

Lack Luster in Lose to Rutgers--

Cagers To Face Bucknell Tonight

Just a few days ago Penn State's basketball team was sailing along on a 4-game winning streak, but tonight it will be out to snap a 2-game losing streak when it hosts the powerful Bucknell Braves at 8:30 p.m. in Rec Hall. A freshman game at 6:30 between the two squads will precede the varsity tilt.

After coming back from Christmas vacation with four straight wins under their belts, the Lions dropped a heartbreaking overtime game to nationally-ranked West Virginia Thursday. Then Saturday lost a game to Rutgers, 69-64, that they should have won, according to Coach John Egl.

"They just out-hustled us," the Lion coach said when he was asked to comment on his team's performance at New Brunswick. "Whenever there was a loose ball a Rutgers man was on it, not a Penn Stater," he added.

The Lions led throughout the first half and held a 31-30 lead at the intermission. Then Karol Stralecki's rebounding and Fred Homer's scoring moved the Scarlet Knights out in front.

Mark DuMars, who turned in the "performance of the year" against West Virginia with a 30-point scoring outburst, was held to 12 points by the tough Rutgers defense.

Gymnasts Trounce Temple; Werner Wins 3 Events

Everything ran true-to-form Saturday afternoon as the Lion gymnasts flew away with a win over Temple, 57½ to 37½.

Coach Gene Wettstone's 1959 edition opened their drive for their ninth Eastern title without the services of four of its top performers who are ineligible this semester—Captain Armando Vega, Lee Cunningham, Vince Neuhauser and Graeme Cowan. But they weren't needed Saturday.

Eastern tumbling champion Dave Dulaney flashed a double-twisting somersault in the first event and bounced off with first place and the highest score of the afternoon—a 268.

Temple took the side horse event and except for two seconds by the Owl's Stan Chatis, the meet was in the hands of junior Jay Werner.

In winning three firsts the talented Lion recorded the highest meet (Continued on page seven)
