

Stickmen Top Lehigh, 8-5, To Cinch Winning Season

By BILL BARBER

For four long years the Penn State lacrosse team has been striving to attain a winning season. Even with All-American Bill Hess the Lions could not gain this elusive mark.

But yesterday the Nittanians finally made the grade. In a hard-fought game with Lehigh the Lions came out on top by an 8-5 spread, giving them a 5-3-1 record to insure a victorious year even though the closing game with Rutgers still remains to be played.

The Lions were up for this game and proved their point early in the first half, as four Lion shots cascaded past the Engineer goaltender to give the Nittanians a 4-0 lead at the first period gun.

Chip Henderson opened the Lions' scoring spree at 5:32 when he snagged a pass from Bob Swanson and slammed it through for the opening goal.

Two minutes later Swanson scored his first of three goals on an assist by Ray Tuleys. At the 10 minute mark, Jim Wimpenny chucked his first goal of the day into the Lehigh net on an unassisted play.

Then, with one second to go in the first period, John Behne tallied his lone goal of the game with Dick Bullock picking up the assist.

Andy Jones finally broke the scoring ice for Lehigh at 2:09 in the second period when he whipped one into the Lion nets unassisted. Twenty seconds later Jones tallied once again on an unassisted play to cut the Lions' lead down to a slim two goals.

But at 4:23 Swanson padded the Lions' lead to three goals as he tossed one past the Engineers' netminder with Tuleys claiming the assist.

Five minutes later, Andy Jones scored his third goal of the period as he once again pitched one past the Lion goal unassisted.

Wimpenny hit for his second goal of the day a minute later with Behne picking up the assist.

In the third period the Baermen were held scoreless as the Lehigh defense tightened. Tom Slately of Lehigh tallied the lone goal of the period with Dave Rullman taking the assist.

In the fourth period the Lions renewed their scoring efforts once again as Tuleys slipped his first goal of the game into the Andy Jones managed to score his fourth unassisted goal of the game for Lehigh before Swanson iced the game with an unassisted score of 12:33.

The game was played in the rain and even though the Lion goal fronted on its own artificial lake, goalie Dave Wilkinson managed to scoop 12 saves out of the mud for the Nittanians.

The field was so wet that the ball disappeared several times in the thick layer of mud that surrounded the goals. The game had to be delayed several times while players searched the slime for the elusive pellet.

According to Coach Earnie Baer, Mike Beattie was the stand-out in the Lions' improved defense yesterday. Beattie was instrumental in breaking up several Lehigh scoring attempts and did a great job on clearing the ball, Baer said.

Golfers To End Season With Cornell

The Penn State golfers, hot after their 3-game winning streak and second place finish in the Easterns, and currently sporting a 4-4 slate, will try to end with a winning season when they face Cornell at 1 p.m. today on the Nittany links.

Cornell did fairly well at the EIGA's, according to golf coach Joe Boyle. The Big Red finished tenth in team standings with an 847.

They also had a man qualify for the individual title. Art Hemker was fifth medalist for the first day of play, shooting a 74-78-152. However, he was eliminated in the first round of individual play.

Other big guns on the Big Red are Art Mosher and Bob Wagner. Neither of these men qualified for the individuals, although, according to Boyle, they both shot good rounds.

Boyle further added that the Cornell team was well-rounded and could give the Nittany Lions a "good fight."

The Lion mentor will use basically the same lineup that appeared in the Easterns last weekend. Bill Davidson will be in his usual number one slot, followed by Dick Burgoon, Roy Altman, Scott Stultz, Haydn Thomas, John Morton and Ed Kormos.

Davidson will be shooting for his sixth win against three losses for the season. He will probably face Hemker in the opening match.

Burgoon, who has a 3-5 record, will attempt to continue the fine showing he put on at the EIGA tourney. Burgoon was leading medalist and reached the second round of individual competition.

Scott Stultz to date has the best dual meet record among the Lion linksmen. He has carded a 6-2 for the season. According to the Lion mentor, Stultz has been very consistent this season. "He might not play championship golf but he is a very fine clutch golfer," Boyle added.

Roy Altman also fits into Boyle's description as he has scored a 5-3 mark for the current season. His losses have been squeakers. He lost three matches by 1 up and 2 and 1 scores.

Thomas, Morton and Kormos will round out the lineup. "We hope that these three men continue to help us in the same way that they have during the previous matches," Boyle said.

Towel to Be Welter

LONDON (AP)—Willie Towel of South Africa, who lost his British Empire lightweight title Tuesday night to Britain's Dave Charnley, will fight in the future as a welterweight.

Tigers Sell Doby

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers yesterday sold outfielder Larry Doby to the Chicago White Sox for more than $20,000 cash.

No other player was involved in the deal.

