

Cutler Will Be Speaker At Protestant Services

The Rev. Donald Cutler, chaplain pastor of St. Andrew's Episcopal Parish, will speak at the Protestant service of worship at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel.

A special quartet will sing Christopher Tye's "Extol the Name of God, Our Lord" as the anthem.

Theologist To Speak At Chapel

Dr. Robert McAfee Brown of Union Theological Seminary in New York City will speak on "Mystery and Meaning" at the University Chapel service of worship at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

Brown is an Auburn associate professor of systematic theology and philosophy of religion.

The chapel choir, directed by Willa Taylor will sing as the choral introtit "Jesu Priceless Treasure" set to a German traditional melody and adapted and harmonized by Johann Cruger. As anthem, the choir will sing "Christ, Be Thine the Glory" by Heinrich Schultz.

George E. Ceiga, University organist, will play as prelude, "Prelude on Aberystwyth," by Healey Willan; as offertory, "Our Father, Thou in Heaven Above," by Flor Peeters; and as postlude, "Fugue in B Minor," by Healey Willan.

Brown is an ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church. Prior to accepting the Auburn chair at Union Seminary in 1953, he was a professor of religion and head of the religion department at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn.

He is a member of the American Theological Society and a fellow of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education.

Dr. Brown

High Averages Get Coeds 11's

Upperclass women with a 3.2 or above All-University average and second semester freshman women with a 3.5 must show their transcripts to their residence hall hostesses in order to receive the extension of hours voted by the Women's Student Government Association Senate last semester.

Qualifying upperclass women will receive unlimited 11 o'clock permissions Sunday through Thursday nights. They do not have to sign out for these hours. Qualifying freshman women will receive unlimited 10 o'clocks. Freshmen must sign out after 6:30 p.m.

Football Stadium Mushrooms In Architecture Student's Plans

By ELAINE MIELE
Can you imagine the new Beaver Field being built in the shape of a mushroom or having movable lower level seats which would slide under the higher ones?

Projects suggesting plans such as these are displayed in the hall on the second floor of Sackett. They were done by students in architecture as assignments for an advanced design course taught by William A. Hajjar, professor of architecture.

All of the projects follow the requirements that have been announced for the moving of Beaver Field to the northeast end of campus. They provide for a seating capacity of 50,000, parking space for 6000 cars, 2 baseball fields, 2 practice fields and an inside track. The students were required to plan stadiums built with re-enforced concrete structures.

One of the plans designed by Elizabeth Hoekstra, a ninth semester student from Arlington, Va., shows a bowl stadium supported by cylindrical supports. The supports are shaped like the curved heel of a woman's shoe. Miss Hoekstra has also used ramps which lead to the higher seats from outside the stadium.

Roy Vollmer, a 10th semester student from Wynnewood, designed his field in the shape of a sphere cut by two intersecting circles which form the stands. The circular shape of the stands aids in carrying the weight of the structure. Vollmer also moved the Nittany Lion shrine to the site of the new stadium.

Most of the designs are planned with a covering over the stands. James Wehler, a ninth semester student from Littlestown, has used a scalloped dome-like covering over the seats.

Richard Foose, a 10th semester student from York, used a mushroom shape design for his stadium. Another provides for extra seats which are movable.

William Keeley, a 10th semester student from Wilkes-Barre, has planned retractable seats which can slide under the higher ones.

Several of the plans have more seats on one side than on the other. The reason for this is so that more people can be accommodated on the side where the sun will not shine in their eyes.

Donald Lettrich, a 10th semester student from Charleroi, used a huge concrete shell for his stadium. The seating follows the shell shape except in the center where more seats can be near the center of the field.

The projects will remain on display for another week, Hajjar said.

Undercover Strategy...

the girdle you buy in the same size as your dress!

Dress Sized Girdle

by Formfit

$16⁵⁰

• Regular misses dress sizes 10 to 20

It's so easy, so smart to ask for "DRESS-SIZED" girdle No. 1597. Just give your regular misses dress size and get a whole new concept of easy figure control. You'll find that the "DRESS-SIZED" girdle is wonderfully lightweight. A high-rising waist and bias-cut panels gently control your midriff. Airy nylon powernet molds hips and thighs. Length increases with size for sit-down comfort with no garter pull. White with pink embroidery or Black. Stop in and ask for your regular misses dress size 10 to 20.

Shown with "Romance" Bra No. 573. Features elastic front band for bind-free fit. White cotton, circle-stitched cups.

Dankes & Co

STATE COLLEGE

Through the Looking Glass

with Gabbi

HURRY! HURRY! HURRY!

Get 'em while they're hot. Get what? Why, all those fabulous values at Ethel's. Dollar Days are here again, and Ethel has converted her basement into a wonderland of values. Everything, but everything, is half price. Let's take a look.

FOR JUST 45c

you can buy stylish mouton earrings. And practical? They can double as ear muffs on these blustery days. These little gems come in a wide range of colors including blue, jade green, pink, red, and white. Why not buy two pairs to match your favorite wool outfits.

SETTING UP HOUSEKEEPING?

Well, you lucky rascals you. If the wedding bells are going to be tolling in the not too distant future, you'll be wanting to take a bit of a jaunt down to Ethel's. For the modern minded little hopeful, there are lovely contemporary designs of Franciscan china and of Bischoff glassware. If your eyes shine when you see old lace and candle light, the traditional design of Franciscan china and the hand cut glassware of Tiffin are for you. And remember that all these items have been reduced to a fraction of their value just for Dollar Days.

SON, YOUR WORRIES ARE OVER

No longer will you have to leave at 3:00 in the afternoon to get a front row seat at Rec Hall to see those wrestling matches. Arrive fashionably late and bring those pocket size binoculars you just bought at Ethel's. See the matches clear as day and, incidentally any cute coeds who happen to be sitting in your range of vision.

On this happy note, I shall leave you till next week. Same time, same channel.

Ethel Meserve

LAST DAY

of

Outstanding Values

$ Days

at

smart shop

123 S. Allen