

Cornell Lineup Features Two '58 EIWA Champions

A couple of defending Eastern wrestling champs with the first name of Dave—Auble and Dunlop—head the semi-veteran lineup Cornell will send against Penn State tomorrow afternoon at Ithaca, N.Y.

The Big Red duo, who are both unbeaten in five meets this season, were the key performers on last year's Cornell team which won the EIWA team title. Auble captured the 123-pound EIWA crown last winter and Dunlop walked off with the heavyweight championship.

Auble, a junior, is 5-0 for the year with three wins coming via falls and two by lopsided decisions. The senior Dunlop has four decisions and a draw with Schwitters of Iowa State on his record.

AUBLE

Three other veterans are included in the Cornell lineup—Steve Friedman at 167, George Willis at 130 and Ted Carter at 137. Friedman is by far the best of this group and ranks right alongside Auble and Dunlop. He has been the second best 167-pounder in the East for the past two years, losing the EIWA title match both years to Pitt's now graduated Dave Johnson.

Friedman is also undefeated this campaign, with four wins and a draw. All of his victories have been by decisions.

Willis, another two-year vet, owns a 3-1-1 record, and Carter has one win, two losses and a draw. One of Carter's setbacks was a humiliating 17-2 defeat by Lehigh's 147-pound EIWA kingpin, Dick Santoro.

Cornell also has a highly-touted sophomore who seems to fit in with the Auble-Dunlop-Friedman crowd. He's 177-pound Al Marion.

Marion owns a 2-1-1 mark but his lone defeat was a default because of an injury. Included among his victims is Lehigh's Ed Hamer, one-time EIWA 157-pound king.

The rest of Cornell's starting array has been divided among five men. Bill Jones (0-1-2) and Bill Carter (0-0-1) have seen duty at 147 pounds; Al Rose (1-1), John Shafer (1-1) and Bob Munson (0-1) have been at 157; and Tom Oberlander (0-2) has wrestled at 177 on two occasions.

Cornell has dropped only one of five meets this year (not one of four as reported in yesterday's Collegian.) They're only loss was to perennial Big Eight contender Iowa State, 18-11. Victims include Michigan, 18-12; Yale, 17-10; Penn, 23-5; and Lehigh, 14-11.

Lehigh is the only common foe. Penn State was beaten by the Engineers 17-8.

Football Star Switches to Pitt

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—John Chisdak, fullback on Pennsylvania's 1957 All-State Scholastic Football Team, said yesterday he was "homesick" at Southern California and decided to transfer to the University of Pittsburgh.

The ex-Scranton star, hoping to be a doctor or dentist, said he has registered at Pitt and will begin classes on Monday.

"I have no feeling that I've made a wrong decision," Chisdak said. "I feel I should have gone to Pitt in the first place. I know where I want to go now."

The switch in schools will prevent the 190-pound back from playing football in the 1959 season, but he still has three years of eligibility—1960-62.

Varsity 'S' Club to Meet Tomorrow at Fraternity

The Varsity 'S' club will meet Sunday at 10 p.m. at Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. President Howie Maierhofer urged all members to attend the meeting.

Gymnastics--

Although they lost their top two men on the hemp, the Cadets have another top trio headed by Bill Cohen. The senior Cadet is capable of breaking four seconds.

On the other four events, the visitors are hampered by inexperience. But Maloney himself issued a warning to Lion followers "It would be a mistake to count us out beforehand."

Nittany Teams Record 15-8-1 for Fall Season

Penn State athletic teams compiled a 15-8-1 won-lost-tied record during the 1958 Fall season. The football team won six, lost three, and tied one. Coach Chick Werner's cross-country team captured four of five dual meets, and the soccer team won five games and lost four.
