

Nittany Trackmen Excel at Quantico

By JOHN BLACK

Penn State's Blue and White trackmen returned from Quantico, Va., laden with 29 medals and four plaques as rewards for their stellar performance in the annual Quantico Relays last Friday and Saturday.

During two days plagued by rain, the Nittany trackmen won or placed in every relay event, every invitational event and in four of eight individual events.

Coach Chick Werner's baton passers won three relays—the 2-mile, the 4-mile and the distance medley. The time of 9:53.8 for the latter event set a new school record as well as a new Quantico mark and was less than three seconds off the American record. The Lions copped two third-place medals in the 440 and sprint medley relays, and came in fifth in the 880 relay.

Two senior track stars, Ed Moran and Fred Kerr, garnered individual crowns in invitational races.

Moran beat St. John's IC4-A mile kingpin, Peter Close, in a "slow" 4:21.2 mile through the rain and mud. Neither runner wanted to set the pace so both hung behind John Kopil of the Quantico Marines.

Finally, in the third lap, Close took the lead, and Moran moved up and dogged him to the home stretch. The Nittany captain clipped off a 57.5 final quarter and passed Close on the last straightaway.

On Friday, Kerr circled the Butler Stadium track for 32 minutes 29.2 seconds to earn a blue ribbon in the 10,000-meter run in a surprise win over veteran amateur Browning Ross.

Bobby Brown finished third in the featured 100-yard dash finals as Ira Murchinson, running for the Chicago Track and Field Club, broke the tape in 9.8 seconds. Frank Budd, Villanova freshman, finished second.

Winston-Salem was the only team of the 37 participating college and service clubs that approached the Lions' performance. A swift quartet of sprinters annexed the 440 and 880 relays plus the 480-yard shuttle hurdle relay for the North Carolinians.

Penn State also scored in the field events, picking up a fourth place in the collegiate shot put when John Tullar heaved the iron ball 48' 8". Penn's Carl Shine won with a 52' 4 1/2" flip.

Jim Schwab gave the Lions a third place among the collegians in the javelin throw with a toss of 185' 11".

The 2-mile relay was a touch-and-go battle between Michigan, Georgetown, Duke, Manhattan (Continued on page seven)

Lion Nine Will Host Bucknell

After being rained out of two games over the weekend, Penn State's baseball team will try to get back into action this afternoon when it entertains Bucknell at 3:30 on Beaver Field.

Thus far the Lions are 1-0 while the Bisons are 1-1. Penn State's only win is over Gettysburg while Bucknell has topped Susquehanna and lost to Navy.

Lion coach Joe Bedenk has nominated Ron Riese as his starting pitcher for today's game. The pint-sized righthander started the opener against Gettysburg last week, but was shelled after 2 1/2 innings.

Riese's ineffectiveness worried the Lion coaches last week, and they are hoping that he can regain the winning form that he had in '58.

Bedenk also stated that his lineup would remain the same except for a change behind the plate and a possible change in rightfield.

The Lion Coach plans to start John Adams at catcher in place of Harry Beans, and he will also insert Doug Caldwell into rightfield if a right-handed pitcher is on the mound.

The starting infield will be Larry Beighey at first base, Larry Fegley at second, captain Bob Hoover at shortstop and Mike Hader at third.

Dick Landis will be the left-field starter and Ron Rinker will get the nod in center. If Caldwell doesn't play, then it will be Zeke DeLong in right field.

The Bisons have a strong team according to reports, and are paced by Ellis Harley, a shortstop. Harley has been offered major league bonuses already, but has refused to sign.

Pirates Obtain Giel

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates obtained right-handed pitcher Paul Giel from the San Francisco Giants on waivers yesterday.

At the same time, the Pirates optioned pitcher Curt Raydon to their Columbus farm club in the International League subject to 24-hour recall.

Lion Netmen to Play Juniata After Losing 1st to Cornell

After bowing to Cornell, 8-1, in the season's opener, the Penn State tennis team hopes to get back in the win column at Huntington today when it faces Juniata.

Cornell, loaded with veterans, returned recently from a Southern tour in which they chalked up an impressive 4-0 record downing teams such as William and Mary and North Carolina.

Sophomores John Blaneck and Don McCartney teamed up to score the only Lion victory when they defeated the Big Red's Dick Ball and Tom Demtrak, 6-3, 8-10, 6-2 in a doubles match.

In the battle of the number one men, Cornell's Kay Champion beat Lion Captain Chuck Bibleheimer by winning the first two sets.

In today's match against Juniata, the singles lineup will be the same as Saturday's except for the last two positions.

It will be Captain Bibleheimer, Dick Ludwig, Jerry Carp and (Continued on page eight)

Penn Tops Lion Golfers; Norbury Edges Davidson

By DICK GOLDBERG

The Pennsylvania Quakers, led by the excellent match play of Don Norbury, downed the Nittany Lion golfers, 5-2.

Norbury, co-captain of the Quakers, took Nittany captain Bill Davidson by a 1-up score. Norbury shot a two-under-par 67 on Lion course, sinking birdies on the 1st, 2nd, 17th and 18th. Davidson shot a 68.

The first and 17th were the holes that made the difference in the match. On the opening hole, Norbury sank a 40 foot putt to take a birdie. Davidson two-putted for a par.

On the 17th green, with Davidson down one, the Lion Captain had a three-foot putt for a birdie. Norbury had a 25-footer which was downhill and had to go over a hump. Norbury lined his shot up and sank the putt. Davidson also sank his. However, after this hole, Davidson had lost his best chance to win after a tough comeback.

The only two Lion winners were Scott Stultz and Roy Altman. Stultz beat Penn's Chris Kling, 4-and-3. This was the 12th straight match he has won as a Nittany linksman. The other winner, Roy Altman, had a little tougher time beating his opponent, Jim Graybill, 2-and-1.

SUMMARY

Don Norbury (P) beat Bill Davidson, 1-up; Bob Roy (P) beat Dick Burgoon, 1-and-2; Roy Altman (PS) beat Jim Graybill, 2-and-1; Scott Stultz (PS) beat Chris Kling, 4-and-3; Joe Calihan (P) beat John Morton, 3-and-2; Bob Goldsamt (P) beat Hayden Thomas, 5-and-4; Murray Killeman (P) beat Don Bernhart, 4-and-3.
