

Phi Beta Kappa President-- To Give Books

The University chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honor society, has undertaken the project of presenting books to the Pattee Library.

The books to be chosen will be useful to scholars working in the various liberal areas which Phi Beta Kappa seeks to encourage. They will also be volumes that the library finds difficult to purchase with its present budget.

The society has worked out a plan under which the library will propose items that would be especially appropriate for a Phi Beta Kappa gift. The chapter would then make a decision on these proposals. The gifts will be marked with a suitable bookplate.

Dr. Frank J. Sorauf, assistant professor of political science, and Dr. L. Aileen Hostinsky, associate professor of mathematics, made up the committee that devised the plan.

Milstein Misses Train But Will Arrive in Time

Students who didn't get tickets for the concert by Nathan Milstein needn't feel ashamed at missing the boat—the violinist missed his train.

A University car was sent to the Pennsylvania Railroad Station in Lewistown for the violinist yesterday afternoon. The train came—and left—without leaving Milstein. However, the violinist was scheduled to arrive later yesterday or this morning.

He is scheduled to perform at 8:30 in Schwab Auditorium. No tickets remain for the concert, 14th in the current Artists' Series.

(Continued from page four)

mouth, half the room is cleared.

Reporters race to nearby phones, knocking over other reporters, microphones, and the messengers who are trying to fight their way into the room to pick up exposed films of the conference.

This racing to the phones can get mighty dangerous. UPI's Merriam Smith can vouch for that. He was running out of the room with a story one day, tripped over a television table, and ended up in the hospital with a broken leg.

In less than five minutes, the wire services and radio networks have informed the nation of what went on in the little room in the old State and War Building.

And what happens to the President during the rush? He laughs, turns, and casually walks out the same door he came in, followed by Haggerty and the other two assistants.

Religious Course To Be Conducted

"Exploring Religious Ideas," a non-credit study discussion course which will soon be presented in Altoona and Harrisburg, will begin locally at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel.

The course will be held for a 10-week period. All those who wish to enroll should apply in 208 General Extension. There will be a limit of 20 to be enrolled.

Conducting the course on campus will be Dr. Luther H. Harshbarger, University chaplain; Dr. John A. Mourant, professor of philosophy; Rabbi Benjamin Kahn, director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation; and Dr. Ralph W. Condee, professor of English literature.

Baseball has become as popular in South Africa as British cricket and soccer.

1859 Students Attempted To Steal Chem Exams

Students never change. A hundred years ago some students attempted to steal chemistry exams from Dr. William Frear who was then living on the third floor of Old Main.

The intrepid students went up to the building's fifth floor and lowered a colleague down to Frear's window attempting to get into his room. The plot failed.

oooooooooooooooooooooooooooo

Butlers Jewelry

DIAMONDS • WATCHES

Watch and Jewelry Repairing
111 E. Beaver Ave.

oooooooooooooooooooooooooooo

"I see your husband's after her Camels again!"

More red-blooded skiers chase after Camels than any other cigarette today. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easygoing mildness. The best tobacco makes the best smoke.

Leave fads and fancy stuff to beginners . . .

Have a real cigarette—have a CAMEL

B. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.,
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Collegian Credit Staff Important Meeting TONIGHT 7 p.m. Bring Ball Point Pens 215 Willard

*The Senior Class invites you to hear
Buddy Rich and his Orchestra*

at the semi-formal

SENIOR BALL

Friday evening, May first

from nine to one o'clock

at Recreation Hall.

$5.00 per couple

Buddy Rich and his Orchestra

Friday, May 1 Rec Hall

