries.

Bill White, Delta Sigma Phi, gained a 145-pound final berth by outboxing Bill George, Alpha Phi Delta, in a bout that started and ended on the same note—George swinging but missing a wild haymaker. White ducked and covered George's flailing charges and countered effectively to win the unanimous decision.

Jim Thompson, Delta Tau Delta, won a 135-pound decision over Bill Sullivan, Phi Mu Delta, in the last fight of the evening. Sullivan, displaying a fine defensive style, stymied Thompson's offensive threats for a round and a half before the victor started landing punches. Thompson won the nod in a good stylish bout.

Beal Kinsey, Beta Theta Pi, moved into the finals in the 128-pound class uncontested because of a double forfeit in the light-weight category.

New Yorkers Await Sunday's Big Title Game

NEW YORK (AP) — Long lines of chilled football fans stomped their feet and shelled out ready cash Monday for tickets to Sunday's playoff game between the New York Giants and the Cleveland Browns.

Despite the continued strike of newspaper delivery men that had forced all major papers to cease publication, the big city reacted vigorously to Sunday's 13-10 victory of the Giants over the Browns.

Extra police were called out to control the frosty customers who besieged the ticket windows at Yankee Stadium until 11 p.m.

They were back again Monday morning. Most of the tickets were snapped up.

cashier stand will be ordered for the Lion's Den to replace the table that has been used. A separate cashier stand has helped to make service faster, he said.

More improvements will be added in the future, according to Proffitt. Among these are additional pedestal fans for warmer weather, a new ceiling in the kitchen and a new type of napkin dispenser in the Lion's Den and Terrace Room.

the Nittanians in ground-gaining in the first two encounters with 192 yards, ranking fourth in the nation.

But an after-whistle block in the second quarter of the Penn tilt forced him to the sidelines. The five games he missed included the Lions' two major defeats, at the hands of Army and Syracuse.

However, despite this handicap, Botula finished as Penn State's second-best ground gainer this season. He rushed for 342 yards on 82 carries, an average of 4.2 yards per trip. Botula scored only one touchdown, but his five pass receptions for 36 yards ranked sixth-best among the Lions.
