

—Collegian Photo by Charles Jacques

DON'T PUSH . . . Tom Ogden, line defenseman, charges in for a loose ball in the Lacrosse game with Penn. The Lions won 9-4 yesterday on Beaver Field.

Stickmen Down Penn, 9-4, But Still Lack Polish

By BILL BARBER

The Penn State lacrosse team yesterday regained some of the prestige that it lost Saturday when it downed a hapless Penn team, 9-4.

But Coach Ernie Baer still expressed disappointment over his team's showing.

"We didn't look as bad out there yesterday as we did Saturday, but we still are lacking many of the fundamentals. Many of our shots were wild and our play was erratic," Baer disclosed.

"However, this was the first time we had played against a zone defense this year and that could be one of the reasons for the poor brand of play," added Baer.

"If we don't improve tremendously in the next few days the remainder of the season could be ruinous. Plays were made sloppily and our defense wasn't nearly as effective as it was earlier in the season," said Coach Baer.

The Lion stickmen's playmaking ability was cut considerably without the aid of its versatile midfielder, Bob Swanson. Swanson should return for the game with Hobart on Saturday, but his services may be limited.

Andy Mocoyni was also missing from the starting lineup as he was laid up in the hospital with a charleyhorse injury. It is indefinite whether he will be able to play this Saturday.

Jim Kane, who replaced Bill McDonough on the starting attack squad, also did an admirable job as he figured in five scoring plays with three goals and two assists. John Behne tied with Kane for scoring honors by chalking up three goals and two assists.

Behne opened the scoring column for the Lions with only two minutes gone in the first period. He scored on a low ground shot charley horse injury. It is indefinite whether he will be able to play this Saturday.

Kane followed suit a minute later with a shot that just snagged the upper right corner of the goal. Behne collected the assist.

Penn broke into the scoring ranks 15 seconds later with a slow shot by Pete Carey that dribbled through the Lion goaltender's legs. Chip Henderson finished out the Lions' first period scoring efforts with a hard, driving shot that caught the corner of the cage. Kane tallied the assist.

The Quakers only threatened once as they came within one goal of the Lions with two-thirds of the second period gone. John Glading pitched a low blazing shot past the Lion goal to narrow the Baermen's lead to 3-2.

But a minute later, with the Nittanies one man up on the Quakers, Behne rebounded on his own shot off the Penn goal and chucked it into the nets for the score.

With two minutes to go in the half, Kane snagged a direct pass from Ray Tuleya and flipped it in for the score. Henderson and Behne combined early in the third period to chalk

(Continued on page seven)

Boyle Sets Lineup For Mountie Tilt

Lion golf coach Joe Boyle will field basically the same team that faced the Penn Quakers last Saturday when the Nittanies meet the Mountaineers of West Virginia Friday and Georgetown Saturday.

Boyle will go with Bill Davidson, EIGA champion and Lion captain, in the number one slot. Last Saturday, Davidson lost to Penn's Don Norbury one up. Although Davidson has lost two matches, Boyle feels that he has the capacity to catch fire for the rest of the season.

Second man on the Nittany team will be Dick Burgoon. Burgoon has also dropped his opening matches, but Boyle feels that he has not realized his full potential as a varsity linksman.

Third and fourth positions will be held by Roy Altman and Scott Stultz. Altman has a 1-1 record this year, losing a tough match to his Maryland opponent and winning an equally tough one against Jim Graybill of Penn.

Stultz has won 12 straight matches as a Lion linksman. Last week, he took Chris Kling of Penn, 4-and-3.

"The next three places on the team are undecided," said Boyle. He plans to play John Morton and Haydn Thomas, starters last week, against Ed Kormos and Bob Rutherford in an elimination match. Morton and Thomas lost their matches in the Penn meet. Kormos has seen varsity action, losing to Maryland's John Owne, 4-and-3. Boyle said that he would use his judgment in choosing a seventh man.

Lions Engage Navy In First Dual Meet

After turning in an outstanding showing at the Quantico Relays, the Nittany Lion track team will lift the lid on the dual meet season Saturday when they travel to Annapolis to challenge the Navy Midshipmen.

Penn State gave fair warning to all its scheduled opponents of the fleet crew it will place on the track this year by running off with three relay and two individual blue ribbons at the annual spring track carnival sponsored by the Virginia Marine base.

