

Stickmen Rally to Defeat Unbeaten Cornell, 10-6

With its back to the wall and the scoreboard showing a 4-1 deficit, the Nittany Lion lacrosse team put on a brilliant rally when it pulled a 10-6 victory out of the fire against Cornell at Ithaca.

The Lions' victory snapped Cornell's undefeated skein at four as the Baermen won their fourth of the season against one loss.

"This was by far the best game they have played all season," exclaimed Coach Earnie Baer as he spoke of the team's come-from-behind win.

"The team was really on the ball today and clicking as never before. Cornell played a good game but they just couldn't stop our second half rally," Baer added.

The Lion stickmen completely dominated Cornell in the second half as they poured eight goals in the Big Red nets before Cornell could finally muster a score in the last minute of the game.

Bob Swanson's return proved to be a boom to the Lion offense as he clicked for two goals and an assist. Chip Henderson, who had been out since the Penn game, also had a score.

Prospects for winning seemed distant when Cornell opened the scoring column in the first 20 seconds as Dick Gann charged downfield unopposed to tally for the Big Red.

Cornell had jumped to a 2-0 lead before Jim Winpenny came to the Lions aid by firing one through on an assist from John Behne.

The Big Red further strengthened its lead early in the second period when it slammed two quick scores through the Lion goal to run up a 4-1 lead.

Behne scored his initial goal of the game late in the first half, blasting one through unassisted to bring the Lions within two.

Dick Bullock cut the lead still further when he picked off a pass from Swanson and fired it in for the score.

Cornell made one last attempt to keep its lead intact when Jim Taylor shot one past the Lion goalie.

The second half was all Penn State as the Lion stickmen relentlessly poured in goal after goal. The Lion offensive contingent tallied five quick goals within five minutes to roar into the lead. Behne started the scoring binge for the Nittanians with an unassisted goal in the last minute of the third quarter. Swanson followed suit 20 seconds later on an assist from Bullock. Bullock scored his second of the day a minute later as he chucked one past the Cornell goaltender unassisted.

By now the Lions had jumped to a one goal lead and continued to pad their winning bid as Winpenny, Henderson, Swanson and Behne all scored in the final period.

David Wilkinson continued to improve at the nets as he successfully stopped 20 shots. Wilkinson held Cornell to a slim two goals in the second half.

A noteworthy feature of the game was the lack of penalties. Each team held its misdemeanors to three.

The Lions' scoring percentage also got an added boost as the Baermen connected on 10 out of 31 shots for a 32 per cent average.

Cornell, however, was less fortunate as it only managed to hit on 6 of 51 shots for a 12 per cent average.

Indian's Bell Halts Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — The rampaging Cleveland Indians tied together Gary Bell's tight pitching and plenty of long-ball power for a 10-1 trouncing of the Detroit Tigers yesterday.

Jim Piersall drove across 4 runs with a home run and a single, Rocky Colavito batted in 3 more with a homer and rookie Gene Leek added a 2-run round-tripper as the first-place Indians stunned the Tigers with their eighth loss in 9 games.

Leek, a 21-year-old bonus infielder just off the University of Arizona campus, also beat out an infield hit in his first major league game.

He struck out 6 and the Cleveland infield supported him with 3 double plays.

Fourth Inning Rally Gives Sox 8-4 Win

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox exploded for five runs in the fourth inning yesterday and went on to beat the Baltimore Orioles 8-4.

Arnold Portocarrero, first of 5 Baltimore pitchers, was the subject of the Red Sox uprising and took the loss. Boston's big inning was fashioned on 4 singles, 4 walks and a Baltimore error.

Murray Wall, who came on in relief of Tom Brewer when Baltimore rallied in the fifth, got credit for the victory. He allowed only one hit in his 4 1-3-inning stint, an infield single by Gene Woodling in the ninth.

Top Track Stars To Meet at Relays

By JOHN BLACK

When the Nittany Lion spikers enter the Penn Relays this weekend they will probably find the best collection of athletes they will face in any one meet this year.

A list of the top-seeded contenders would include such ominous track names as Abilene Christian, Winston-Salem, Villanova, Morgan State, Southern Methodist, Michigan, Manhattan, Pitt and Florida State.

The former three will be defending championships won last year in the Penn festival.

Lion Coach Chuck Werner made one major change in his Penn Relay lineup last night. He replaced Herm Weber with Fred Kerr on his first-seeded 4-mile relay team.

Weber ran a good leg on the winning Lion 4-mile crew at the Quantico Relays.

and grabbed a third place just a step behind Ed Moran and Dick Engelbrink in the Navy meet. But Kerr, an outstanding distance runner and a former Lion captain, earned the berth on the crack Nittany 4-mile quartet in time trials this week.

The Nittany tracksters will be underdogs in the shorter relays. Abilene Christian, anchored by Bobby Morrow's understudy, Bill Woodhouse, is favored to retain its title in the quarter-mile and half-mile relays.

Woodhouse has not only filled the shoes of Olympian Morrow, but has exhibited capabilities of stretching them to his own size. In a triangular meet in Abilene, Texas, last week, the bespectacled speed demon flashed through the 100-yard dash in the phenomenal time of 9.1 seconds. Later he returned to the track to rip off a 19.9 clocking for the 220.

Both these times bettered the existing world records but will not be accepted because of a slight wind advantage.

Winston-Salem Teachers should give ACC its toughest competition in the 440 and 880 relays. The North Carolina Tree-toppers imitated Penn State's feat at the Quantico Relays by winning three relay events. They won blue ribbons in the 440 and 880-yard baton drills and the shuttle hurdles race.

The Tree-toppers are not expected to meet a serious threat in their quest for the Penn Relays shuttle hurdle crown and, in fact, have the potential to break the American collegiate record in the event.

Coach Jim Elliott's Villanova Wildcats will attempt to hang on to their mile relay trophy. Veterans Ed Collymore and Charley Stead will return from the team that has held the title for the last two years.

The top challengers in the mile will be Morgan State, anchored by Nick Ellis, and Manhattan, paced by Kye Courtney. Mel Barnwell will lead Pitt's IC4-A indoor championship four and John Emmett will run the final leg on a well-balanced SMU squad. Michigan will enter a strong team featuring sophomores Dick Cephas and Tom Robinson.

Gross Wins Crown In IM Badminton

By CRAIG YERKES

If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again. This is probably the favorite quotation of Bob Gross of Phi Epsilon Pi after stopping two-time champion Sammy Phaungphakdi of Pi Lambda Phi in the intramural badminton final last night, 8-15, 15-8, 15-4.

Last year Gross was defeated by Phaungphakdi in the final, 15-1, 15-2. This was Sammy's second consecutive title. In last night's set, it was a different story. Gross, a sophomore, defeated the ex-champ and gained revenge for the humiliating defeat that he absorbed last year.

In all of his other games in the tourney, Phaungphakdi was never seriously pressed. He usually limited his opponents to one or two points and won with ease. Gross, on the other hand, had to fight hard for his wins along the way. In some of his matches he had to play three games.

In the final, Phaungphakdi seemed to be out of shape and tired in the second and third games. Gross took advantage of this fact and pressed the action in the third and deciding game. In the first two games, Gross played a cautious, deliberate game. Last year, he was wild and erratic, but this year he matched Phaungphakdi shot for shot. "I played his type of game," said Gross. "When he played in the forecourt, I played along with him. When he moved into the backcourt, I played that type of a game also."
