

Bucknell Swamp Lion Netters, 7-2

By LARRY ROTH

Penn State's varsity tennis squad dropped its fourth straight match yesterday to an improved Bucknell team, 7-2, on the Beaver Field courts.

The loss, the Lions fifth in six outings, was nearly a complete reversal of last year's fray in which the Blue and White posted an 8-1 victory. But the Bison's sophomore student lineup of a year ago returned as juniors to avenge its loss.

Led by Bill Sweet, the Bison's captured five out of six singles matches and two out of the three doubles matches.

The only bright spot for the Lions in yesterday's contest was Junior Gerry Carp, who downed Bucknell's Bob Goecker in straight sets by identical 6-2 scores. The transfer student from Buffalo, playing his first year on the varsity, also played very well in the doubles, but he and Chuck Bibleheimer lost to Sweet and Tom Cowan in three sets, 6-3, 4-8, 7-5.

Penn State's tennis mentor, Sherm Fogg, tabbed Carp as "cool-headed" and "a real comer."

The Lion netmen's only other point came in another doubles contest, as Don McCartney and John Blanck teamed to defeat Bison sophomores Jim Hand and Ricky Glantz, 1-6, 9-7, 6-3.

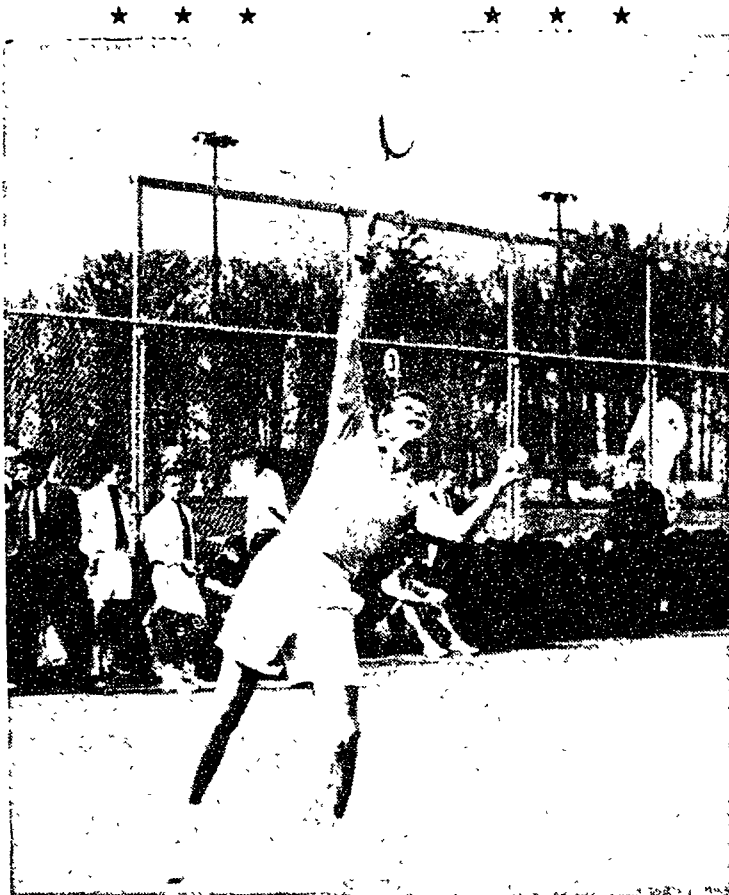

Sweet, for the second consecutive year, defeated the Lions' number one netter. This year, it was Bibleheimer who was outplayed by the Denver Colorado star.

Number three man, Gary Moore, was upended by Cowan, 6-2, 6-3; and McCartney, playing in the number four position, lost to Henry Livas, 6-1, 6-4.

Blanck and John Krall both forced their opponent to three sets before bowing. Blanck was defeated by Frank Weigand, 8-6, 0-6, 6-3, and Krall was beaten by Jim Hand, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5.

All three doubles matches went three sets also, but McCartney and Blanck were the only ones to capture the all-important third set and gain a victory.

Moore and Dick Ludwig dropped their match, losing to Goecker and Weigand, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Looking back over the team's performance this season, Fogg accounted for its poor record by saying that they are a "green bunch." He also added that yesterday's defeat would not be the last this season.

However, Fogg thinks that next year's squad will be much improved due to more experience and the possible addition of a freshman or two.

The latter statement was prompted by the impressive showing the Lion freshmen made yesterday in trouncing the Bison cubs, 9-0.

Posting triumphs for the freshmen were Jim Baker, Hal Zook, Charles Stull, Bob Buchenauer, John Coldren, and Bruce Derman.

Winning combinations in doubles play, were Coldren and Bruce Rambo, Stull and John Dodds, and Buchenauer and Derman.

Lions LaX in 1913

The game of lacrosse was first played at Penn State in the spring of 1913. Penn was defeated 4 to 3.

In 1931 State won four games and lost only two. Defeats were at the hands of Army and Maryland.

