

New Zone Helps Lion Cagers Stop High-Scoring Kennedy

By SANDY PADWE
Penn State basketball coach John Egli was all smiles Tuesday night following his team's lopsided 70-36 win over once mighty Temple.

"That was a good team win," he said "and how did you like the way that zone worked for us. It really stopped Temple cold."

On Monday night Egli made the decision to switch from the one-three-one zone, the setup that held Pitt's All-American Don Hennon, to a variation of a two-three zone.

EDWARDS

The main purpose of the two-three affair was to stop "Pickles" Kennedy and it did. "I figured that Temple would be expecting Mark DuMars to play man for man out front the way he did against Hennon," Egli said, "but then I realized that Harry Litwack (Temple's coach) wouldn't faped and more x-rays will be taken at the end of the week. He hurt his ankle a week ago in a scrimmage and is expected to be out for at least two more weeks.

Instead of having just DuMars playing man-for-man like he did in the one-three-one, Egli had Wally Colender doing the same thing. The two chased Kennedy all over the court and the 1957-58 All East choice only had eight points.

Egli was in a good mood for handing out accolades and he had a lot of praise for two of his big men—Bob Edwards and Paul Sweetland.

Egli said that he thought Edwards played his best game so far this year. The 6-4 center collected 17 points and was strong off the boards.

"Sweetland did a good job filling in for Ted Kubista," Egli commented. "He played well on defense and gave Edwards some help with the rebounding."

Kubista's ankle is still heavily taped and more x-rays will be taken at the end of the week. He hurt his ankle a week ago in a scrimmage and is expected to be out for at least two more weeks.

Tuesday's win pushed the Lions over the .500 mark again. Their record is 6-5 with nine games left. The next game is a Saturday night home contest with the Orangemen of Syracuse.

SWEETLAND

honorably mentioned All-American while Goldberg was honorable mention All-East.

SPORTSEER

(Continued from page ten)
field High and Coach Art Weiss.

Sophomore Neil Turner and Sam Minor have also been impressive. Turner, although he lacks the ability of many teammates, makes up for it in hustle and desire. Minor is another tireless worker.

George Gray, the only senior on the team, seems to have found himself, too. He is finally starting to live up to what was predicted for him as a rookie two years ago. And Hank Barone's performance against highly-regarded Doug Volgenau of Navy last Saturday (a draw) was the best showing of his career—may be a tipoff on the future.

We have to admit to our disappointment with Johnston Oberly, Gerry Seckler, Guy Guccione and Don Wilson. Oberly could be one of the greatest Penn State wrestlers in history. But he must learn that it takes hard work to succeed. He has plenty of ability but . . .

Seckler and Guccione haven't seen much action yet, but their performances have left much to be desired. They, too, have great potential, but they seem to be missing something when out on the mats. Wilson could also fall into this same category. Maybe they'll explode this weekend!

Steve Garban First MVP

Steve Garban, Penn State's all-East center and captain, has been named as the most valuable player on the 1958 football team by the sports staff of The Daily Collegian. Garban is the first recipient of what is to be an annual award.

Handball, Swimming Entries Due By Friday

Entry blanks for intramural handball singles and team swimming can be acquired at the intramural office anytime this week until Friday at 5 p.m.

Inter-Semester Sports Results

THE SUMMARIES:

PITT		PENN STATE
fg	f ft tp	fg	f ft tp
Sawyer	3 0-0	Kubista	3 2-3 9
Mills	0 2-4	Edwards	6 4-6 16
Fridley	8 1-1	Hancock	2 1-2 5
Mesher	7 0-2	Colender	7 6-8 29
Hennon	6 5-6	DuMars	4 7-9 15
Ditka	1 0-0	Musser	0 0-0 0
Falinaki	0 0-0	Sweetland	1 0-1 2
Keller	0 0-0 0

Totals	25	3-18	68	Totals	23	21-30	67
PENN STATE					33	34-67
PITT					27	31-58

Penn State vs Army

Officials: Smith, Stricker.
123—Woods (A) dec. Cramp (PS), 8-2.
130—Weisenseel (A) dec. Wilson (PS), 8-2.
137—Johnston (PS) dec. Strausbourger (A), 6-1.
147—Hyde (A) dec. Turner (PS), 6-2.
157—Minor (PS) dec. Davidson (A), 8-2.
167—Gray (PS) dec. Miller (A), 3-0.
177—Barone (PS) dec. Bair (A), 4-3.
Hwt—Gilmour (PS) dec. Crum (A), 8-5.
Referee: John Engel.

Mac Sez...

Come See
Come Save

How has your winter wardrobe weathered the storm? Maybe you have grown to like that worn spot in your sweater sleeve, but your new classmates may have different ideas about your appearance. Restock your wardrobe now and save 20 to 30%.

Nationally Known Brands
All Reduced 20%
Sweaters (Crew Necks)
Wool Flannel Slacks
Wool Caps
Long-Sleeved Sport Shirts
Flannel P.J.'s and Robes
Zipper Jackets

Reduced 30%
Suburban Coats

SALE on Tailor-made to measure Suits, Sport Coats and Top Coats.

Walk to the top of the hill and watch the prices go down.

HABERDASHERY

Mac's

In the Center of Pennsylvania
229 S. Allen St.

Get satisfying flavor...So friendly to your taste!

See how Pall Mall's famous length of fine tobacco travels and gentles the smoke—makes it mild—but does not filter out that satisfying flavor!

NO FLAT
"FILTERED-OUT" FLAVOR!

NO DRY
"SMOKED-OUT" TASTE!

HERE'S WHY SMOKE "TRAVELED" THROUGH FINE TOBACCO TASTES BEST

- 1 You get Pall Mall's famous length of the finest tobaccos money can buy.
- 2 Pall Mall's famous length travels and gentles the smoke naturally . . .
- 3 Travels it over, under, around and through Pall Mall's fine tobaccos!

Outstanding... and they are Mild!

© A.T. Co. - Product of The American Tobacco Company - "Tobacco is our middle name!"