

Frosh Cagers, Wrestlers at Rec Hall Tonight

By JOHN BLACK

With all the varsity teams scheduled to play away this weekend, the sports fans remaining on campus will be treated to an athletic double-header tonight staged by the freshman basketball and wrestling teams in Rec Hall.

The frosh wrestlers will open the program at 6:30 when they engage the Lock Haven STC jayvees. The basketball game will follow at approximately 8:15 as the Sweganmen tackle the Ogontz Center quintet. The events are free and open to anyone. No matriculation card will be needed.

Both freshman squads have turned in good showings this year. The cagers boast a 3-1 record, claiming two victories over Altoona Center and one over Bucknell, losing only to Navy. The grapplers dropped a 19-13 decision to Lehigh in their debut but came back to maul Cornell 28-3.

Donnie Watkins, intramural official and former Lion wrestler, will coach the frosh mat-men in the absence of Charlie Speidel.

Undeclared Jere Seiple and Art Ravitz will go in the 123 and 130-pound classes. Ray Connell and John Barone, each sporting one win and one loss, will wrestle at 137 and 147.

Ron Pifer will attempt to keep his string of falls going in the 157-pound division and Phil Myer will be looking for his second win at 177.

Newcomers Paul Stegner and Al Maillo will wrestle at 167 and heavyweight, respectively.

Cage coach Don Swegan, who says his team is "getting better all the time defensively and getting smarter on offense," will send his charges into their first and last home game of the semester.

Frank Shea, Joe Bradshaw, Marlin Biesecker, Charlie Fink and Jim Shamey will probably get the starting nod from Swegan. But several others will see action for Swegan plans to use a pressing defense the whole game, stressing the fast break.

The Nittany neophytes had great success with this defense in the second half against Altoona, outscoring their opponents by over 30 points in the last 20 minutes.

Jim Shamey earned his new berth on the starting five by outstanding play in intra-squad scrimmages this week.

Ogontz Center has compiled a mediocre record this season but has the edge in experience, having played more than twice as many games as the Lion Cubs.

Lions to Run in IC4A; Moran to Enter 1000

Twenty Penn State tracksters compete against entries from 57 other colleges in Madison Square Garden this afternoon as Coach Chick Werner's crew guns for its first IC4A team title since 1942.

The Lion boardmen have come close many times in recent years, and the experts are predicting that this may be the year they go all the way.

Senior star Ed Moran will lead a potent squad that includes standouts Dick Engelbrink, Fred Kerr, Bob Brown, John Fareira, Dick Gross, Ron Beard and Dale Peters in individual events.

Speedsters Charlie King, George Jones, Bill Schwab, Don Davies, Dick Hambright, Bob Szyller and Jim O'Connor will compose the Nittanies' powerful relay teams.

Coach Norm Gordon will enter a freshman medley relay team of Tony Wayne, Pat Cunningham, Mike Miller and Steve Moorhead.

Coach Werner, intent on compiling as many team points as possible, made a strategic move by entering Moran in the 1000-yard run and leaving Fred Kerr to contend with opposition in the mile.

"It is possible for Moran to double in the mile and relay," said Werner, "but we seem to think for points for team score he will have more left by doubling in the 1000 and two-mile relay."

George Jones ... in 2-mile relay

Moran holds several IC4A second place medals and will be taking his last shot at the winner's laurels. He will find stiff competition in Bill Hanne of Army, Ed Slowick of Yale, George Katterman of Penn, and Ed McAllister of Manhattan.

Kerr will be running in a field laden with such standouts as Peter Close of St. Johns, whose best time is 4:07, and Army's 4:14 miler Dick Healy.

If Gregory from Notre Dame, who has run a 4:10 mile and a 9:12 two-mile, runs the longer distance, he will be Engelbrink's biggest hurdle for the two-mile crown. Army's Dick Greene, Holy Cross' Dick Donohue and Manhattan's Gene Martin, who finished second in the event last year, are included in the field.

