

Brotherhood Banquet

Hillel Director to Speak

Dr. Judah J. Shapiro, national director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation, will speak at the sixth annual Brotherhood Banquet at 6 p.m. Thursday in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

His topic will be "The Meaning of Pluralism in American Society."

Dr. Shapiro has worked for many years in the field of Jewish youth and education.

He served as director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at Cornell University and organized Hillel service in the Boston area at Harvard and Boston Universities and Simmons and Tufts Colleges.

In 1948 Shapiro served as director of the Jewish Educational and Cultural Reconstruction program for the American Joint Distribution Committee with headquarters in Paris. In 1954 he became the director of Jewish Educational and Cultural Reconstruction for the Conference on Jewish Material Claims against Germany.

To fulfil his responsibilities in this capacity, he traveled over 250,000 miles in Europe, Asia and Africa to maintain his contact with Jewish communities and institutions.

He received his academic training at Yeshiva College, the College of the City of New York, Columbia University and Harvard University.

He is the author of many articles in Yiddish, Hebrew and English languages and has lectured extensively in the United States and Europe.

This banquet is sponsored by the Committee on Interreligious Affairs, which serves as a consulting group to the University chaplain.

Tickets for the banquet are $2.50 and may be purchased at the desk of the Program Center of the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel or at the Hetzel Union desk.

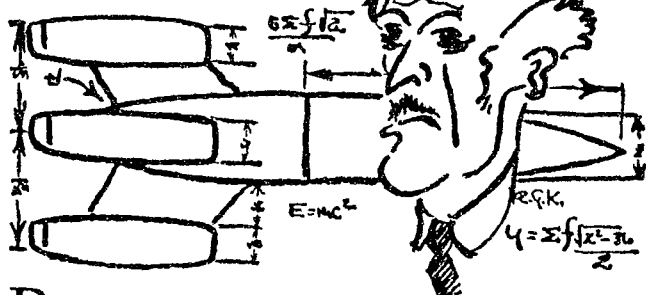

Kaufman Will Speak

Dr. Jacob J. Kaufman, associate professor in economics, will discuss "Current Issues in Labor-Management Relations" at 7:30 tonight in 111 Tyson at the meeting of the Plant Science Club.