Lion Golfers Play Engineers Today On Bethlehem Links

The Nittany Lion linksmen will try to even up their season's record at .500 when they face the Engineers of Lehigh at Bethlehem today.

According to golf coach Joe Boyle, the Engineers won't field an experienced team against the Lions. He also said that he did not know of any top-rating Lehigh performers returning from last year's team.

The Engineers have not had a very successful season this year and now stand at 0-4. They dropped a tilt to the highly rated Penn crew by a 6-1 score and they have also lost to George Washington, St. Josephs and Villanova.

In the six previous meetings between the Lions and Lehigh the Nittanians have yet to lose a match. Last year the Penn State golfers handed Lehigh a 7-0 defeat, and two years ago the Linksmen won a 11½-6½ victory playing match and Nassau System. This year's contest will be played under match rules.

Looking at the comparative records, one might think that the linksmen will have an easy time. However, Coach Boyle has a number of questions which he thinks will affect the Lions' chances in the match.

The number one question in Boyle's mind is whether number two man, Dick Burgoon, can play up to the potential that he has shown the Lion mentor in pre-season practice.

Burgoon has won only one previous match in the five link outings. This win was in the Georgetown match which the Nittanians took by a 7-0 score.

According to Boyle, Burgoon has been far from impressive in the other four matches he played. Last Saturday, against Syracuse, Burgoon lost a 22 hole match to Mike Dritz. With five holes left, he was 3 up. However, he lost his lead and Dritz tied the match on the 17th.

On the first extra hole, he had to sink a 1¼-foot putt to clinch the match but he missed and Dritz won.

Boyle still plans to use Burgoon in the second slot, hoping that he will start to play the game like he really can.

The rest of the lineup for the match will be basically the same as was used in the Syracuse test. Bill Davidson will go as number one man followed by Burgoon.

Third and fourth will be Scott Stultz and Roy Altman. Playing the next two slots will be Haydn Thomas and John Morton.

The only position that may be changed will be number seven. Boyle held a playoff last night between Bob Rutherford, who dropped a 6 and 5 decision in the Syracuse match, and Ed Kormos. The man who wins the playoff will go in the match today.

Tigers Finally Win; Yanks Beat Chisox

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers finally broke their second six-game losing streak of the young season yesterday, beating the Baltimore Orioles in a contest stopped four times by rain and finally after five complete innings. The score was 7-1.

Rookie Larry Osborne and Al Kaline cracked first-inning home runs off Arnold Portocarrero and Harvey Kuenn drove in a pair of runs with a triple and a double.

Osborne's home run was his first in the big leagues and got Detroit rolling to its second victory against 12 defeats.

Frank Lary was the winner, although he gave up seven hits and hit a batter. Osborne, who replaced the slumping Gail Harris at first base, helped Lary by starting a pair of double plays.

CHICAGO (AP)—Home runs by Mickey Mantle, Hank Bauer and Moose Skowron yesterday propelled the New York Yankees out of a four-game losing slump with a 5-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Mantle slammed his No. 3 homer into the lower right field stands in the first inning after Norm Sieburn had doubled ahead of him.

Bauer blasted his third of the season into the lower left field seats with the bases empty in the fifth. Skowron's fifth of the campaign, also with bases vacant, rocketed into the upper right field stands.

Backed up by this home run power, Bob Turley went the distance to boost his record to 2-2.

*The Day Junior Went Away...
Or Why Mother joined the Mah-Jong Group*

Who will ever forget that time? The whole town turned out . . . well, maybe not the whole town . . . to see little Bobby Collegebound off to the University. There he was in his hand-stained bucks . . . pleatless khakis . . . and his varsity sweater. (Badminton 1, 2, 3, 4.) Sonja . . . ah, Sonja, his homeroom sweetheart, sobbed quietly. Sonja had heard stories about the co-eds. She was worried.

As the Toonerville local pulled in, another small cry was heard. It was Bobby's mother. Who will look after him? Who will warm his milk and care for his shirts? Then came the unforgettable reply. Bobby, head high, shoulders back, answered . . . "I will! I will wash my shirts." Ah, smart boy. He'll make the grade. Gone was the callow adolescence . . . for Bobby Collegebound had bought Van Heusen "Vantage" Shirts with his allowance. No longer need he be tied to Mother's apron.

His all cotton Van Heusen "Vantage" Shirts need not be ironed. Bobby Collegebound could wash his Van Heusen "Vantage" Shirts himself . . . and in a matter of hours they would be ready to wear. Day after day . . . far from home . . . Bobby would sparkle at college in his Van Heusen "Vantage" all cotton, wash and wear, no-iron shirts.

"Now," Sonja cried hysterically . . . "I've lost him forever. With all that free time in those handsome shirts, he'll be the target of every girl on campus. If only I had passed bookkeeping I could have gone, too."

As the train pulled away, Bobby's mother faced east and said . . . "Thank you, Van Heusen "Vantage," for being like a mother to my son!"
