

Trackmen to Meet Manhattan

End Home Schedule Tomorrow

By JOHN BLACK

The high-flying Penn State track team will make its last appearance before the home fans tomorrow afternoon when it meets the Manhattan Jaspers on the Beaver Field oval at 12:30.

All that remains after this weekend for the Nittany tracksters, who have filled the year with record-breaking performances, is the IC4-A championships in New York May 29-30 and the national championships in Lincoln, Neb., June 12-13.

Six seniors will complete their dual-meet career for the Blue and White tomorrow—miler Ed Moran, half-miler Chick King, distance runner Fred Kerr and fieldmen John Tullar, Sam Richards and Jim Wambold.

Unless erased by tomorrow's performances, Moran's name will remain in the Penn State record books for his 4:01.7 mile and King's name will be preserved for posterity as 880-yard record-holder at 1:49.8.

Action on the Beaver Field track will begin at 10 tomorrow morning with the qualifying rounds of the PIAA state high school championships. The Penn State-Manhattan match will start at 12:30 and the schoolboy finals will be run after the conclusion of the college meet.

The Lion-Jasper duel will pit the two IC4A indoor "champions" in a return match on the outdoor cinders. By virtue of a disputed official's decision Manhattan carried off the team championship trophy with less than a 1/2-point edge over Penn State. But an executive committee ruling reversing the decision returned the trophy to its rightful position in the shadow of old Mt. Nittany.

Jasper Coach George Eastment has expressed confidence that the visiting New Yorkers can mar the Lions undefeated outdoor record, but a neutral observer, Pitt Coach Carl Rees, expressed a different opinion. Speaking from experience, he said, "I don't know how anybody can beat State."

Manhattan, which so far this season has placed second in the New York Metropolitan intercollegiate, won a triangular meet with Army and Syracuse and lost a dual meet to Quantico, will come loaded for the "grudge" match.

The Jaspers boast top field stars in weightmen Joe Marchioney, Don McGorty and John Hands, high jumper Frank Carroll and broad jumper Mike McBride. Art Evans, Ed McAllister, Kye Courtney, Bill Lenskold and Henry White head the outstanding list of Manhattan runners.

One of the high spots of the meet will be the 880-yard run where Nittany Coach Chick Werner will send his two outstanding half-milers King and Bill Schwab, plus all-around star Moran in a "race for the record."

King set the record just two weeks ago against Michigan State at 1:49.8. Moran held the record previous to that at 1:50.2 and has run a couple of sub-1:50 relay legs this year. Schwab registered his best of 1:50.7 against Michigan

State. Of course, Manhattan's half-mile ace Courtney could turn the tables on all three of the Lions.

Moran and King will also run the mile along with junior Dick Engelbrink if the Manhattan coach consents to more than three entries per event. Herm Weber and Dennis Johnson will get a chance in the mile and George Jones will be added in the 880.

Evans, Lenskold and Ron Colino are the top Manhattan dashmen for the 100, 220, and 440. Dick Hambricht and Don Davies are slated to run the 440 for the Lions and Bob Brown, Blaine O'Connor and George Metzgar will go in the sprints.

Henry White, whose finish caused the indoor controversy, will lead the Jasper hurdlers. Lions Bob Szezyler, Dave Truitt and John Fareira will run the lows and Fareira, Truitt and John Williams will run the highs.

Engelbrink, Kerr and Weber will be the Penn State 2-mile entries.

The strong Jasper fieldmen will be challenged by Tullar, Jon Musser and Andy Nyce in the discus and shot put, Dick Gross, Ron Beard and Dale Peters in the pole vault, Fareira and Mel Ramey in the high (Continued on page ten)

Tennis Team Will Meet Red Raiders Here Today

By DICK GOLDBERG

Tennis Coach Sherm Fogg, faintly surprised at the payoff of his lineup switching strategy against West Virginia Tuesday, will use the same tactics when the netmen face the Red Raiders of Colgate today on the Nittany courts.

However, the Foggmen will have tough going in today's match. "Colgate is always one of the roughest opponents we have to face," Sherm Fogg, Lion tennis coach, commented.

This year they have plenty of depth, including five lettermen returning from last year's squad which beat the Nittanians, 9-0.

The Colgate team will be led by captain Dick Carney. Carney beat the Lions' second man, Chuck Questa, by a 7-5, 8-6 score last year.

Second man will be junior Art Merovick. Last year, Merovick trounced ex-captain Fred Trust, 6-1, 6-1. Fogg thinks that Merovick will be vastly improved over last year and should give his Lion opponent a rough fight.

Mischa Makaroff will play another singles spot for the Red Raiders from Hamilton. Last year, he beat Don Harnett, 6-4, 6-3. Makaroff also will fill one of the duo spots.

Ed Kenerson and Ed Kregel will play in the fourth and fifth spots for Colgate. Kenerson played in the Lion-Colgate match last year, defeating Mel Royer, 8-4, 8-3.

Kregel did not see action in the match, although he is a returning letterman.

The Lions lineup will be basically the same one that trounced West Virginia, 9-0. Playing number one is Dick Ludwig. Ludwig, a sophomore, won his Mountie match, 6-2, 6-1.

The second and third singles slots will be taken up by Jerry Carp and Captain Charley Bibleheimer, respectively. "Both men looked very good against West Virginia and should be of aid for the rest of the season," Fogg added.

In the last three spots are John Blanck, Don McCartney and Harnett. McCartney and Harnett both came through in the West Virginia meet and Blanck looked very sharp in his playing," Fogg added.

The doubles combos are Ludwig and Blanck, Carp and Bibleheimer and John Krall and Garry Moore.
