

Colender's 26 Leads Cagers To 81-72 Win Over Syracuse

By SANDY PADWE
Penn State's basketball team found some new fans Saturday night, and Lion basketball fans found a new team.

Playing what was probably their best game of the year the Lions put together a smooth working attack and went on to beat a strong Syracuse team, 81-72, before 3800 cheering fans at Recreation Hall.

The win was the Lions' third straight and their overall record is now 7-5. Their next game is a Wednesday afternoon affair at the Naval Academy.

SWEETLAND
Wally Colender, Bob Edwards

and Paul Sweetland led the Penn State scoring parade with Colender's 26 points topping the pack. Edwards was second with 20 and Sweetland followed with 17.

Mark DuMars and Tom Hancock contributed their share to the all-around team performance by respectively leading in assists and rebounds.

But it was the play of Colender which stood out against the Orange. The 6-2 junior had 8 field goal and 10 fouls with many of the field goals coming when Syracuse seemed to be narrowing the Lion margin.

It was Colender's highest production of the year, ranking him behind DuMars in the individual scoring race.

Colender also teamed with DuMars to put on a ballhandling exhibition which had the crowd roaring its approval. During the last few minutes of the game, these two put on a two-man "freeze" which finished the Orangemen.

Penn State Coach John Egli was very pleased with his team's performance but said they can do even better. "Colender looked sharp out there and so did Sweetland and Edwards."

Rope Trio, P-Bar Sweep Clinch Win Over Cadets

the year—and was topped by yearling Dick Seaward. The redheaded Cadet had a 264.

The second "break" for the Cadets came when Cunningham broke twice on his specialty—the side horse. The breaks knocked approximately 45 points off his 222 and two of the West Pointers topped him with simple routines.

Then the Captain (who someone humorously tabbed "Chico") went into action. After a brilliant routine climaxed by a daring double-sommy flyaway, the fans went wild. So did the judges with a 269 count.

But Cunningham, who was working his third straight event, turned on the form and the judges followed suit with a 90, 94 and 89 for a winning 273.

After the intermission, the rope climbers proved they were the best in the nation as all three broke the four second barrier. Vince Neuhauser, in his first performance of the year, tied the Penn State record with a 35. Cadet Bill Cohen tied him, but the Lion strength won out. Don Littlewood hit the pan in 37 and Jack Hiding tied for fourth at 39.

Then the p-bar trio sewed up the match by sweeping the event in a display that equalled the tremendous exhibition put on by the rope men. Vega hit for the high score of the afternoon with a near flawless 283 (that again had the 6200 screaming) and Werner and Savadove were right behind.

The Lions now face three away "formalities" before they can officially lay claim to their ninth Eastern gym crown. They travel to Navy, Syracuse and Pitt before returning home for a final exhibition with Michigan in March.

"Excuse me, honey. The lady wants a Camel."

Men go for girls who go for Camels. This cigarette outsells every other—every filter, every king-size, every regular—and has for 10 straight years. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness. The best tobacco makes the best smoke.

Push fads and fancy stuff aside . . .

Have a real cigarette—have a CAMEL
