

Kikla Hurls One-Hitter As Lions Tops Mounties

Penn State's Ed Kikla moved the Lions a little closer to the NCAA District II tournament when he pitched a one-hit shutout and struck out 16 West Virginia batsmen Saturday at Morgantown.

Kikla's 3-0 whitewash job sent the Lions' season record to 12-2 and established Penn State as one of the hottest contenders for the district tourney.

The win also brought out the importance of tomorrow's doubleheader with Pittsburgh at Beaver Field. The Panthers have one of their strongest teams in a long time and could give the Lions trouble, according to Penn State coach Joe Bedenk.

After tomorrow's doubleheader, the Lions will close out the season with Middle Atlantic Conference leader Temple — at Philadelphia.

Saturday's win was Kikla's sixth of the year against no defeats, and the shutout lowered his ERA to 0.60. His 16 strikeouts raised his team leading total to 57.

Kikla had a no-hitter going for 7 1/2 innings Saturday before West Virginia's leftfielder Bob Morosco singled. But that was the only hit the Mounties got off the Lions' leading pitcher.

The Lions, on the other hand, only got seven hits off the servings of West Virginia's Bucky Bolyard. Larry Fegley led Penn State at bat, collecting a double and triple in four trips to the plate.

The Lions scored their first run in the second inning when Bob Hoover, the leadoff man, reached first on an error. Zeke DeLong then bounced out short to first, moving Hoover to second.

Doug Caldwell then struck out leaving Hoover on second, and Bill Benton stepped in to hit. He lined one to second and the Mountie secondbaseman

No decision will be made on the district tournament until Monday when District II officials meet in Scranton. Last year the Lions received a bid to the tournament with a 14-4 record.

The rest of the top teams in District II—Lafayette, Rutgers, Delaware, Villanova, and Navy—have all lost at least five games this year. Pitt is rated as a "dark-horse" for the tournament and a good showing here tomorrow could put them in the playoffs.

Terps, Army, Hopkins Battle for LaX Crown

With the lacrosse season coming fast to a close, a battle for first place is shaping up between the three top teams in the nation—Maryland, Johns Hopkins and Army.

Army's plight may be decided Saturday when it meets Navy in the annual Army-Navy game. Navy was the only team this year to beat Johns Hopkins, and could spoil Army's chances according to lacrosse experts.

But as for Maryland and Johns Hopkins, only a surprise upset could topple either of these lacrosse giants as the battle for the National Championship goes down to the wire.

Mel Royer Paces ATO To Bowling Championship

Alpha Tau Omega is the new IM Bowling champion. Paced by Mel Royer's 585 series and John Neifert's 515, they swept past Alpha Sigma Phi, 3-1. The score was 2385-2165.

The match started out with Alpha Sig taking the first game 775-758. High game was Royer's 179 for ATO but it wasn't enough to overcome Alpha Sig's well balanced attack. Dick Grob paced Alpha Sig during the contest with 173 and 491 for the match, and Bill Walton had 158 for the game and 473 for the match for the Alpha Sigs.

The second game was a different story with Royer, Neifert and company finally coming to life. ATO took the game 860-668. Royer paced the attack with a 212. He received good support from Neifert (175) and Bob Jaecques who rolled a 193 for the game and a 458 series.

Grob and Bill White (152) tried in vain to halt the ATO five. White rolled a 436 series for the match, third for his team.

In the third game it was all ATO again, this time by 45 pins, 767-722. Royer completed his 585 series with a 195 and Neifert hit 184 to complete his 515. Grob and Walton again led the Alpha Sig attack with 156 and 147 respectively, but it was not enough to stem the tide.

Foggmen to Meet West Virginia Away

The Penn State tennis team will attempt to rebound from their 9-0 defeat at the hands of Penn when they face the Mountaineers of West Virginia today at Morgantown.

Tennis Coach Sherm Fogg will use the lineup that he has been going with in the last few outings. Number one man will be sophomore Dick Ludwig. Ludwig has been one of two men who have shown the most consistency on the squad, according to Fogg.

Ludwig was number six man at the beginning of the season. Showing good form, he gradually moved up until he reached the number one spot which he now holds.

The other netter who has been constant is Jerry Carp, Fogg said. Carp will be number two man against the Mounties. He has been a big winner for the Lions this season, taking four out of nine.

Third man on the squad is Charley Bibleheimer, captain of the Nittany team. Bibleheimer has had rough sledding this year, winning only two out of ten matches. Both wins came in the two Lion victories over Juniata and Syracuse.

Rounding out the singles spots will be Gary Moore, John Krall and John Blanck. Krall is the only returning letterman on the squad besides Bibleheimer.

Both Blanck and Moore are inexperienced members of the squad, this being their first year of competition.

The Lion doubles combinations will be Moore and Ludwig, Bibleheimer and Carp and Blanck and Don McCartney. Both combos of Moore-Ludwig and Bibleheimer-Carp have done well in competition, being the strong point on the net team.

Blanck and McCartney have not done so well. McCartney is used solely for doubles by the Lion mentor.

West Virginia does not have an outstanding squad. The only thing that Fogg knows of them is that they have dropped more matches than they have won.
