

Sportseer—

"You don't have any complaints about the wrestling team then?"

"Not exactly. I thought it was a pretty dull meet. But of course, I didn't think Colgate would provide too much opposition—and they didn't. What I'm waiting for is Leigh. Man, do I like to beat them."

"Well, Joe," I said rising from the chair. "I probably won't see you until after the vacation, so have a nice vacation."

"Sure man, I always do. You do the same. And don't forget."

"Forget what?"

"To watch the Orange Bowl game, of course."

IM Boxing --

Ron Stanish gained a split nod over southpaw Christian Vogt in a leather-crunching bout. Both men moved fast and swung hard, landing solid lefts and rights to the head in a hotly-contested battle.

Gary Fry came out on the long end of the other split vote as he edged Bob Sutherland in the heavyweight classification. Fry landed several body punches and exchanged blows to the head in a match that featured a lot of dancing for heavyweights.

Lefty Mark Silverstein won a unanimous 128-pound decision over Dave Frick by bulling his way in and scoring on the in-fighting.

Ben Bow unleashed a two-fisted close-quartered attack to defeat Merl Waltz for the 135-pound title, and Gerry Lohs outfought Jim Dawson in a 145-pound thriller.

National Sports Roundup--

Moore Named 'Fighter of Year'

NEW YORK (AP)—"A dream come true."

That was Light Heavyweight Champion Archie Moore's comment when told he had been named recipient of the Edward J. Neil Memorial Plaque as "fighter of the year."

The Boxing Writers Assn.'s trophy is awarded annually in memory of The Associated Press boxing writer who died in 1938 while covering the war in Spain. It is the most prized award in boxing.

Sam Taub, 72-year-old New York writer-broadcaster, was awarded the James J. Walker Memorial Trophy for long and meritorious service to boxing.

Moore said the Neil award was a "fine birthday present." Archie's birthday was Dec. 13

'Big Klu' to Return

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"Ted Kluszewski definitely will be back with us and I expect him to make a real fight for the regular first base job," general manager Joe Brown of the Pittsburgh Pirates said Tuesday.

but he didn't say which one. He is 42, 45 or 48.

Whatever the age, the old ring warrior staged one of the greatest comebacks of all time when he knocked out Yvon Durelle in the 11th round of his seventh title defense Dec. 10. Moore had been on the canvas four times, thrice in the first round, of the Montreal thriller.

A pro 22 years, Archie won the 175-pound division crown six years ago from Joey Maxim. He has scored knockouts in his last five defenses. He hasn't been beaten by a light heavyweight in seven years.

Phi Kappa, Pi Kappa Phi Tie for IM Bowling Lead

Phi Kappa and Pi Kappa Phi remained in a deadlock for first place in League A after ringing up victories in last night's fraternity bowling action. Both clubs are supporting 33-3 records and will meet in a head-on match, Jan. 6.

Phi Kappa rolled over Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 4-0, as Dennis Uhrin received high honors for the winners with a 190 single and a 498 series.

Dick Balderston, the league's leading bowler with a 170 average, led Pi Kappa Phi to victory over last place Omega Psi Phi, 4-0. Balderston turned in games of 192, 178 and 161.

Other League A matches showed Phi Delta Theta shutting out Alpha Epsilon Pi, 4-0. Tom Fitzpatrick took high honors for Phi Delta Theta with a 169 single and 445 series.

After dropping the first set, Delta Tau Delta rallied to beat Phi Epsilon Pi, 3-1. Fred Taylor paced the victors with a 431 series.

In the final two matches of the evening Theta Kappa Phi turned back Phi Mu Delta, 4-0, and Theta Chi stopped Alpha Rho Chi, 3-1.

Neff Wins--

(Continued from page six) al boxing champ, and Al Gcerbo, graduate assistant in physical education did a fine job in handling the boxers as chief seconds, throughout the tournament. Vignola wanted to compete in the tournament; however, a broken hand kept him out of action.

Judges for the 13 bout card were Ken Hosterman, varsity soccer coach, and James Marino. The time keeper was Eugene Bischoff, the ringside physician. Dr. Alfred Griess, and the announcer was Pete Schoderbeck, graduate assistant.

An estimated 950 fans turned out for the bouts. The crowd was mostly made up of two large cheering sections—one from Delta Upsilon and the other from Phi Kappa Psi.

DU displayed a gigantic banner proclaiming "DU King of the Ring." However, their boisterous fans were stone silent after Phi Kappa Psi notched the title.

Alpha Chi Rho, which had two representatives in the finals, were equally clamorous in cheering their gladiators.
