

ACCMat Titlist Maryland Features Veteran Lineup

Maryland's perennial Atlantic Coast Conference championship wrestling team will feature a veteran-laden lineup when it invades Recreation Hall tomorrow night.

The Terrapins, who have never lost an ACC dual meet in the six years the league has been in existence, have six veteran starters in their lineup.

Heading the list of lettermen is Captain Nick Biondi, a two-time ACC individual titlist. Four other conference champs are also included—Dick VanAuken (130), Ray Haney (123, Don Santo (137) and Dick Dean (177).

Dean is the only undefeated man in this group with a 4-0 record, including wins over Navy's Doug Volgenau (6-5) and Pitt's Len Vuocolo (4-3), Biondi and VanAuken are 3-1, Haney is 1-2, and Santo, 2-2. Biondi's only defeat was at the hands of Pitt's unbeaten Bob Bubb, 3-1, and VanAuken's sole loss was to the Panthers' 123-pound national champ, Paul Powell, 8-3.

The other Maryland vet is 167-pound Dick Besnier, who is unbeaten with a 2-0-1 record. His tie was with Navy's Dick Royston, 5-5.

However, only Biondi, VanAuken, Besnier and Dean saw action in the 14-14 tie with Penn State last year. Biondi beat Guy Gucione, 4-1; VanAuken lost to erst-while captain Johnny Johnston, 8-6; Besnier was thrown by George Gray; and Dean decisioned Dan Gray, 4-0.

Leroy Kennedy (157) and Tom Tucker or Ed Nickla (heavy-

New Grid Loop Likely Says Pitt's Hamilton

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Athletic Director Tom Hamilton of the University of Pittsburgh says it is quite likely that a new national college football conference will be formed.

Among the teams reported interested are Pitt, Penn State, Army, Navy, Notre Dame, Syracuse, Southern California, UCLA, California, Washington, the Air Force Academy and possibly Stanford.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Joe Brown, a moving phantom with a thunderous right, knocked down Johnny Busso of New York in the ninth round, made his face a gory mask and went on to a 15-round unanimous decision to retain his world's lightweight championship Wednesday night.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fight promoter Bill Rosensohn came up with a new idea Wednesday regarding the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight.

Rosensohn said he is studying the possibility of staging the bout in Los Angeles' new sports arena to a limited crowd of 22,000 and, by closed circuit, televising it on three big screens in the adjacent Memorial Coliseum.

weight) fill out the rest of the rebels' lineup. Kennedy owns a 1-2-1 record and the other two have 0-1 marks.

Despite the presence of all the veterans, the Terps have been finding the road rough this year. They opened the season with a loss to powerhouse Pitt, 24-8; won their next two—against Navy, 19-10, and North Carolina State, 36-0; and dropped a 16-12 decision to VPI last Saturday night.

Mich. State Not Worried About Coaching Losses

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—There's no alarm at Michigan State, where defections to Colorado have left three gaping holes in Duffy Daugherty's football coaching staff.

"We're not panicky," said Athletic Director Biggie Munn. "We've had many applications and will have many more."

Beaver House's 4 Firsts Paces IM Swimming

Beaver House took four firsts to edge Theta Xi, 23-18, in intramural swimming last night.

Tom Creese paced the winners with firsts in the 60-yard free style and backstroke events. Finishing behind Creese's time of 32.3 in the free style was Hubert Swartzwelder of Theta Xi.

Beaver House swept the breaststroke with Creese winning in 47.5 and Bob Talbot second. In the 60-yard backstroke Fred Doyle took another first for Beaver House with a time of 52.2. Dave Stoner of Theta Xi was second.

Theta Xi took its only event by winning the 120-yard relay. Swartzwelder, Russel Lerch, Arthur Miltenberger and Bill Doak combined for the 1:06.1 time.

In the diving events, Melvin Sweeney of Beaver House took first with a total score of 15.8. Ralph Griner of Theta Xi was second with 11.2.

In another meet Sigma Chi overcame Phi Kappa, 25-12, with the winners taking three firsts. Walt Benecki took both firsts for Phi Kappa with 34.4 in the 60-yard free style and 50.7 in the backstroke.

Sigma Chi dominated the rest of the vents. Tom Barnes was first in the backstroke with 42.2 and Dave Kasperic took second, 4-0.

In the 120-yard relay Jack Delastatious, Norm Connors, Don Brubaker and Tom Barnes combined for the winning 1:04.4 time. Jim Short took the diving with an 18.4 total score.

Although each had two first place events, Alpha Chi Rho edged by Phi Mu Delta in their meet, 17-15. For the winners, Ron Bleiner took the backstroke with a time of 54.7 and Joe Guzzo, Bob Conser, Allan McFail and Bob Keper took the relay in 1:15.9.

For Phi Mu Delta, Stuart Berry was first in the free style with 39.2, and Bob Luff took diving with an 8.4 total score.

The case of the crumpled letter!

- 1 The desk where Mr. Nelson opened his bills and wrote a letter to the electric company, protesting against their advertising that electricity gives more value for every dollar than any other item in the family budget.
- 2 Where Mr. Nelson looked at the electric clock to see if he had time to mail his letter before dinner.
- 3 The hi-fi set he turned off as he left the room.
- 4 Where Mr. N. paused to check the furnace thermostat and turn on the porch light to guide the dinner guests.
- 5 His daughter's bedroom where he watched her drying her hair with the electric hair dryer and admired the dress she had just ironed for her date.
- 6 The TV, with Junior riding herd.
- 7 The electric coffeemaker and the toaster, ready to do dinner duty.
- 8 The all-electric kitchen, where dinner was cooking and Mrs. Nelson was taking ice cubes from the refrigerator—and where the electric dishwasher and clotheswasher and dryer were waiting to do the chores ahead.
- 9 The back porch, where Mr. N. paused to think—realizing that his family was putting electricity to work in dozens of ways all over the house... ways he often forgot. So maybe the electric company was right about the value of his service.
- 10 The trash can into which he tossed his crumpled letter.
