

Lions Host Pitt in Doublebill

By SANDY PADWE

Penn State and Pittsburgh will match almost identical records this afternoon when they meet in a doubleheader on Beaver Field at 1 p.m.—but there will be a lot more at stake than records.

The Lions carry a 12-2 record into today's game while Pitt comes into the contest with an 11-2 log. But the important thing about today's game is a possible bid to the NCAA district playoffs.

Right now the Panthers and Lions have the best won-lost records in District II and a double win by either team would just about assure them of a berth in the district tournament.

No official announcement will be made, however, on the choices for the tournament until Monday when District II officials meet in Scranton.

There are two "at large" berths open to the Districts, and the two other slots are filled by the winner of the Middle Atlantic Conference and the Metropolitan League.

The winner of the district title earns the right to go to Omaha, Neb., for the College World Series.

nominated his undefeated righthander Ron Riese to pitch the all-important first game. Riese has won three games this year, beating Georgetown, Navy and Colgate.

Last year Riese beat Pitt on a

2-0 shutout after Cal Emery had the Panthers and Bob Conti (3-1) shut the Panthers out in the first.

Pitt, too, will go with undefeated righthanders today. Bill Hamilton (4-0) and Dick Wurth (3-0) are scheduled to pitch for changes for today's game and will go with Bill Benton (1-b), Larry Fegley (2b), Bob Hoover (ss) and Dick Landis (3b).

Tom Durbin, Doug Caldwell and Zeke DeLong will make up the Lion outfield. John Adams will catch the first game for the Nittanies with Harry Beans behind the plate in the second affair.

Durbin is still the leading Lion hitter with a .565 average. Zeke DeLong with .363 is second and Larry Fegley is third with .353.

The Panthers have a well rounded batting attack, too. Shortstop George Schoepner is Pitt's top hitter with a .387 mark. Catcher Fred DeLost is second with .317. But Pitt's two top RBI men—Bill Kaliden and Nick Kartsonas—are under .300.

After today's doublebill, the Lions close out the season against Middle Atlantic Conference leader—Temple—Friday in Philadelphia.

2 Trophies in 1 Night

Acacia Wins Soccer, Horseshoes Titles

By RON SMITH

Defending champion Acacia beat Alpha Sigma Phi in the fraternity intramural soccer finals Monday night on Beaver Field to annex the trophy for the second straight year.

A 2-0 edge in corner kicks provided the margin of victory for the Acacians as neither team could dent the nets in the tight defensive duel.

The Acacia forward line of Dave Reeder, Hal Zook and Dave Swavely controlled the ball in the Alpha Sigs half of the field for the majority of the game and blasted several shots at the losers' goal. But Alpha Sig halfback Bill Leary and goalie Art Nagle played good defensive ball to protect the Alpha Sig nets.

Halfback John Witwer and goalie Bob Shaw kept the Acacia defensive area clear and set up plays for the downfield linemen.

The winners garnered one corner kick in each half to maintain their unblemished record. The victory extended Acacia's winning streak over the last two years to twelve games.

Acacia gained a berth in the final round Sunday by beating Tau Kappa Epsilon, 1-0, on Reeder's penalty kick. Alpha Sig, engaged in a scoreless duel and tied in corner kicks with Alpha Chi Rho at the end of regulation time, booted in a goal in overtime to win, 1-0, to gain the finals.

The independent soccer crown was won by Hamilton III, which eked out a 1-0 win over the Falcons. Dan O'Leary scored the only goal of the game at 2:40 of the second half when he rammed in a rebound shot.

Members of the championship Hamilton III team are O'Leary, Bob Jones, Bob White, Kraig Baier, Larry Clausen, and Al Podbesek.

Acacia's horseshoe pitching duo of LaVerne Myers and Dave Juers won the fraternity intramural horseshoe doubles championship Monday night.

The Acacians defeated Theta Delta Chi's George Shugarts and Jay Waterman, 21-16, 21-9, in the finals. Juers ended the second game with a climactic double ringer to complete the finals sweep.

The toughest test for the Acacians came in the semi-final round when Phi Kappa Psi's Norm Neff and Bernie Kolanowski won the second game, 21-2. This was the only game lost by Myers and Juers during the 6-match tournament. They won the first game, 21-14, and rallied to win the last one, 21-6, to defeat the Phi Psi pair.

Myers and Juers piled up points by topping the opponents' ringers throughout the tournament, especially in the Phi Psi match. The sharpshooting pair averaged five ringers per game.

Thirty-eight fraternities entered pairs in the single elimination tournament.

Tom Pasko and Bill Hetrick won the IM independent horseshoe doubles crown with a 3-0 league record. Only four sets of players were entered.

Cubs Score Three in 9th To Beat Philadelphia, 8-7

CHICAGO (P)—The Chicago Cubs scored three runs in the ninth yesterday to defeat Philadelphia and former teammate Taylor Phillips 8-7. Wally Post's two-run pinch homer in the top half of the ninth had put the Phillies' lead 7-5.

The Cubs set the stage for their ninth one-run victory in 17 games when Al Dark singled to open the ninth. Ernie Banks also singled, and both runners advanced on a wild pitch.

Moose Moryn, who was married Sunday, fanned for the first out before loser Phillips walked Earl Averill to fill the bases. Humberto Robinson, who reported Monday after his purchase from Cleveland, replaced Phillips and watched Dark score as Willie Jones fumbled Bobby Thompson's grounder.

Jim Marshall, batting for Lee Walls, then stroked a 2 and 2 pitch to right field for a single, enabling Banks and Averill to score the tying and winning runs for the Phillies' seventh straight loss.
