

West Virginia Finnish G-Men Ranks Eleventh Prep for Lions

Only 17 points separated the fifth and seventh place teams with Michigan State, 7-1, landing spot No. 5 and Auburn, 8-0, climbing from ninth to sixth. They received 563 points to 552 for Auburn which made previously unbeaten Mississippi State its 19th straight victim over a two-year span.

Behind seventh place Cincinnati came Northwestern. The once-beaten Wildcats had 512 points to 546 for Cincinnati.

Bradley, one of the three unbeaten teams in the top ten, advanced from 10th to ninth after walloping Drake Saturday for its eighth straight victory. The Braves received six first place votes and 468 points.

St John's, climbing steadily following its surprise triumph in Madison Square Garden's Holiday Festival, forced its way into the top ten, replacing Mississippi State which dropped from eighth to 12th after losing to Auburn.

The second ten West Virginia, Mississippi State, Oklahoma City, St. Louis, Marquette, Seattle, Tennessee, Villanova, Texas A&M and Illinois

The third best Finnish showing in the Sarasota met was turned in by Sakari Olkkonen. The Helsinki painter was the only double winner in the meet with gold medal performances on the still rings and calisthenics.

The other three performers were Otto Kestola, Olli Hurme and Heikki Toikka (Too-ka).

Kestola, who is a 23-year-old electrician, was the champion of the Northern Countries in 1957. His best events are the long horse vault and the high bar.

Hurme is a 24-year-old mechanic and specializes on the parallel bars and the long horse vault. The sixth traveling Finn, Toikka, is a Helsinki surveying student and works best on the still rings.

Pro Grid, Bowls--

Top grid contests were Oklahoma, 21-6, over Syracuse in the Orange Bowl; LSU, 7-0, over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl and the scoreless tie between Texas Christian and the Air Force Academy in the Cotton Bowl.

Decathlon star Rafer Johnson was honored as the athlete of the year by Sports Illustrated and Sport magazine. Trackmen also drew the other athletic top honors. Glenn Davis was presented the Sullivan Award, while Herb Elliott was named the top athlete by the Associated Press and European sportswriters.

Roosevelt--

Mrs. Roosevelt, the first speaker in the new University Lecture Series, will discuss the topic "Russia—the Country and the People as I Saw Them" based on her 1957 trip through Russia. In her talk she will make a comparison of the United States and Russia in regard to home life, development of education and health services.

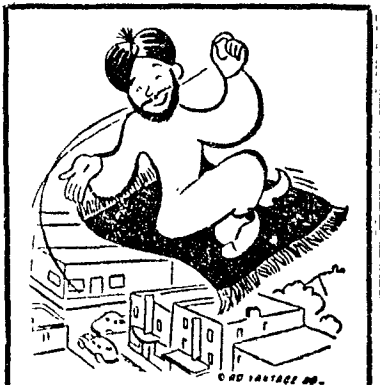

She will be introduced by Feldstein who will also head a committee of students and faculty members who will meet her on her arrival. She will be housed at the Nittany Lion Inn during her campus visit.

A press conference under the direction of Woodrow Bierly of Public Information will be held at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Nittany Lion Inn. Representatives of The Daily Collegian, the Centre Daily Times, WMAJ and WDFM will be invited to attend.

Miami Thefts--

The loot included 37 wrist-watches, 20 rings, 8 bracelets, 10 necklaces, 2 cameras and a mink stole, according to Miami authorities.

'Ah-h-h-h! At last I've arrived at the source of that marvelous aroma!'

What puts us all in a good mood? The aroma and taste of well-cooked food
