

Editorial Opinion

Roads and the University

Two cloverleaf plans are under study for the intersection at what will be College Avenue and University Drive.

Whichever cloverleaf plan is adopted will link an improved College Avenue and an improved exit from campus.

The cloverleaf plan is the second phase of a much-needed beginning by the state highways department in improving the flow of traffic on major roads in and around State College.

The first phase—now under construction—is the rebuilding of the Benner Pike (College Avenue) from Centre Furnace, just east of campus, to the intersection of Route 64, Dale Summit.

But improved access to the campus and a safer State College-Bellefonte highway are not the only needs of the area.

A Route 322 by-pass, to skirt the eastern edge of the main campus area, already has been planned for within the next 12 years. The by-pass will be vital to the University's development, since an important part of that development is planned for west of Atherton Street, Route 322.

Improved access to and from campus is long overdue. It is to be hoped that future highway construction developments will parallel development of the University—not lag behind it.

Check List for Greeks

Fraternity men have been given some helpful advice concerning protection of their houses over the holidays, by O. Edward Pollock, assistant to the dean of men. Pollock's reminders:

1. No heat can mean frozen pipes. If fraternities don't take care to see that their houses are kept warm over the vacation, or that the water pipes are drained, they might come back to a freezeup. Very inconvenient, and expensive, as a few houses learned after the Thanksgiving vacation.

2. Police checks. Borough police will check a fraternity house periodically over the holidays if requested to do so by the fraternity president.

3. Lending the house to other groups. Pollock said fraternity houses cannot be used by other groups or individuals over the vacation without permission from his office. If you've promised your house to someone, be sure the dean of men's office knows.

4. Don't take all the keys. A key to the house should be left with the chapter adviser or a neighbor in case the house has to be opened in an emergency.

Fraternity presidents should make Pollock's suggestions a check list to be consulted before the house is locked up for the holidays.

Fifty-four Years of Student Editorial Freedom

The Daily Collegian

Successor to The Free Lance, est. 1887

Published Tuesday through Saturday morning during the University year. The Daily Collegian is a student-operated newspaper. Entered as second-class matter July 5, 1934 at the State College, Pa. Post Office under the act of March 3, 1879. Mail Subscription Prices: $3.00 per semester — $5.00 per year.

ROBERT FRANKLIN Editor

ROBERT PICCONE Business Manager

STAFF THIS ISSUE: Night Editor, Lianne Cordero; Copy Editor, Janet Durstine; Wire Editor, Denny Malick; Assistants: Nickl Wolford, John Root, Helen McCafferty, Edith Beck, Ginny Croft, Pat Dyer, Susie Eberly, Dave Hladick, Don Hutchins, Joni Nathan, Nancy Sharp.

Russia

Stiff Opposition To Khrushchev Still Reported

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY AP Foreign News Analyst

The violence of Nikita Khrushchev's attack in Moscow on the "antiparty group" indicates he still is encountering strong opposition within the Communist party.

Khrushchev is not given to flogging dead horses. He is now sounding off with a more detailed indictment of the views and policies of Georgi Malenkov, V. M. Molotov, L. M. Kaganovich, Dmitri Shepilov and Nikolai Bulganin. He must have good reason.

It looks as if there are many Soviet Communists who in one or another degree share the dim views which Malenkov and the others took of the radical changes in the Soviet system which Khrushchev is making.

Khrushchev defeated this group decisively in June 1957. He ousted them from leadership and either exiled them to the remote provinces or else expelled them from public life.

In Moscow currently the Central-Committee of the Communist party is meeting to prepare the way for a new congress of the party. This new congress at the end of January will elect a new Central Committee.

Therefore, this is a time for political jockeying—and this is what Khrushchev by his blast against the opposition is doing. He is attributing to its members all of the most unpopular agricultural policies of the last decade in the USSR.

It seems to suggest that not only does an opposition to Khrushchev continue to exist but also that it is somewhat stronger than most observers of the Soviet scene inside and outside Moscow have previously considered.

By removing his leading opponents from public office Khrushchev has apparently managed to make the resistance lose its overt leadership, but he has apparently not destroyed the resistance to his reforms.

Gazette

TODAY

- Air Force Glee Club, 3 p.m., HUB assembly hall
Alpha Phi Alpha interest group, 8:30 p.m., 214 HUB
Bridge Club, 6:30 p.m., HUB card-room
Chimes, 4 p.m., 212 HUB
Committee on Campus Integration, 8 p.m., 216 HUB
Faculty Women's Bridge, 7:30 p.m., 213 HUB
Orientation Week Counselors, 6:30 p.m., 214 HUB
Philosophy Club, 7 p.m., 217 HUB
WRA Bridge Club, Christmas Party, 7 p.m., White Building
WSGA Judicial, 5 p.m., 217 HUB
UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL
Joanna Appiah, Charles Bastress, Teresa Blando, Pamela Chamberlain, James Claypool, Kenneth Colbank, Patricia Couch, James Dean, Judith Douglass, Eugene Downer, Jeffrey Hardy, Nancy Israel, Andrew Jordan, Donald Kamenedsky, Diane Koley, John Krisinger, Constance Litow, Judith Muskat, Terry Ritter, Mona Teeter, Fred Waltman, Michael Ziegler, Edwin Marks.

