

Cagers Face Tough Weekend Schedule

Having assured themselves of at least a .500 season the Nittany cagers are preparing for one of the toughest weekends of the year.

Coach John Egli's boys, who ran their record to 10-7 with an 88-52 win over Lehigh Tuesday, close out the home season Friday when they meet a fiery Carnegie Tech five.

Then Saturday night the Lions are at Pittsburgh for a rematch with the Panthers. The Lions beat the Panthers, 67-58, earlier in the year at Rec Hall.

But Saturday night will be Don Hennon night at the Pitt Field House and the Panthers and Hennon will be out for revenge against the Lions.

After the Pitt game the Lions end the season with a game against Bucknell at Lewisburg on March 7.

In Tuesday's affair the Lions played one of their best games of the year, according to Egli. "It's too bad that a bigger crowd wasn't on hand to see that performance," he said.

The crowd in attendance saw the Lions put on one of their top offensive shows of the year.

The Lions stunned Lehigh at the start of the game with a dazzling fast break that broke the game wide open before the Engineers knew what happened.

Strong outside shooting by Mark DuMars and Wally Colender, coupled with fine work under both boards by Bob Edwards and Tom Hancock, clinched things for the Lions.

Once again DuMars and Colender paced the scoring attack. DuMars had 21 and Colender had 12. Both are averaging 16 points per game.

Thinclads Seen As Contenders In IC4A Meet

Coach Chick Werner's indoor track squad is being hailed by sportswriters as one of the top contenders for the IC4A championships at Madison Square Garden in New York this Saturday. Yale, Maryland, Manhattan, NYU, Villanova and Army are expected to be the other top competitors in the 38th annual indoor championships of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes.

Fifty-seven of the 68 schools making up the oldest and largest conference in America will be represented by 688 athletes.

In addition to most of the eastern colleges, the conference includes Notre Dame, Marquette, Michigan State and California.

"I think it will narrow down to a fight between Maryland, Yale, Manhattan and Penn State," said Werner.

Master strategists Werner and Norm Gordon are rearranging their lineup in an effort to score as many team points as possible and may come up with some surprising individual and relay entries.

With tight competition expected, IC4A observers are predicting that 25 points should be sufficient for team victory.

Tomorrow: The Penn State entries by events.

Meet Illini in Ohio

Penn State's 1959 football game with Illinois will be played in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. The Nittany Lions will be the home team for the Oct. 24 battle.

In Tuesday night's action, Sigma Alpha Epsilon squeaked by Alpha Epsilon Pi, 21-20, with Dave Kelly's third place in diving deciding the meet. The winners took firsts in the backstroke and relay events, while the losers won the freestyle, breaststroke and diving.

In other meets, Phi Gamma Delta defeated Theta Delta Chi, 30.5-10.5. Joe Opperman, Dick Ludwig, Dave Beebe and Harold Heffner gave the winners four firsts. Sam Kartalis took the loser's only first with a 14.2 score in diving. Tau Kappa Epsilon topped Phi Kappa Sigma, 25-16, in the last meet although the losers had three firsts.

KolHaas, Hockenbrock Win in IM Handball

Three men took their second wins to advance in fraternity intramural handball Wednesday night.

Earl Kolhaas of Delta Tau Delta was involved in the closest match as he edged Lambda Chi Alpha's Chuck Kunkel, 21-18, 21-20. Jim Hockenbrock of Theta Delta Chi took an easy win from Alpha Chi Sigma's Carl Von Dreese, 21-2, 21-8, and Sigma Nu's Bill Fiedler, Lion soccer captain, won his second match beating Phi Gamma Delta's Tom Harmon, 21-1, 21-10.

Low Herman of Phi Sigma Delta, Don Hartnett of Tau Kappa Epsilon and Walt Scott of Acacia all came through with first round wins.

In the independent tourney, George Delp won the only close contest topping Al Whitehill, 20-21, 21-17, 21-7. Bob Biesterfeldt took an easy 21-0, 21-2 win from John Dively, and Howard Schummel took Paul Kurban by the identical scores of 21-6.

Three forfeits marred the rest of the schedule. Stew Barber and Earl Wolfe won on forfeits while Roy Shook and Bill Parker forfeited to each other to nullify their match.

Pi Kappa Phi Triumphs On Lynch's 211 Game

Pi Kappa Phi, led by Dave Lynch, beat Theta Chi, 3-1, in fraternity League A bowling Tuesday night.

Lynch rolled a 211 high game for a 554 series for the night. Pi Kappa Phi had an 826 team game and 2303 total pins to take team honors for the night.

In other League matches, Delta Tau Delta beat Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 3-1; Phi Delta Theta took second place, beating Phi Mu Delta, 4-0.

Theta Kappa Phi blanked Phi Epsilon Pi, 4-0; Alpha Epsilon Pi edged Alpha Rho Chi, 3-1; and league leading Phi Kappa was tied by Phi Kappa Psi, 2-2. Joe Yuska of Phi Kap had high series for the night with a 571.

WHO SAID IT FIRST?

A column of incidental intelligence
by Jockey brand

"GENTLEMAN AND SCHOLAR"

High praise, indeed, for any man! But did you know that the description comes from Robert Burns—who said it first about a dog? Here's the quote:
"His locked, lettered, brow
brass collar
Showed him the gentleman and scholar."
You'll find the couplet in Burns' "The Two Dogs."

"THE MORNING AFTER"
This horrible time was first immortalized by George Ade in "The Sultan of Sulu." Here's the way he put it:
"But, R-E-M-O-R-S-E-I
The water-wagon is the place for me;
It is no time for mirth and laughter,
The cold, gray dawn of the morning after!"

"MAN BITES DOG"

That's everybody's definition of news, and we're all indebted to John B. Bogart, city editor of the old New York Sun (1873-90) who first said:
"When a dog bites a man, that is not news, because it happens so often. But if a man bites a dog, that is news!"

Jockey Underwear

What's true about expressions is also true about styles. Somebody always got there first. Take Jockey brand underwear. Jockey brand is made only by Coopers. Coopers invented Jockey underwear—and no copy can compare with Jockey brand for quality, comfort and fit. For underwear that feels better because it fits better, insist on Jockey brand—the original comfort-tailored underwear. You'll find it at better stores everywhere. Recognize it by the Jockey trade mark.

"How can I be sure you've got some Camels?"

More buxom blondes with shipwrecked sailors insist on Camels than any other cigarette today. It stands to reason: the best tobacco makes the best smoke. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness. No wonder Camel is the No. 1 cigarette of all!
