

DU Upset in IM Swimming

Phi Psi Tops Champs

By BRUCE HENDERSON
Phi Kappa Psi knocked off defending champion Delta Upsilon in intramural swimming last night by a narrow 21-20 margin.
With DU leading, 20-16, going into the final 120-yard relay event, the winner's team of Tom Pauley, Jack Barbieri, Allan Zimmerman and Bob MacDonnell came through to capture the meet and a semi-final position in Flight I with a 1:03 time.
The winners also had firsts in the other three speed events. MacDonnell won the free style in 35.0, trailed by the loser's Tom Edwards. Joe Marchand's 41.8 was enough to take the backstroke as Ralph Kemmerer picked up another second for DU. Bob Passmore splashed in with 45.3 to win the breaststroke with second place again going to Dick Hammond of DU. DU picked up its only first as it swept the diving event. Dave Dulaney's 20.4 score took first place honors followed by Jim Fenstermacher's 17.2.

Delta Tau Delta moved into the semi-finals against Phi Psi, edging Beaver House, 23-18.
The winners took firsts in all but the relay event. Del Kreiser led things off with his 36.8 time in the free style. Peter Fred of Beaver House followed him. George Campbell paced a sweep of the backstroke as he came in with 44.3, trailed by Bob Pulver.
Pulver came right back with a victory in the breaststroke in 41.8, with the loser's Tom Creese finishing second. Charles Abbey topped the diving scores with his 13.8, just above Mel Sweeney's 12.6 for Beaver House.

The quartet of Jim Craig, Roger Lloyd, Creese and Fred took the only first for the losers with a 1:05.4 time.
In independent action, the Barracudas rallied in the relay to get by Navy, 22-18.
With the score 18-17 going into the relay, the Barracudas John Hoffman, Don Rhodes, Ted Laubach and Dick Splenda combined with a 1:04.1 score to take the meet. Splenda turned in another first with a 33.6 time in the free style followed by Navy's John Bertram. John Skapik took the winner's other first with 53.6 in the breaststroke as the loser's Jim Abbey grabbed another second.
Bob Neely gave Navy a first as he took the backstroke with 46.1 with Bill Barber picking up a second for the Barracudas. Abbey edged the winner's Laubach in diving, 10.0-9.8.

Lion IC4A Chances Rest With Committee

Penn State's chances for its first IC4A indoor track and field team championship since 1942 now rest with the conference Executive Committee which will be called into session probably next week.

Athletic Director Ernest B. McCoy took the official step and filed a written protest to Asa Bushnell, IC4-A secretary, who will summon the other committee members to hash over what has turned out to be the most controversial incident of the indoor track season.

"We don't like to do it, but it was a matter of injustice to our kids," said McCoy after returning from New York late Tuesday night.

MCCOY

Penn State took action only on the hurdle incident and did not file any protest on the two-mile relay where a Manhattan runner crossed the Nittany lane and collided with Ed Moran, causing the Lion star to lose several yards. Interference could have been called and Manhattan could have been disqualified from the relay, in which it finished second and picked up four points.

"This was a matter of judgment," said McCoy, "and while we may have seen it different, nothing was called, so we accepted it."

The hurdles issue, conversely, was not a question of an officials' judgment but an action which is contrary to the established NCAA and IC4-A rules, explained McCoy.

Bushnell's committee will now have to decide whether the decision reversal in the 60-yard hurdle order of finish will be allowed to stand or whether the results as originally announced will regain precedence.

In view of the fact that the rules state that the judge's original decision shall be final and without appeal, it becomes almost a test of constitutionality of the rules.

Nine men compose the IC4-A Executive Committee. They are Ralo Furey, Columbia; Robert J. Kane, Cornell; Edward Styrna, Maine; Richard L. Balch, MIT; Clarence "Biggie" Munn, Michigan State; Victor Obeck, NYU; Thomas J. Hamilton, Pitt; George A. Bertelsman, St. Joseph's, and Francis X. Reagan, Villanova.

Ex-Cleveland Star Lemon Retires

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Bob Lemon retired as a pitcher yesterday and became a scout-coach for the Cleveland Indians.
Arm trouble last year sent the big right-hander to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League and then temporarily out of baseball.
Lemon, 38, hoped to make a comeback this spring. He came to the Cleveland camp on his own.
Yesterday he said the spirit was willing but the flesh was weak.
Lemon won 20 or more games in seven seasons.

DTD's Pulver Nips Baldock

Delta Tau Delta remained undefeated in intramural handball as Bob Pulver gave it its fourth victory Tuesday night. He had to rally in the third game to beat Kappa Delta Rho's Charles Baldock, 21-19, 13-21, 21-6.
Ted Lopushinky advanced with his second win as he took Ted Steinman of Zeta Beta Tau, 21-11, 21-20. Lambda Chi Alpha's Mel Gemmill picked up his first victory as he defeated Phi Kappa's Al Terchick, 21-10, 18-21, 21-6.
Dick Barth of Theta Xi took his second win 21-9, 21-10, over Theta Kappa Phi's Ron Pezzoni. Pi Kappa Phi's Read Roberts rallied from a first game setback to beat Theta Xi's Ed Zimmerman, 18-21, 21-0, 21-15. John Krall of Phi Mu Delta easily whipped Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Jim Desmond, 21-0, 21-2.
In independent action, Jim Bush took his second win in League C as he rallied to beat Bruce Blanning, 5-21, 21-9, 21-11. Steve Calbotta defeated Ed McDeavitt, 21-4, 21-17.
League D had only forfeits to show for the night's schedule. Bill Parker grabbed the first from Stew Barber and Roy Soost and Roy Shook turned in a double forfeit to nullify their match
