

Lion Thinclads Break Four-Mile Relay Mark

The Lions' re-channeled aspirations in the sprint medley were nullified when leadoff man Ham-bright tripped and fell while moving through the pack on the first turn.

The best performance for Penn State was turned in by the 4-mile relay quartet. Fred Kerr, King, Engelbrink and Moran smashed the Penn Relays record formerly held by St. John's when they negotiated the distance in 17:11.3.

The Nittany foursome shaved almost four full seconds off the mark established just last spring by Peter Close and his Redmen warriors.

Kerr ran a 4.25.2 opening leg for the Lions and passed the baton to King just one yard behind Duke's Tom Bazemore. King shot to the front and ran four laps in 4:16.3, giving the Lions a lead they never lost.

Engelbrink ripped off the best mile time of 4:12.8 and stretched a three yard advantage into a 35-yard gap. Moran romped home in 4:17 flat to break the tape for the Lion record.

The Nittany sprint relay squad of Bob Szeyller, Blaine O'Connor, Dave Truitt and Bob Brown finished fourth in both the 440 and 880 relay championships. The baton carriers were clocked in 41.8 seconds for the 440 as anchor man Brown pulled them from sixth to fourth on the final leg. Their time for the 880 was 1:28.3.

In the individual events Jim Schwab won a gold medal for his 201' 8" javelin toss while teammate Jon Musser copped a third with a 200' 10" heave just one-half inch shorter than the second-place mark. Andy Nyce salvaged a fourth with 200' 8 1/2" in the tight competition.

John Tuller placed fifth in the shot put with a 49' 6" heave.

16 Horses Ready For Derby Trials

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Derby Trial Stakes, always an important elimination race leading up to the Kentucky Derby, was split in two divisions for today's 22nd running after the names of 16 horses were dropped into the entry box.

The management of Churchill Downs, where the $125,000-added Derby will be contested Saturday, decided on the split of eight in each section for the first time in the Trial Stakes' history. The Far West's Finnegan is the standout in the first division, while the East's First Landing is favored in the second.

With several of the top contenders in the one mile trial, the division was decided upon to alleviate any possible heavy traffic congestion and a chance that some valuable horseflesh might get hurt. Each division will have $15,000 added money.

The fact that 16 owners are still hopeful for the Derby Trial, and eight or nine more are still counted as possible starters in Saturday's mile and one quarter run for the roses, indicates that confusion is rampant.

Simmons Leads In IM Bowling

Finishing its 10th week of competition in Independent League C, Simmons won four points on Nittany 37's forfeit to gain leadership over now second place McKee III. McKee III assisted Simmons' climb to first place by losing to undermanned Thompson I, 3-1. Gerry Graff, Eric Linger and Ed Knappenberger carried the load for Thompson I.

Other action in Independent League C saw the Redskins, led by Mike Tamarkin's 525, and Barry Stuck's 450, shut out Nittany 32. 4-0. Thompson II defeated Thompson VI which was led by Dave Baker and Regis Gates.

The Knights had a day off from competition yesterday as they picked up four points when the Hornet Five failed to show up for the match.

Hoyas Smash Lion Netters, 7-2

Georgetown's powerful tennis team handed the Penn State netters their third setback of the season, smashing the Lions, 7-2, Saturday afternoon on the Nittanies' courts. The Hoyas, playing their 12th match of the season, lost only one singles and one doubles match.

Heading the singles matches was a tilt between Chuck Bibleheimer and Georgetown's Dick Razzetti. Bibleheimer dropped the match to the Georgetown star, 6-1, 6-3.

Number six man, John Krall, scored the lone singles win for the Lions while John Blanck and Don McCartney chalked up the only win in the doubles column.

Dick Ludwig, the Lion's number two man, dropped his match to the Hoyas' Pete King, 6-2, 6-1. The Nittanies' Jerry Carp, after splitting sets with Bob Menda, 6-4, 1-6, found himself crossed up at the net too many times by his backhanding opponent and lost the deciding third set, 7-5.

The Hoyas' Bill Short proved to be too much of an opponent for Gary Moore who played a steady but losing game in two hard fought sets. He lost 6-4, 7-5.

In the number five match, Don Harnett bowed to Georgetown's Fred Cone, 6-2, 6-0. One of the Nittanies' point winners, Krall, defeated Ed Shapiro, 7-5, 6-4 in their tilt.

In the doubles lists Bibleheimer and Carp lost to Ron Connolly and Walt Beveridge of Georgetown, 6-3, 6-4. In the number two doubles slot, Ludwig and Moore lost to King and Short by the identical score in both sets, 6-1, 6-1.

The doubles point makers for the Lions were Blanck and McCartney who overcame their opponents, 6-3, 6-4.

SENIOR WHO WANT'S TO MAKE $30,000 A YEAR BEFORE HE'S 30

What he wears, when and where he wears it will be important to achieving his goal. His clothes should be from a store which is familiar with the young executive kind of clothing. We say that store is Jack Harper. This season from $39.95.