Co-Edits

Newly elected officers of Alpha Chi Sigma fraternity are Ronald Siders, master alchemist; Donald Zepp, vice-master alchemist; George Layman, recorder; Todd Coward, treasurer; John Aber, social chairman; Charles Moran, historian; Michael Bonaroti, reporter; Terrance Quinn, caterer; Donald Horan, alumni secretary; Joseph Synkonis, profession chairman, and Theodore Gelet, Carl Von Dreele and Henry Mercaldo, executive board.

New officers of Chi Phi fraternity are David Johnson, president; Joseph Hendrickson, vice president and social chairman; Emil Senkowski, secretary; Charles Edmunds, treasurer; James Molenari, rushing chairman; John Borchert, pledgmaster; Spenser Huston, house manager; and Clyde Barner, caterer.

A man has tact who won't change his mind but will change the subject.

from here to infinity

Gift List For Local Leaders

by bob thompson

Each year about this time, postal authorities are deluged with letters written to a white-whiskered gentleman at the North Pole.

This year we'll add to the avalanche by sending a letter of our own to the jolly gentleman.

Here goes.

Dear Santa:

We want:

... a crystal ball so that Dr. Walker can really know what the enrollment will be in 1970.

... two passes to the movie "Party Girl" for Dean Weston.

... 1000 copies of the transcript of Bryan Green's afternoon lectures for bashful coeds.

... The addresses and phone numbers of the same 1000 girls for bashful men.

... a bottle of bromo-seltzer for Robert F. Proffitt.

... a dozen brass rings for the "Senate-go-round."

... a set of blinders for fraternity housemothers.

... another committee for Dan Thalimer.

THOMPSON

... a new phone number for Ike.

... a closed-circuit television system for 419 Old Main.

... a guard for Jay Feldstein's Lion's Paw pin, so that it will look like a fraternity pin.

... for Lou Phillips, a blanket for security.

... deer season in the middle of July for the Physical Plant.

... a practical psychology correspondence course for Robert G. Bernreuter.

... a "junior G-Man" badge for Warren Carmichael.

... office hours for Lawrence Dennis.

... for the Military science department, a subscription to the Individualist.

... a draft notice for Don Zepp.

... authority for the Campus Patrol.

... and finally, the merriest Christmas and the happiest of New Year to the students, faculty and staff of the Pennsylvania State University.

What a new face courage puts on everything! A determined man, by his very attitude and the tone of his voice, puts a stop to defeat and begins to conquer.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

Weekly Crossword Puzzle

- ACROSS
1 Rabbit's foot.
4 Assistants' Abbr.
8 Kitchen appliance.
13 Composer Khachaturian.
15 Theodor the Great was one.
16 Echo was one.
17 Network of nerves.
18 City in Pennsylvania.
19 Astonish.
20 Finch.
22 Sandhurst, to Churchill: 2 words.
24 19th century composer.
25 Opposite of "hooked."
26 Pasture palaver.
28 Capital of Pakistan.
32 Aims (with "on"): 3 words.
36 Fly high.
37 Three: Rom.
38 Worked dough.
40 Passing through.
41 Girl's name.
43 "The Cat and the Fiddle" composer.
45 Piquant.
47 Four seasons.
48 Maniacal.
51 "Right makes ...": Lincoln.
54 Cause of employment and unemployment.
57 More cunning.
58 Irving Berlin's wife.
59 Assuaging agency.
61 Contemporary cartoonist.
62 Coined words.
63 Western state.
64 Skid.
65 Irish dramatist.
66 "Pro — publico."
67 Comprehend.
DOWN
1 Fifth section.
2 "— down-hearted?": 2 words.
3 Conduits: 2 words.
4 Generation.
5 Rail birds.
6 Moonshiner's contraption.
7 G. & S. perennial: 2 words.
8 Vagabond.
9 Fleets.
10 Like the proverbial pin.
11 Look intently.
12 River in Germany.
14 Sward.
21 Ornamental subway entrance.
23 Part of U.S.N.A.
27 Capital of Puerto Rico.
29 Outstanding models: 2 words.
30 Very small degree.
31 Pahlvi's land.
32 Former Presidents of Mexico.
33 Russian hemp.
34 "Prince of demons."
35 "Play it by —"
39 Composer Taylor.
42 Type of picture.
44 High peak in Tibet.
46 Surrey roof adornment.
49 Muse of lyric poetry.
50 — Thomas, late Welsh poet.
52 Dancer on ice.
53 Figure of speech.
54 Botch.
55 Auxiliary.
56 Roderick Dhu's group.
60 Unit of conductance.

