

Nittany Baseball Streak Broken by Syracuse

Penn State's eight-game winning streak was broken Saturday when Syracuse topped the Lion baseballers, 10-6, in the first game of a double-header at Syracuse.

But the Lions, (11-2), came back in the nightcap to beat the Orangemen, 9-1, as sophomore star Ed Kikla (5-0) won his fifth game of the season on a two-hitter.

It was the second start in two days for the Lion portsider. He started Friday's game against Colgate but only went four innings as wildness and errors led to his downfall.

Assistant coach Chuck Medlar said that he thought Kikla's performance against Syracuse was his best this year. And that takes in his two-hitter against Ohio State in April.

The Lion portsider struck out nine and didn't walk any en route to the win. However, the one run he did give up was earned but he still has an ERA of 0.76.

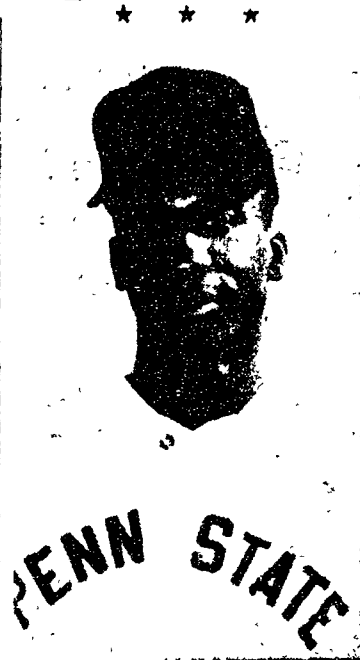

Kikla had plenty of help from his Lion teammates as they collected eight timely hits and played well in the field.

Shortstop Bob Hoover with a homerun, and catcher Harry Beans with a double had the big blows for the Lions. Hoover's homer came in the sixth with teammate Larry Fegley aboard. It was his second of the season.

Beans was the lead off man in the fourth and his double started a big three run rally for the Nittanians.

The first game, however, was a lot different as the Lions fell apart in the field, committing five errors which led to most of Syracuse's runs.

Penn State jumped into an early lead in the first game with two runs in the first. Then in the second Syracuse narrowed the gap to 2-1.

Bob Hoover ... blasts homer

With the score 3-1 in favor of the Lions in the third inning Penn State pitcher Tom Durbin (2-1) ran into control trouble and Syracuse took advantage of his wildness to score four runs to take a 5-3 lead.

Bob Arner then came in to relieve Durbin, but he didn't meet with much success as the Orangemen added two more runs in the fourth.

The Lions threatened again in the seventh when they scored a run and again in the eighth when they pushed two across. But Syracuse matched each Penn State tally and went on to win 10-6.

Durbin took the loss for the Lions in the first game and he now has a record of 2-1. He played leftfield after being knocked out but didn't get any hits. In the second tilt he went 1 for 3 still giving him the team's top batting average—.631.

DUGOUT CHATTER — Harry Beans is in the Ritenour Health Center where he is nursing an infected boil . . . but he may be ready for the home game against Lehigh tomorrow . . . Reserve catcher John McSparran will probably have to miss tomorrow's game too because of a possible fractured cheek bone suffered in practice last night . . . The injuries to the two catchers leave the Lions with only one healthy catcher—John Adams . . .

| PENN STATE  |       | SYRACUSE      |       |
|-------------|-------|---------------|-------|
| AB          | R H   | AB            | R H   |
| Landis,3b   | 5 0 2 | Sardinia,cf   | 4 0 0 |
| Durbin,p    | 3 0 0 | Vrooman,ss    | 5 0 3 |
| Fegley,2b   | 3 2 0 | Howell,3b     | 3 2 0 |
| Hoover,ss   | 4 3 2 | Clemens,1b    | 5 3 3 |
| DeLong,rf   | 4 1 4 | Guisti,p      | 5 2 3 |
| Caldwell,cf | 5 0 2 | Holmes,c      | 5 3 4 |
| Benton,1b   | 4 0 1 | Mannara,2b    | 2 0 0 |
| Adams,c     | 2 0 1 | Easterly,lf   | 2 0 0 |
| Kikla,lf    | 6 0 0 | Belle Isle,rf | 4 0 1 |
| Arner,p     | 2 0 0 |               |       |
| Luff        | 1 0 0 |               |       |

Totals 33 6 12 Totals 35 10 14
*—Fanned for Arner in 9th
Penn State . . . 201 000 120—6 12 5
Syracuse . . . 014 201 20x—10 14 2
W—Guisti; L—Durbin (2-1)

| PENN STATE  |       | SYRACUSE      |       |
|-------------|-------|---------------|-------|
| AB          | R H   | AB            | R H   |
| Landis,3b   | 3 1 1 | Sardinia,cf   | 2 0 0 |
| Durbin,lf   | 4 1 1 | Vrooman,ss    | 3 0 1 |
| Fegley,2b   | 3 1 0 | Howell,3b     | 3 0 0 |
| Hoover,ss   | 4 1 2 | Clemens,1b    | 2 0 0 |
| DeLong,rf   | 4 0 0 | Guisti,2b     | 3 1 1 |
| Caldwell,cf | 3 1 1 | Muation,p     | 2 0 0 |
| Beighes,1b  | 4 1 1 | Holmes,c      | 2 0 0 |
| Beans,c     | 4 2 2 | Cronin,c      | 1 0 0 |
| Kikla,p     | 2 1 0 | Easterly,lf   | 2 0 0 |
|             |       | Belle Isle,rf | 2 0 0 |

Totals 31 9 8 Totals 22 1 2
Penn State . . . 110 322 0-9 8 1
Syracuse . . . 010 000 0-1 2 4
W—Kikla (5-0); L—Muation

IM Track Entries

All entries for intramural track must be turned in by 4:30 p.m. Wednesday at the intramural office in Rec Hall. Four hundred and forty entries should be listed at this time.

