9 Coeds in Finals Of Beauty Contest

Nine of the thirteen finalists in the Miss Centre County contest are students at the University.

They are Kay Binder, junior in business administration from Allentown; Susan Brown, freshman in arts and letters from Baldwin, N.Y.; Marie Frank, part-time student from Bellefonte; Patti Gresco, senior in education from Duquesne; Marian Gordon, junior in education from Johnstown; Marian Luther, sophomore in arts and letters from Johnstown; Joanne Pangonis, sophomore in education from Mahanoy City; Lois Piercy, senior in education from Springfield; and Marilyn Turki, junior in physical education from Cannonsburg.

Miss Binder, a member of Alpha Phi social sorority, was one of the five finalists in 1957. Miss Piercy, Delta Gamma, was the first runner-up in last year's contest. Miss Brown is a pledge of Kappa Alpha Theta. Miss Gresco is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma. Miss Gordon a member of Alpha Omicron Pi. Miss Luther a member of Chi Omega and Miss Pangonis a member of Theta Phi Alpha.

The fourth annual crowning of the queen will take place Friday in the auditorium of the Bellefonte Junior High School. The crowning ceremony and pageant will be preceded by a convertible parade through the Bellefonte business district. Music will be provided by the Keystoneairs. Members of Scabard and Blade will serve as escorts for the contestants. They will be judged in three categories—bathing suit, evening gown and talent by five non-Centre County judges.

The judges will select five finalists. These five will then be asked impromptu questions to determine the top three.

The queen will be crowned by last year's queen, Jean Bixby, junior in arts and letters from State College.

The minimum prizes for the queen will include a $200 dollar scholarship from the Bellefonte Jaycees, a tiara, a trophy, a Catalina bathing suit and a gown for the Miss Pennsylvania contest. She, and a hostess, will receive a free trip to Chester for the state contest.

The first runner-up will receive a $100 savings bond and a trophy. The second runner-up will be presented with a $50 savings bond and a gift. Each of the other contestants will also receive a gift.

Tribunal Applications

Applications for tribunal seats next year are due tomorrow. Independent men have been urged to apply since the ratio of fraternity men to independents has been extremely high in recent years.

Application forms are available at the Hetzel Union desk.

All-Star Game--SCCA Plan--

The North team was leading at the half by a 9-2 margin, but blew its lead in a blistering second half with the South finally drawing even at the end of the regulation game, 11-11.

The two teams battled through two five minute overtime periods with neither able to gain the advantage.

When the final whistle blew, it was 12:30 a.m. with the score still tied at 14-14.

John Nolan, who Nick Thiel claims was one of the finest lacrosse players he ever coached, played practically the entire game and was one of the outstanding players in the contest. Nolan was captain of the Penn State lacrosse team and also captain of the undefeated Lion grid squad that went to the Cotton Bowl the following year.

Thiel is the only coach in the history of the North-South series to post a 1-1-1 record.

The bill presented to Assembly last night contained several changes from the original.

Identification requirements were changed to include a matriculation card plus a meal ticket, drivers license, social security card or draft card.

Also, the SCAA chairman and treasurer would be bonded for $4000. Disciplinary action by the University for any student cashing a bad check was also called for.

WHO SAID IT FIRST?

A column of incidental intelligence by Jockey brand

"GENTLEMAN AND SCHOLAR"

High praise, indeed, for any man! But did you know that the description comes from Robert Burns—who said it first about a dog? Here's the quote: "His locked, lettered, brow brass collar Showed him the gentleman and scholar." You'll find the couplet in Burns' "The Two Dogs."

"THE MORNING AFTER"

This horrible time was first immortalized by George Ade in "The Sultan of Sulu." Here's the way he put it: "But, R-E-M-O-R-S-E-I The water-wagon is the place for me; It is no time for mirth and laughter, The cold, gray dawn of the morning after!"

"MAN BITES DOG"

That's everybody's definition of news, and we're all indebted to John B. Bogart, city editor of the old New York Sun (1873-90) who first said: "When a dog bites a man, that is not news, because it happens so often. But if a man bites a dog, that is news!"

Jockey Underwear

What's true about expressions is also true about styles. Somebody always got there first. Take Jockey brand underwear. Jockey brand is made only by Coopers. Coopers invented Jockey underwear—and no copy can compare with Jockey brand for quality, comfort and fit.
