

New Editors For Froth Announced

New editors of Froth, campus humor magazine, are Alan Elms, junior in psychology from La-Center, Kentucky, and James Winnepenny, junior in arts and letters from Baltimore.

Howard Lincoln, junior in the Division of Counseling from Erie, and Stewart Barmen, sophomore in business administration from Pittsburgh, were named new business managers.

Also appointed were: Sara Monroe, freshman in arts and letters from Merion, as office manager; Gretchen Harrison, freshman in journalism from Tarentum, as photography director; and Rosabelle Kitzmiller, junior in education from Harrisburg, as an exchange director.

William Crist, junior in journalism from Harrisburg, was re-appointed as art director and Sally Browning, junior in home economics from Wyalusing, was re-named as an exchange director.

Artist-Mother Seeks Portrait Of Young Son

A graduate student in art education appealed yesterday for the return of a portrait of her four-year-old son, Billy, taken from the art display at the Hetzel Union Building sometime Monday night.

The artist, Mrs. Marlene Linderman, 106 Bell Ave., reported that one of her neighbors saw a group of boys carrying a canvas out of the building about 10:40 p.m. Monday. The neighbor told her the boys were laughing as they put the canvas into a car and drove off.

Because of the sentimental value of the painting, Mrs. Linderman said she will allow those who took it 48 hours to return it to some place where it will be recognized and given back to her.

If the painting is not returned by then, Mrs. Linderman said she will release details of those believed to have taken it to police. If returned, she promised that no mention will be made concerning the thieves.

The painting was valued by her at $150, but she said the sentimental value of the portrait outweighs this as far as she is concerned.

Pi Beta Phi Receives WRA Participation Cup

Pi Beta Phi sorority has been awarded the Women's Recreation Association gold cup for having the highest point score in intramural sports participation.

Scores were determined by adding the first, second and third place wins of all independent and sorority women's teams entered in the intramural competitions in field hockey, basketball, volleyball, softball, bowling and bridge.

ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil

Oil helps preserve today for tomorrow

The high points in life keep their warmth in movies made at home. Baby's first bath . . . first step . . . first birthday party—and all the other firsts to come. They're captured for keeping on safety film made with an oil-based chemical. Esso Research helped provide the process for making this important chemical directly from oil. In film, as in fuel, ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil.
