

COME TO CHURCH

BROTHERHOOD WEEK traditionally falls in the ten-day period between Lincoln's Birthday and Washington's Birthday, a highly appropriate designation in view of the fact that these two great American presidents epitomize ideals of freedom, equality, and dedication. No matter what our respective religious affiliations may be, we share inextricably in the common heritage of social justice and freedom inherited from the Bible; in the principle of ethical monotheism; and in the struggle for human enrichment and society's enhancement. Our religions, as distinct and unique as they may be, are in these ways different paths to the same goal.
