

'Amazing Mouse' Amuses Viewers

The amazing mouse who can do and does everything can be seen at 8:30 a.m. every Saturday over WFBG, Channel 10, Altoona.

Francois, the puppet mouse on "Key to the Cupboard," is a teacher of boxing, art and fencing.

He is active in the field of dramatics and is a member of the Penn State Players. He has had parts in "The Carnival of Thieves," "The Merchant of Venice," "Caine Mutiny Court Martial" and "Teahouse of the August Moon."

Francois speaks nine languages, including English. As an interesting sideline, he has had two one-man art shows, one in Altoona and one in New York.

The sparkling genius who is Francois is Joseph Servello, senior in art education from Altoona.

On the serious side is "Bull Session," 2 p.m. Sunday over WFBG, Channel 10, Altoona.

The topic for "Bull Session" this week will be "Crisis on the Farm." Associate professor of rural sociology Dr. Roy C. Buck will be the visiting teacher.

Student participants include: James Berry III, sophomore in agricultural economics and rural sociology from Oil City; Carol Forbes, senior in agricultural and biological chemistry from Rockwood; Phoebe Greenleaf, junior in agricultural economics and rural sociology from Alexandria, Va.; Judith Heisserman, freshman in animal husbandry from Princeton, N.J.; Edward Ker, senior in agricultural education from Danville; and Lawrence Stratton Jr., junior in dairy science from Smethport.

The discussion will cover farm living and the problems created by its big business aspects.

Phone Tolls --

(Continued from page one) system is established, free phones will be installed in the halls for on-campus use. However, no provisions have been made for free off-campus dialing.

The report suggested the telephone company increase the flat rate charged to the University to make up for the loss of revenue from the pay phones.

Students would not be so tempted to tamper with pay telephones in the residence halls if they did not have to pay to call downtown, the report said.

More lives were lost in the Civil War than in any other war in which the U.S. has been engaged.
