 ment when a recommendation was made to discontinue the practice.

However, Dr Robert G. Bernreuter, special assistant to the president for student affairs, registrar and dean of admissions, pointed out that the University would lose revenue if too many rooms ended up vacant; also, many people would be deprived of the opportunity to attend college.

Oberly Loses In Lion Win

 seconds riding time in addition to a takedown and reversal.

Don Wilson (123) and Gerry Seckler (157) were the other Lion victors. Wilson tried desperately to flatten Bob Kihune, but the best he could do was a 6-1 decision. Wilson had Kihune in a half nelson and body press combination at the end of the match, but the buzzer rang before Referee Ray Sparks could make the fall official.

Seckler's victory came on a 3-1 decision over Dick Royston.

THE SUMMARY:
 123—Wilson (PS) dec. Kihune (N), 6-1.