Doby came to the Tigers during spring training in a trade with the Cleveland Indians that sent Tito Francona to the Indians.

4 Racquet Duos Move to Finals OF IM Flights

The four flight finalists of the fraternity intramural tennis doubles were decided in the action of the past week.

In flight 1, Tom Brandeis and Rich Haber of Beta Sigma Rho reached the final by winning two matches. They defeated the Weldon-Luff pair from Phi Mu Delta 6-3, 6-4, then turned back the Sekeras-Jones combination from Alpha Chi Sigma by identical 6-3 scores.

Jim Nestelrode and Bill Lapitsky of Sigma Pi gamed the other berth in the flight 1 final as they stopped Jim Norton and Jack Brown of Alpha Sigma Phi in a three game set, 6-2, 2-6, 6-1.

In flight 2 action, Al Kamis and Gene Greenberg of Phi Epsilon Pi fought their way to the finals by defeating the Houck-Irons two-some from Chi Phi, 6-2, 6-1. Vance Rae and Jim Weber of Sigma Alpha Epsilon battled their way to the final round by edging Al Freeman and Dave Martinez of Phi Kappa Psi in three games, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Brandeis and Haber will meet Lapitsky and Nestelrode for the flight 1 title, and Kamis and Greenberg will play Rae and Weber for flight 2 honors. These matches are to be played over the weekend and the championship match will then be played before May 20.

In independent action, the Robertson-Bart duo reached the semi-finals by beating the Rivers-Schlegel pair, 6-4, 6-2. Other two-somes that previously made the semi-finals are Linker-Babcock and Waldo-Truesdale. The fourth semi-finalist has not yet been determined.

Rain Again Forces 'Nine' to Miss Game

Rain and wet grounds yesterday caused postponement of Penn State's baseball game with Lehigh which was scheduled for Beaver Field.

It was the fourth time this year that the Nittanians were rained out. Earlier in the season, games with Lafayette, Rutgers and Villanova were called off.

Yesterday's rainout leaves the Lions with an 11-2 record with four more games to play. The first of these will be Saturday at West Virginia.

The Lions return home Wednesday to play Pittsburgh in a doubleheader beginning at 1 p.m., then next Friday they wind up the season with a game against Temple in Philadelphia.

The Lion coaches expect all the games to be tough, especially the one with Temple. The Owls are leading the Middle Atlantic Conference with an 8-0 record, and in their last outing they walloped Penn, 15-1. The Lions also beat Penn, but by a 10-3 count.

Pitt, who dropped a twinbill to the Lions last year, also has had a good season. They have a 9-2 record which includes two wins over Syracuse and one over Bucknell. But in their last game they lost to Navy, 9-8, a team which the Lions beat, 6-3.

West Virginia features a lineup composed mainly of lettermen including basketball stars Bucky Bolyard and Ronnie Retton.

ASig, ATO Reach IM Bowling Finals

Alpha Sigma Phi and Alpha Tau Omega rolled their way into the finals of the fraternity intramural bowling tournament last night.

These two teams will roll-off tomorrow night on the Rec Hall alleys for the title.

Alpha Sig gained the finals by clipping Beta Theta Pi, 3-1, on total pins. Alpha Sig had gained the finals by winning a playoff with Theta Xi for their league title Monday night.

ATO, led by Mel Royer's 628 series, romped over Pi Kappa Phi, 4-0. ATO, which has had one of the top teams in the league in recent years, continued to show its dominance in fraternity bowling.

Royer, who represented Penn State in the National Bowling Congress collegiate tournament in March, is considered by many to be the best bowler on campus in both the fraternity and independent leagues.

THE "MALE-STROM"

MONTH'S BEST QUOTE: "And now a word from the President of the United States . . . 'FORE!!'"

FASHIONS: With the rapid change in clothing styles for men, the news in shoes has been somewhat neglected. The new fashions afoot have given clodhoppers of yore the boot. While men's suits are busy adopting conservative continental styling, shoes have remained intrinsically American. For the campus flexible leather soles, a squared-off toe and finished in neutral leather tones, is great. It affords rugged wear, masculine styling, while also suggesting dressy sportswear . . . For those black-tie evening affairs, either the four-eyelet, black oxford shoe of textured and smoothed-grain calf, or a good pair of plain black cordovans should do the trick.

NEW TO THE MARKET: Men, do you have a beard like iron? Do you shave twice a day and sometimes at knight? Relax. The first completely adjustable electric shaver, developed by the Remington Rand Electric Shaver Company, has revolutionized shaving . . . The "Roll-A-Matic" features a "roller control panel" which can be adjusted to shave from the toughest of beards to the tenderest of skins . . . The unlimited settings of this remarkable Remington make for a real close shave without sign of skin irritation.
