

Maryland Boasts Walker Cup Ace

By DICK GOLDBERG

There is nothing like opening a season against the best. Penn State will be doing this when the golfers open against the University of Maryland at College Park tomorrow.

And the Terrapins have one of the nation's leading amateurs in the person of Dale Beamon. Beamon has been selected to play on the U.S. Walker Cup team which will face the top English amateurs this summer. However, Beamon has been invited to play in the Masters Tournament held in Augusta, Ga. this weekend. If he decides to attend he will miss the Lion match.

Should Beamon play, Lion mentor Joe Boyle will have an effective antidote in Bill Davidson. Davidson, who is Eastern golf champ, is also one of the best collegiate players in the nation.

Although Boyle is unsure of his strategy, he does have an ace or two in the hole. These are Scott Stulz and Roy Altman. Stulz was undefeated last year in mach play and Altman dropped one and that was a close match in the Pitt meet.

Rounding out the lineup will be Dick Burgoon who is highly rated by Coach Boyle, John Morton and Haydn Thomas. Boyle will also have Ed Kormos and Bob Rutherford available should he decide to change his lineup.

One disadvantage that the Lions will be up against is that Maryland uses a different scoring system than is recognized in EIGA play. The Eastern Golf Association uses regular match play in which players compete with each other on the basis of the best score for each hole. Maryland uses a combined Nassau system and best ball play.

Despite this, the Lion golfers have an excellent chance to continue their 11 match winning streak.

Leonard Fires 69 for Lead In Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Stan Leonard, six times pro champion of Canada, took the first-round lead in the Masters Golf Tournament yesterday with a 3-under-par 69.

Some players were still on the course, but with scant chance of overtaking him.

Leonard, 44, grabbed a 2-stroke edge over defending champion Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa.

The pre-tournament favorites were all over par.

Sam Snead shot a 74 and was tied with some dozen others, including former champion Cary Middlecoff.

PiKPhi, SAE, Cop Wins In IM V-Ball Tourney

Volleyball held the spotlight at Recreation Hall Wednesday night as Intramural competition got underway after a week's lay-off.

In league B, Pi Kappa Phi dropped its first game to Theta Delta Chi, 15-10, but then came on strong in the last two games to win, 15-4, 15-4.

Alpha Epsilon Pi and Omega Psi Phi both of league B turned in identical wins of 15-5, 15-13 over Sigma Tau Gamma and Alpha Rho Chi, respectively.

Switching to league A results, ATO had to go the distance before beating Phi Sigma Delta, 15-9, 12-15, 15-9.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon came from behind and beat Beaver House, 9-15, 15-11, 15-8, and Sigma Chi and Theta Kappa Phi were involved in a double forfeit.

In other results Theta Chi of league F beat Pi Kappa Alpha, 15-8, 15-4; Delta Chi topped Lambda Chi Alpha in a league G game, 15-12, 15-1; and in league H Delta Upsilon stopped Tau Kappa Epsilon, 15-11, 15-2.

Alpha Sigma Phi and Tau Phi Delta took wins over Zeta Beta Tau and Phi Sigma Kappa by forfeit.
