Barone's fall was the first Lion pin of the year and the first in 53 individual matches dating back to last winter's Maryland meet when George Gray pinned Dick Besnier. Gray had a tougher time with Besnier this year, but he still had enough savvy to gain a 4-0 decision.

Oberly, Barone and Guy Guccione—a surprise starter for the unbeaten (5-0) Dan Johnston at 137—were the most impressive of the Lion entries. Oberly and his rival especially pleased the crowd with their roughhouse tactics. It was Oberly's first win of the year after three losses.

Barone and Guccione were a determined and punishing pair as they tried to work their foes into pinning combinations. Barone succeeded but Guccione fell down in the third period and had to settle for an 8-1 decision over experienced Don Santo.

Barone was particularly rough with Matulonis. The State College junior, who has dropped only one match this year in six outings, gave his Terrapin opponent a real physical beating before bringing the crowd to its feet with that second period pin.

Guccione hadn't wrestled since he battled Lehigh's Leon Harbold to a 1-1 draw in early January. But he acted like a tiger Saturday. However, a good third period riding combination by Santo deprived Guccione of a fall.

AEPi, TKE, PKS Score Wins In Intramural Swimming Meets

By BILL BARBER Paced by the double victory of Pete Glick and Barry Spangerberg's winning efforts in the 60-yard freestyle and freestyle relay, Alpha Epsilon Pi swept to a 21-11 victory over Alpha Zeta in fraternity IM swimming.

Spangerberg cleaned up the 60-yard freestyle event with a time of :33.3—1.9 seconds off the record. Spangerberg then anchored the 120-yard freestyle relay team of Bob Cohen, Allen Cafritz and Howard Cohen to a first in that event with a 1:09.7 clocking.

Glick acquired his laurels by winning the 60-yard backstroke with a 1:23.6 time and snapping 15.4 points in diving.

Alpha Zeta logged second and third places in the 60-yard freestyle as Jim Holt took second place, trailed by Clarence Lane. Alpha Zeta repeated this effort in the 60-yard backstroke as Max Sponseller and Don Robinson took second and third places respectively. Bill Eberhardt grabbed a second place in the diving event with a 14.8 notch.

With the diving event proving to be the deciding factor in the meet, Lee Cunningham and Jack Javens came through in fine form as they took first and second places respectively in Phi Kappa Sigma's 25-16 victory over Alpha Chi Sigma.

Phi Kappa Sigma swept through the 60-yard freestyle with Jack Javens copping first place in 38.9 and John Studebaker second. Ken Thompson and Larry DiGiacinto grabbed first and third places respectively in the backstroke with the winning time posted at 1:12.5.

Then Alpha Chi Sigma came sweeping back with Carl Von Dreele taking a first in the breaststroke with a 44.5 timing, as Bill Hardham came in third. The freestyle relay team of Dave Weetman, Von Dreele, Don Horan, and Bill Hardham swam to a first place clocking of 1:09.5.

But Cunningham and Javens put the meet on the ice by chalking up first and second in the diving event.

Tau Kappa Epsilon grabbed an easy victory when Theta Kappa Phi forfeited their meet.

Roccatani Hits 215 Game As Navy ROTC Wins

In Independent League C bowling last night, Navy ROTC, with a 100-pin handicap, beat Thompson Six, 3-1. Navy had a 796 high game and a 2283 total pin-fall to take the honors for the night. Fernando Roccatani rolled a 215 game and a 472 series to take individual honors.

In other league action, Thompson Two tied Nittany 37, 2-2; Nittany 32 beat Horney Five, 4-0; Jordan Jokers swamped McKee Three, 4-0; Thompson One beat the Redskins, 4-0; and Simmons beat the Knights, 3-1.

NC Coagars Top Poll

Mississippi State handed Kentucky its second defeat of the basketball season last week but it was North Carolina and Auburn who reaped the benefits in the national rankings.

The 66-58 setback they took last Monday shook Kentucky's Wildcats loose from the hold they had taken on first place in The Associated Press weekly ranking poll back in mid-January.

North Carolina's Tar Heels moved up from second to first place and unbeaten Auburn, the only team to defeat Mississippi State this season, jumped from fourth to second. Kentucky landed in third place.

Mississippi State, which went on to trounce Florida 105-68 in its second game of the week, climbed from tenth to fifth in the ratings.

Only one of last week's top 10 teams retained the place it held in last week's ratings. That was eighth-place St. Louis.