Netters' Win Ends Long Losing Streak

Penn State's tennis team snapped its 6-game losing streak Saturday by registering a 6-3 win over Syracuse on the Nittany Courts.

The netters' second win of the season came on singles victories by sophomore Dick Ludwig, Captain Chuck Bibleheimer, John Krall and John Blanck. Doubles wins were turned in by Bibleheimer and Jerry Carp, and Blanck and Don McCarty.

Coach Sherm Fogg's forces will try for their third win when they travel to Philadelphia today where a strong Pennsylvania team will be favored to put the Nittanians back on the losing trail.

The Quakers are led by veteran John Mangan, whom Fogg labels second to no one in Eastern tennis play. Georgetown, a common foe, outplayed the Lions, 8-1 but lost to powerful Penn.

Pleased with his players' performance Saturday, Fogg plans to field the same lineup against the Quakers.

One of the big surprises Saturday was the performance of Ludwig. Holding down the number one position, he turned back Al Maguire, 6-3, 6-2.

Bibleheimer, starting off slowly, dropped his first pair of games to Jack Frier, but came on strongly to cop the next dozen encounters and whip the visitor's third man, 6-2, 6-0.

Fourth man Krall downed Dick Young, 6-1, 6-2, and sixth man Blanck won a lopsided double shutout victory over Bill Seager.

Orange mentor Gene Garrett's lone singles victors were Dick Morey, who upended second man Jerry Carp, 6-1, 6-4, and Bud Pirone, who posted a three set win over fifth man Gary Moore, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.

Bibleheimer evidently wasn't satisfied with just one comeback victory. After teaming with Carp

Dick Ludwig ... wins for Lions to capture the first set in their doubles action against Maguire and Seager, 6-3, the Lions' top doubles combination fell behind in the second set, 5-1.

But they came back to defeat the Orangemen, 11-9, not only winning their match, but securing a team victory as well.

Blanck paired with Don McCarty to edge Frier and Pirone, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4; but Ludwig and Moore lost to Morey and Young, 6-2, 6-4.

Lion Linksmen Take Second In EIGA Tourney at Princeton

Always a bridesmaid but never a bride. This can best describe the fortunes of the Penn State linksmen in the EIGA tourney because for the second year in a row, they finished in the runner-up spot behind Yale.

The Lions shot a 785 to finish behind the Eli's 770. The total was made up by the top five men on the team. They were: Dick Burgoon, who was top medalist during the team tourney with a 74-72-146; Roy Altman, 77-77-154; Bill Davidson, 77-78-155; John Morton, 85-79-164, and Scott Stultz, 81-85-166.

According to golf coach Joe Boyle, the linksmen looked very good during the first day. However, the factor that hurt the golfers' chances was the Princeton golf course.

"The fairways were narrow, the roughs outgrown and the greens of the postage stamp variety," the Lion mentor added.

During the team play each of the golfers had at least one out of bounds shot, increasing their total score by 10 strokes.

The out of bounds shots also cost the golfers in the individual play as the three men who qualified—Burgoon, Altman, and Davidson—each had their troubles with them.

Burgoon fared the best as he reached the second round of the tourney. In the first round he beat Jerry Goring of Princeton by a 5 and 3 score.

However, in the second round he came up against Syracuse's Warren Simmons, one-time EIGA and NCAA champ and lost 1 up.

Burgoon started slowly losing the first three holes. After that point he played even golf with Simmons until the 15th hole. Burgoon won the 15th, 16th and 17th holes, shooting birdies. On the 18th, his tee shot was out of bounds, costing him the hole and the match.

Bill Davidson, ex-EIGA champ and Lion captain, lost his first round match to Don Norbury of Penn. this year's titlist, 1 up after 21 holes. Both men played par 72 golf for the match.

Davidson was three down with four holes left when he made a comeback. He won the 15th, 16th and 17th holes with birdies. Both men parred the 18th.

On the 21st, Davidson put his second shot in a trap, took two strokes to recover and lost the match.

Penn State's Roy Altman lost his first round match to Bob Edelstein of Army by a 2 up score.

Have you tried our hamper BOX STORAGE

a whole boxful stored at NO EXTRA COST!

PENN STATE
DRY CLEANING & LAUNDRY SERVICE
Dial AD 7-7629 320 W. Beaver Ave.

SENIOR WHO WANTS TO MAKE $30,000 A YEAR BEFORE HE'S 30

What he wears, when and where he wears it will be important to achieving his goal. His clothes should be from a store which is familiar with the young executive kind of clothing. We say that store is Jack Harper. This season from $39.95.

Jack Harper
Custom Shop for Men
Around the Corner from Bostonian Ltd.
W. College Ave., State College

Visit our Second Floor. Step up to an Atherton.

THE RISE OF THE CONSERVATIVE

The man of fashion now recognizes that his choice of shoes is due for a change from the styles of yesteryear. The main trend and one we applaud, is the rise of the conservative.

Bostonian Ltd.
PENN STATE
Jack Harper Guy Kresge
Around the corner from the Jack Harper Custom Shop