Although competing in a stellar field, Bob Brown is being counted on for points in the 60-yard dash.

John Fareira will face tough opposition as the Blue and White's only entry in the high jump and 60-yard high hurdles.

Gross, Peters and Beard carry the Nittany hopes in the pole vault in a field where no entrant has exceeded 13'6".

Hambright, Davies, O'Connor and Szyller will not enter any individual events and will be fresh when the Wernermen make their bid in the mile relay.

King, Schwab, Jones and Moran compose a two-mile relay quartet, that is rated better than 7.50.

DU, Phi Kappa Psi Win in IM Swimming

Delta Upsilon managed to hold on to its bid for a second consecutive IM swimming championship by edging out a strong Alpha Sigma Phi team 21-20, at Glennland Pool yesterday.

With Alpha Sig leading by one point, Jim Fenstermacher and Dick Hammond turned the tide for DU by placing one-two in diving. Alpha Sig then rallied to score the only shutout of the meet as Jack Buckley, Al Caffrey, Steve Smack, and Gleason Cliff swept the 120-yard relay in 1:05.5, only to lose by one point.

DU took the 60-yard backstroke behind Ralph Kemmerer and Tom Edwards in 42.7. Alpha Sig won the 60-yard free style as Buckley and Caffrey placed one-two.

Phi Kappa Psi, winning every event except the 120-yard relay, turned back Delta Sigma Phi, 25-16. The 60-yard free style went to Bob MacDonnell of Phi Kap in 35.2. Joe Marchand and Dave Martinez copped the 60-yard backstroke for Phi Kap in 46.6, paced by Frank Varvoutis, Guy Tucci, Jim Eastmen, and Ron Kolb, Delta Sig swept the relay in 1:07.4. The 60-yard breaststroke was taken by Bob Passmore of Phi Kap in 43.9. Tim Booker placed first for Phi Kap in diving.

In independent meets, the Doubtful Dolphins squeezed out a 21-20 win over Guppies. John Johnson and Gary Patterson of the Doubtful Dolphins scored eight points in the diving event.

The Bird Dogs, scoring sweeps in the 120-yard relay and in diving, trounced Nittany 36, 19-9.

Thunderbirds Cop League 'A' Cage Crown

With a 31-24 victory logged over the Meteorites, the Thunderbirds wrapped up league "A" in the independent loop as they finished the season with an unscathed 8-0 record.

Bob Mugford greatly aided the Thunderbirds in their successful bid for a finals playoff berth by pushing in 13 counters.

The Masters clinched the number one spot in league "I" as they clipped off a 26-17 win over the Hi-Fliers. Charles Sieminski placed high for the Masters with 11 tallies.

The Watts Wildcats managed to pull down second place in league "I" as they whipped the McKee Warriors, 30-24.

In other independent games the McKee Marlins downed McKee One, 32-19; the Mon-Youghs stopped the Watts Warriors, 32-20; and the Chuckles overcame Nittany Co-op, 32-26.

Theta Kappa Phi held determinedly on to second place in fraternity league "A" as it handed Pi Lambda Phi a 21-6 defeat.

Cagers Beat Tech--

Besides netting 12 points, Hancock pulled down 21 rebounds for his highest total this year. The 6-5 senior leads the team in rebounding with an average of 10 per game.

Tonight's Pitt-Penn State game will be the second meeting between the two teams. The Lions copped a 67-58 win at Rec Hall earlier in the season.

The game looms as a battle between All-American Don Hennon, who is being given a special night, and Penn State's DuMars.

DuMars "held" Hennon to 17 points in the previous game. That was 10 below Hennon's average. Being that it is Hennon night in Pittsburgh, the 5-8 sharpshooter will go all out to please his followers.

This will be Hennon's last game in a Pitt uniform. He bows out holding almost every Pitt scoring record in the school's history.

Following the Pitt game, the Lions will end the campaign one week from today when they meet Bucknell at Lewisburg.
