

Cagers Lose 90-73; Host Lehigh Tonight

By SANDY PADWE

After an unsuccessful attempt to gain their tenth win of the season at Syracuse Saturday night, the Nittany cagers will try again tonight when they host the Lehigh Engineers. Game time is set for 8 p.m. at Recreation Hall.

The Lions take a 9-7 log into the contest against Lehigh which stands at 5-13. The Engineers, however, have won their last three games.

Saturday night Syracuse avenged an earlier loss to the Lions as Ed Goldberg, Jon Cincebox and Pete Chudy ran roughshod over the Nittany defense.

These three tallied 60 points between them to lead the Orangemen to a 90-73 win.

"That was a much improved team from the one that came here a few weeks ago," said Lion Coach John Egli. "Jon Cincebox was really tough under those boards."

SWEETLAND

Earlier this season, the Nittanians took the Orangemen by an 81-72 count at Rec Hall as Wally Colender netted 28 points to lead the Lion attack.

Colender kept up his good work against Syracuse Saturday night as he hit his season's high with a 30-point output.

His 30-point splurge topped his Friday night total of 27 points against Colgate. In fact, Colender is currently the hottest man on the team, averaging 28 points per game in his last three outings.

The junior backcourtman has taken over the team scoring lead from Mark DuMars. DuMars had 20 against Syracuse but tallied only two against Colgate.

While Colender and DuMars were hot against the Orange, the rest of the team didn't lend any support.

Paul Sweetland, who was a big factor in the Lion win over the Orange on Feb. 7, had only three points Saturday.

This was partially due to the fact that he twisted his ankle early in the second half and had to miss a good bit of the half.

But the other frontcourtmen weren't hitting either. Tom Hancock only had one point and Bob Edwards had 11.

The Lions managed to stay within striking range throughout the first half, but in the second half Goldberg, Cincebox and Chudy hit from everywhere, giving the Orange a solid lead.

The Lions, behind DuMars and Colender, made a game try to catch the Orangemen, but they couldn't mount a strong attack.

Lions Break 3 Records, Tie Another---

By JOHN BLACK

Four Penn State runners broke or tied field house records at Ohio State Saturday, but Glenn Davis' unexpected entry in three events and an unanticipated low hurdle event enabled the Buckeyes to defeat the Lions, 65-49.

Ed Moran continued his habit of setting records at every school at which he has run this year, establishing new marks in both the mile and the 880-yard run. Moran's new marks for the OSU books were 4:11.2 and 1:54.2.

The Lions made a clean sweep of the mile run as Chick King flashed across second in 4:26.0 followed closely by Dennie Johnson.

Dick Engelbrink eclipsed the two-mile record for the Ohio State field house, breaking the tape at 9:18.9. Fred Kerr came in third for the Nittanians.

Bobby Brown tied Davis' 60-yard dash record when he broke out of the starting blocks late but surged past both Lee Williams and Davis, himself, to cross the finish in 6.2 seconds.

Davis, who injured his back in the Michigan Relays two weeks ago and then aggravated the injury in OSU's dual meet with Michigan State, refused to allow it to keep him out of the lineup.

The stalwart Buckeye star captured a first in the 440, a third in the 60-yard dash and anchored the Bucks' relay team to victory.

The 440 ended in a true photo-finish with Davis getting the nod in 50.6, the Bucks' Ted Storer second in 50.6 plus and Dick Hambricht third in 50.6 plus plus. Ohio State also picked up eight easy points in the 70-yard low hurdles—an event which was included contrary to precedence in Buckeye-Lion meets of the past.

"We never agreed to have it," said Coach Chick Werner of the Big Ten event which is never used in Eastern or IC4A competition. In the same manner, the javelin throw, an event not used in the Big Ten, has never been used in outdoor meets when the Buckeyes come to University Park.

But the low hurdles were used Saturday and it was costly for the Lions.

Mile Run—1. Moran (PS), 2. King (PS), 3. Johnston (PS), 4:11.2 (New Field House Record)

440—1. Davis (OS), 2. Storer (OS), 3. Hambricht (PS), 50.6
