

Four Americans Released By East German Reds

HELMSTEDT, Germany (AP)—Lt. Richard Mackin, an Army pilot, and four soldiers came back to freedom yesterday after weeks of captivity in Soviet-occupied East Germany.

Looking strained and weary, they were released across the West German frontier at Herleshausen under an agreement between the American Red Cross and the East German Red Cross.

Four trucks carrying routine supplies moved without delay through two Soviet checkpoints on the 110-mile autobahn between Berlin and the West after the United States successfully resisted Soviet attempts to inspect a convoy.

These developments took place as, in Moscow, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev wound up the 21st Communist party congress with an offer of Soviet guarantees for Western access to Berlin if his plan for the future of Berlin is adopted.

The West, thus far, has declined to consider the plan, calling for making Berlin a demilitarized free city under the United Nations.

Mackin, 27, from Washington, D.C., fell into East German hands last Dec. 3 after he became lost while flying near the border and parachuted when his small plane ran out of gas.

Khrushchev Invites Ike to Visit Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev Thursday urged President Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union and challenge the United States to participate in making West Berlin a free city under United Nations responsibility.

Winding up the 10-day Communist party congress, he compared the Berlin crisis with a burning fuse in a powder cellar.

Ike Asks Crime Ruling For Segregation Force

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked a dividend Congress yesterday to make it a federal crime to use force or mob violence to block racial integration of schools under court orders.

KOOL ANSWER

WHO SAID IT FIRST?

A column of incidental intelligence by Jockey brand

"WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING"
Bible scholars know that this expression wasn't born with Red Riding Hood. It's from Matthew, VII, 15:
"Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves."

"HAIL FELLOW WELL MET"
We consider this description a compliment today, but it didn't start out that way at all. The original is in Jonathan Swift's, "My Lady's Lamentation."
"Hail, fellow, well met, All dirty and wet; Find out if you can, Who's master, who's man."

"MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB"
If you think this familiar poem is authentic Mother Goose, think again. Nobody knows who wrote Mother Goose, but your librarian will tell you that Sarah Josepha Hale composed the stanzas about Mary and her academic lamb way back in 1830.

SKANTS® brief by Jockey®
