

Today's Forecast:
Cloudy
and Cool

The Daily Collegian

Vote
'Yes'
See Page 4

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 59, No. 125

STATE COLLEGE PA., TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 21, 1959

FIVE CENTS

2.1 House Average Will Be Required By New IFC Ruling

The Interfraternity Council last night approved a motion by a 26-21 vote which will require houses with an average of 2.1 or less to appear before the IFC Board of Control for disciplinary action. The rule will go into effect next fall.

In other action last night the IFC also approved the

Patrolman Hurt When Hit by Car

Campus patrolman Thomas S. Kirshner was seriously injured Sunday night when he was struck, while directing traffic on Shortlidge Road, by a car driven by Robert Vierck Jr., freshman in electrical engineering from State College.

Lucien E. Bolduc, campus patrol chief, said Kirshner was one of a detail of six or seven patrolmen directing traffic at the entrance of the Hetzel Union parking lot on Shortlidge Road when the mishap occurred.

Bolduc said the Vierck car was leaving the lot at about 10 p.m. when Vierck became momentarily distracted and the car struck Kirshner. He said the car was traveling at about 10 miles an hour at the time.

Kirshner was taken to the Ritenour Health Center suffering from a cut over the right eyebrow and injuries to his left wrist and right hip, including a possible fractured pelvis. Dr. Herbert R. Glenn, University physician, said Kirshner's condition was "very good" although his injuries may confine him to the hospital for a month.

Bolduc said that Kirshner was dressed in a yellow raincoat and a reflector belt and was using a red-domed flashlight when the incident occurred. He said this was the most serious mishap affecting a campus patrolman since he has been here.

The incident occurred after Elwood F. Olver, director of the Department of Security, issued a warning Saturday to pedestrians crossing Shortlidge Road between deferred rushing report presented by Ronald Resh and accepted one change in the program which he suggested. In order more quickly to provide individual rushing chairman with lists of men with averages, the IFC will ask all freshmen interested in rushing fraternities to register.

(Continued on page three)

The average requirement was presented by Edward Hintz, retiring IFC president. Hintz said the new 2.1 requirement is a step towards "a more positive IFC scholarship program."

Hintz added that the requirement would have affected only three houses had it been in effect this semester. The University Senate now requires a 2.0 house average for fraternities.

An attempt was made to table the motion, but this was voted down.

No methods of implementation of the rule were suggested by Hintz in his motion. He said that this would be left up to the Board of Control.

Hintz said that his motion was initiated by both the retiring IFC executive committee and the one installed last night. He emphasized that it was not the result of any pressure from the University administration.

Resh's report on the newly-instituted deferred rushing was based on 35 replies to a questionnaire prepared by the IFC rushing committee. Resh said that 13 fraternities were for the deferred rushing program as it stands now. All but two of the others replying said the program would work with some changes.

Some fraternities, Resh said, prefer to rush only men who already have averages. The purpose would be to enable these fraternities to do so, he said.

Resh added that he was not in favor of compelling fraternities to rush only those men with averages.

The new IFC officers were installed at the meeting.

Election, SGA Vote Will Begin Today

Candidates Air Views

By NEAL FRIEDMAN

Both candidates for the Student Government Association presidency agreed Sunday that political parties should not have "dictatorial control" over the way their delegates to the proposed assembly vote.

In a Daily Collegian press conference, Leonard Julius, Campus party candidate, and University party candidate Arthur Miltenberger also agreed that there should be an obligation on the part of the delegates to vote for legislation concerning the party platforms on which they were elected.

For two men who are supposed to be running against each other, Julius and Miltenberger showed a surprising amount of agreement.

Both of them were also opposed to listing the party affiliation of assembly delegates in newspaper reports of assembly sessions. However, Arthur Schneider, University party candidate for junior class president, said he thought listing party affiliations would be a good idea because it would "put parties in the limelight" and generate student interest in politics.

Theodore Haller, Campus party candidate for senior class president, said he would be opposed to listing party affiliations because campus political parties are not like national parties, even though the proposed reorganization of student government would make it closer to the national setup.

Haller said that national parties have evolved policies over a period of years and they do not change. He said that Campus and University parties have yet to do this.

In a discussion of the senior class gift which has been given

(Continued on page five)

Prexy to Attend Gov. Lawrence's Tax Session

President Eric A. Walker will represent the University at a conference Wednesday in Harrisburg called by Gov. David L. Lawrence to help push his tax program through the legislature.

