

Colender to Captain Nittany Cage Team

By SANDY PADWE

Wally Colender was elected captain of the 1959-60 Penn State basketball team and Mark DuMars was named most valuable player of this year's five at the team's annual award dinner last night.

Tom Hancock, Bob Edwards and Ted Kubista, all graduating seniors, were elected co-captains of this year's team.

"The boys made some good decisions," said basketball Coach John Egli, "and I think that Colender will make a good captain because he is a natural leader."

Colender, a junior, was the second leading scorer for the Lions this year. He finished right behind DuMars in the scoring race with 323 points in 20 games for an average of 16.1 points per game.

DuMars, meanwhile, was the top scorer with 337 points in 20 tilts for a 16.8 average. Both backcourtmen, in addition to their scoring, were topflight playmakers according to many rival coaches.

"DuMars and Colender are as good as any two backcourtmen I've seen this year," said Ben Carnevale the head coach at Navy. Tony Packer of Lehigh was also high on Colender and DuMars. "Those boys are really good. Colender sure can shoot and DuMars is the best feeder I've seen this year."

With these two and lettermen Paul Sweetland, Don Wilson and Jon Musser returning, Egli has the nucleus for an improved team.

Last year the Lions finished with an 11-9 record, but Egli feels that the Blue & White will do better in the 1959-60 season because DuMars and Colender will have more experience and there are a number of good freshman ballplayers ready to take over the posts left by the graduating seniors.

Track Win Depends On Speedsters

Track Coach Chick Werner will be counting heavily on his runners to carry the scoring load when his Lion proteges oppose the Ohio State Buckeyes tomorrow in the season's first action on the Beaver Field track.

The Bucks possess a formidable field crew that may make points scarce for the Nittany field men. But the home team should rate the advantage in most of the running events.

Dash man Bob Brown may have a tough time with Buck letterman Bob McEachern in the sprints, and the Lion middle distance runners may find stiff competition in Ted Storer and Dick Strayer but the Nittany distance men should have a clear field.

The most Ohio State could do in the indoor meet distance events this winter was a slim second in the 2-mile run. OSU's Jim Massey nipped Fred Kerr for second place 13 seconds behind winner Dick Engelbrink. The Lions made a clean sweep in the indoor mile with Ed Moran, Chick King and Dennie Johnson leading the pack. Engelbrink, King and Herm Weber will run the 2-mile for the Blue and White tomorrow. Engelbrink and King will double in the mile run along with Ed Moran.

Brown, Blaine O'Connor and George Metzgar will run the 100 and 220 for the Wernermen while Dick Hambright, Bob Szezyller and Bill Schwab will run the quarter-mile.

The biggest change in the Lion lineup will be in the 880-yard run where Fred Kerr, Don Davies, George Jones and Dave LaHoff will wear the Blue and White colors.

John Fareira and Bob Szezyller will run the low hurdles for Penn State and Dave Truitt will join Fareira in the highs.

The Nittany field entrants are Ron Beard, Dale Peters and Dick Gross in the pole vault; Gross, Mel Ramey and Hambright in the broad jump; John Tullar and Andy Nyce in the shot; Tullar, Nyce, Jon Musser and Jim Wambold in the discus and Fareira and Ramey in the high jump.
