

Three Powers Push For Cyprus Peace

LONDON (AP)—Britain, Greece and Turkey pushed toward a lasting peace in Cyprus with swift rounds of talks yesterday aimed at bringing independence to that troubled British colony.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd told the House of Commons that talks in London with Greek and Turkish foreign ministers on an agreement on Cyprus were going well.

Reliable informants predicted a three-power conference to put the final touches on the agreement would open in London Monday or Tuesday.

Greek Foreign Minister Evangelos Averoff and his Turkish counterpart, Fatin Rustu Zorlu, expressed optimism for winning British approval of the plan to make Cyprus an independent republic. The plan was approved at the Turkish-Greek conference of five days in Zurich, Switzerland.

Underworld Chiefs Sentence Cohort

WASHINGTON (AP)—Underworld chieftains, meeting in Apalachin, N.Y., commuted a gangland death sentence against another tough and fined him $10 thousand for stepping out of line, Senate investigators were told yesterday.

Lt. James S. Mooney of the New York City police criminal intelligence squad testified the action was taken against Carmine Lombardozi, described as having a record of 13 convictions.

Raging Wabash Nears Terre Haute

Surging floodwaters of the Wabash River bore down on West Terre Haute, Ind., yesterday and 100 National Guardsmen joined a sandbagging battle to reinforce a 300-foot break in the town's levee.

The floodwaters already have left 1500 Indiana families homeless. One death was reported.

Forecasts of more rains across the state through the rest of the week added new concern.