Lawrence has invited 69 leaders representing many phases of Pennsylvania's economy to the conference, when he will renew his efforts to push for passage of his tax program. The new sales tax enacted last Wednesday will provide only $163 of the $400 million in new funds the administration says it needs to balance the $1.9 billion budget.

Separate bills to apply the three-and-one-half per cent sales tax to alcoholic drinks and automobile trade-ins are hanging in House committees. Lawrence said in a press conference last week that the groups who expect major shares of the budget money must be willing to push for the enactment of the tax bills.

Lobbyists seeking increased state grants for public welfare and education, representatives of health and civic associations, labor leaders, agricultural spokesmen and the presidents of state-aided colleges, universities and the

(Continued on page three)

The Nominees

CAMPUS PARTY	UNIVERSITY PARTY
Leonard Julius, SGA President	Arthur Miltenberger, SGA Vice President
Larry Byers, SGA Sec.-Treas.	Carl Smith, Sr. Class President
Sherry Parkin, Theodore Haller, Sr. Class President	Nancy Clark, Samuel Minor, Senior Assembly
Henry Faller, Carol Ploach, Bruce Brennerman, Janet Moore, Ellen Luckie, Peter Luckie, Jr. Class President	Sherry Kennel, Walter Davis, Lelia Ubler, Mary Ganter, Charles Whiteman, Howard Byers, Arthur Schneider, Junior Assembly
Jack Crosby, Milie Moyer, Robert Toczak, Jean De Meyer, Walter Darten, Katherine Regal, David Reese, Mary Ann Ellis	Barbara Bragdon, David Kiser, Mary Hill, Timothy Nelligan, Thomas Hamer, Karyl duChenek, John Witmer

'Boom' Publicizes Pauling's Speech

A tabloid-size pamphlet of cartoons entitled "Boom" has been placed at spots on campus in order to publicize the talk by Dr. Linus Pauling scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

The cartoons, by Jules Pfeiffer, artist of the "Sick, Sick, Sick" book, make up a satire on the testing and use of nuclear weapons.

The pamphlets were placed in the residence hall lounges and at the Hetzel Union desk and are free for the taking.

The testing and use of nuclear weapons are a common subject of Pauling's speeches throughout the country. He is a well-known advocate of ending atomic bomb tests.

Tapping Cards Available

The deadline for filing applications for men's hat societies has been extended until 5 p.m. Wednesday.

Tapping cards are available in the dean of men's office and students must state a society preference.

Polling Set At 6 Places

Students will stamp approval or disapproval on the Student Government Association plan as well as electing SGA officers, class presidents and assembly members in the 3-day voting period beginning today.

Junior and senior class presidents and sophomore, junior and senior assembly members will be chosen.

Polls will be open each day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Hetzel Union Building, Sparks Building, Boucke Building, Home Economics Building, Sackett Building and Forestry Building.

If students vote "no" on the SGA plan, the only way it can be passed is by three-quarter approval of Cabinet.

In the race for SGA president are Arthur Miltenberger, University party, and Leonard Julius, Campus party; Carl Smith, University party, and Larry Byers, Campus party, are running for vice president. Candidates for secretary-treasurer are Nancy Clark, University party, and Sherry Parkin, Campus party.

Samuel Minor, University party, will oppose Theodore Haller, Campus party, for senior class president. Arthur Schneider, University party, and Jack Crosby, Campus party, will run for junior class president.

The elections rally, which was originally scheduled for last night and postponed because of rain, will be held from 6:30 to 9:30 tonight.

The rally will begin with a motorcade through town, leaving Parking Lot 50 behind the Jordan fertility plots at 6:30. The parade will reach campus about 7:15 p.m.

Jesse Arnelle, 1954-55 All-University president, and the two candidates for SGA president will speak at 7:45 p.m. on the HUB steps. A dance in the HUB ballroom will follow the speeches.

The rally is sponsored by the All-University Cabinet Public

(Continued on page five)

CAMPUS PARTY CANDIDATES—Standing, (l-r), Jack Crosby, junior class president; Larry Byers, Student Government Association vice president; Sherry Parkin, SGA secretary-treasurer. Seated, Leonard Julius, SGA president and Theodore Haller, senior class president.

UNIVERSITY PARTY CANDIDATES—Standing, (l-r), Nancy Clark, Student Government Association secretary-treasurer; Carl Smith, SGA vice president; Arthur Schneider, junior class president. Seated, Samuel Minor, senior class president and Arthur Miltenberger, SGA president.

—Collegian Photo by Marty Scherr