

Kohlhaas, Berfield Sidelined by Injuries

If Rip Engle's footballers bang opponents around next fall the way they're slamming each other now, they should make out all right.

Right now six gridders, including five lettermen, are nursing injuries received during spring drills.

Center Wayne Berfield and guard Bud Kohlhaas have been hit hardest. Berfield broke his arm last night in practice and Kohlhaas cracked an ankle bone last Saturday.

Two halfbacks—Jim Kerr and Dick Hoak—are also on the doctor's list even though they worked out last night. Kerr is nursing an ankle injury and Hoak is recovering from a painful sprained jaw.

Sam Stellatela, another lineman, resumed practice last night, after being sidelined with a chipped ankle bone and Bill Peters a freshman quarterback is taking light workouts because of a bad knee.

Engle is hoping that most of the injuries will be cleared up by May 2 when the Lions play the first of two Blue-White games.

The reason for two games this year is that three early practices were rained out and Engle decided to extend drills an extra week in order to get in the allotted 20 days practice.

The second game will be played May 9 and that will wind up spring drills. "Now we can give the losing team from the week before a chance to get back at the winners," said Engle with a smile.

Engle also said that he has been pleased with the progress of his team this spring. "The boys have shown a lot of hustle and desire out there this spring," he said, "and I hope it carries over to the fall."

Backfield coach Joe Paterno also was pleased with the progress made so far. "The backfield has been looking good, but we're still looking for that break away runner," he said.

"As far as quarterback goes,

Bud Kohlhaas . . . injured gridder

Richie Lucas is doing a great job and this freshman boy Galen Hall also has been looking good," Paterno said. "We're still going to move Dick Hoak to quarterback, though, to give him some experience just in case we need him in an emergency."

Hoak was an all-WPIAL quarterback in high school, but was switched to halfback last fall.

While serving in the Army from 1950 until 1953, Earnie Baer, Penn State's lacrosse coach, was athletic director for the 28th Infantry Division in Germany.

Delta Chi, ATO Gain Victories In IM Bowling

Second place Delta Chi managed to gain on league leader ATO for the first time this season as they rolled to a 4-0 triumph over Delta Theta Sigma in fraternity League B bowling Wednesday.

ATO defeated Alpha Phi Delta, 3-1, but lost a point nevertheless. Their record now stands at 35-1, with Delta Chi a distant second at 27-9.

In other League B action Tau Phi Delta shut out Lambda Chi Alpha, 4-0; AGR defeated Theta Delta Chi, 3-1; and Kappa Sigma and Phi Kappa Sigma drew at 2-2.

Steve Zivkovich of Phi Kappa Sigma was the only man to roll both a high game and series. His 198 gave him a 486.

An oddity occurred as Theta Delta Chi had both the high game and series of the night, but lost to AGR, 3-1. Jay Waterman had the high series with a 506.

Playoff Perennials

Last year marked the fourth straight season, and the seventh time in 10 years, that Penn State's baseball team qualified for an Eastern post-season playoff berth.

A column of incidental intelligence

"LOVE IS BLIND"

Next to the Bible, Shakespeare is the richest source of common quotes. He's responsible for this one, too. See his "Merchant of Venice," Act II, Scene 6:
"But love is blind, and lovers cannot see
The petty follies that themselves commit."

"THIRTY DAYS HATH SEPTEMBER," ETC.

No need to recite further from this bit of doggerel which has served us all as a pony ever since grade school. For this universal handy reference we are indebted to a man named Richard Grafton who was nice enough to compose the rhyme way back in 1570.

"PUT IT IN YOUR PIPE"

No, Sir Walter Raleigh didn't originate this smoker's challenge. It was R. H. Barham, in "The Lay of St. Odille":
"For this you've my word,
and I never yet broke it,
So put that in your pipe,
My Lord Otto, and smoke it."