Navy opened its dual meet schedule last Saturday by whipping Pitt 71 1/6 to 59 5/6 in a pouring rainstorm at Annapolis. The blue-coated boys from the banks of the Severn compiled most of their points in the field events and the hurdles to outscore the visiting Panthers.

The Middies captured firsts in every field event plus a majority of the seconds and thirds, including a clean sweep in the pole vault. Pitt won most of the sprints and middle distance races, but Navy's two-miler turned in a 9:46.6 clocking to win the longest run.

Lion mentor Chick Werner will counter with a field aggregation of shot and discus men John Tullar and Andy Nyce, javelin throwers Jim Schwab and Jon Musser, high jumpers John Ferreira and Mel Ramey and pole vaulters Dick Gross, Dale Peters and Ron Beard. Several of these men will compete in more than one event.

The Navy thinclads will face a formidable array of Lion speedsters in the running events. Bobby Brown, Blaine O'Connor, and George Metzgar will run the 100-yard dash and the 220 sprint.

Dick Hambright, Don Davies, and Bill Schwab are slated to go in the 440, while Chick King, (Continued on page seven)

MAJOR LEAGUES

AMERICAN LEAGUE
	W.	L.	Pct.	G.B.
Cleveland	4	0	1.000	—
New York	2	0	1.000	1
Chicago	4	1	.800	1 1/2
Boston	2	1	.667	1 1/2
Washington	1	2	.333	2 1/2
Kansas City	1	3	.250	3
Baltimore	0	2	.000	3
Detroit	0	5	.000	4 1/2

NEW YORK (AP) — Probable pitchers for today's major league games:

AMERICAN LEAGUE
 Kansas City at Chicago—Garver (0-1) vs. Wynn (1-0).
 New York at Baltimore—Ditmar (0-0) vs. Hamberger (0-0).
 Washington at Boston—Ramos (1-0) vs. Moford (0-0).
 Only games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
 Philadelphia at Milwaukee—Roberts (1-0) vs. Burdette (1-0).
 Chicago at San Francisco—Anderson (1-0) vs. Jones (1-0).
 St. Louis at Los Angeles N—Broglie (0-1) vs. Koufax (0-0).
 Only games scheduled.

Switch from Hots to Snow Fresh Filter KOOL

KOOL KROSSWORD No. 23

- ACROSS
- Blow taken by scapegoats
 - Goes AWOL
 - Enraptured
 - Combo
 - Khan and others
 - She's a mixed-up dean
 - Isn't it time you — a Kool?
 - For the discriminating beer drinker
 - An almost famous fellow
 - The time there will be in the old town tonight
 - Mysterious non-Ava Gardner
 - Hand a line
 - Performed an elbow operation
 - New Haven-ite
 - Kind word for a prof
 - Break to follow up with a Kool
 - In — by oneself
 - Irish expletive (var.)
 - Which was to be demonstrated (L. abbr.)
 - Little Edith
 - How Miami got started
 - 2 doz. sheets of paper
 - French one (fam.)
 - Famous novel about Willie's kinfolk
 - Take it off
 - Que — vous?
 - Your one and only. Easy now!
 - Vegetable that sounds like an oompah-maker
- DOWN
- Cuba has a new
 - Author of 39 Across
 - Small units of whiskey (abbr.)
 - It has a tip, but no filter
 - Your no-degree days
 - What icy fingers make you do
 - Put on an act
 - The green stuff
 - Wonder drug
 - She's companion
 - Small town
 - Roman official who's mostly idle (var.)
 - What you must never say
 - California university
 - You may be here now
 - It's no Occident
 - This should make things even
 - Alone, no place to go
 - Why can't you behave?
 - Plant 'em now, dig 'em later
 - One German
 - Square at some colleges
 - He just wanted postage
 - Portuguese India
 - Kind of Arts (abbr.)

FOR GIRLS TOO!
PEASANT LINEN BERMUDA SHORTS

They're expensive but wonderful. Tailored exactly like our best grade man's walk short. Exclusive with Jack Harper. $13.50

Jack Harper
 Custom Shop for Men
 W. College Ave. State College

Around the corner from Bostonian Ltd.

SWITCH FROM HOTS TO Snow Fresh FILTER KOOL

As cool and clean as a breath of fresh air.
 Finest leaf tobacco...mild refreshing menthol—and the world's most thoroughly tested filter!
 With every puff your mouth feels clean, your throat refreshed!

America's Most Refreshing Cigarette

ALSO REGULAR SIZE KOOL WITHOUT FILTER!
 © 1959, Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp.